FIRST COMPETITIVE RUN A BIG SUCCESS

Jeffers Covers Four Miles in 26 min., 40 sec.—Entries Not Very Large

But nine men lined up for the first competitive run of the Cross Country Club yesterday afternoon, and as a result several of the contestants scored their points with out being compelled to make a very fast pace. Few of the old runners of last year were out; Hands, Crossan, Shaw, Drake, Gordon, and McCrory, all of whom were well up among last year's point winners did not start. The run was over the course from back of the Old Capitol building across the river and down to the Burlington track and return, a distance of 4 miles. Jeffers, one of the half-milers on last year's track team, was first in 26 min., 40 sec.

Summary:

Jeffers	Law	'05—20	points.
Hutchinson	L.A.	'05—19	"
Johnson	"	'04—18	"
Felt	"	'06—17	"
Easton	"	'06—16	"
Askwith	"	'07—12	"
Salisbury	"	'06—14	"
Frost	"	'07—13	"
Glass	"	'07—12	"

Liberal Arts '06 seems to have a good prospect of adding a second mug to the one it captured last year, '06 has 47 points, the freshmen are second with a score of 40 while the two upper classes with only one starter each are practically out of the running. Askwith at present has the best chance for the individual Freshman cup. Hands time last year was 25 min. 58 sec. The second competition will be held on next Thursday at 4:30 practice runs will be held on Tuesday and Saturday as usual. Distance of runs 4.4 to 4.5.

Conference Football Ethics

EDITOR IOWAN:

During the last few days the regular fall protests of gridiron heroes has begun. The Eckersall question of Chicago University is the one which is at present causing the most discussion and to a student at Iowa it seems that if the purity of athletics is to be advanced as Coach Staggs so strongly recommended a year since, it is incumbent upon the Chicago athletic authorities to make a move and at least suspend Eckersall until an investigation of the conference board can be had. Certainly as much evidence strengthened by affidavits is at hand as there was in the Williams case and it is a well known story how our authorities proceeded.

We think it is up to Chicago, if she wishes to abide by the rulings Staggs himself made.

Fine Team and Good Prospects for Illinois Game, Say Prexie and Wade

"We have a team to be proud of this year," said Congressman M. J. Wade at the mass meeting last night.

"They have worked hard to win and if they haven't won every game, they have made the other fellows work to win.

"The team this year is one which is worthy of hearty, enthusiastic support. I know that we are all going to do all we can to help along a victory over Illinois.

"At the same time, I say that it isn't observing the courtesy that should obtain between man and man, for Iowa to defeat Illinois for two or three years to come. We defeated them once so badly that if they should beat us for three years to come they would not be able to wipe out the memory of it.

"One of Rock Island's leading business men was so disappointed at that game that he went home before it was out. 'What is the score?' was asked by a friend 'O——,' he replied, 'they've run out of numbers and are using the alphabet.'"

TEAM AN IMPROVEMENT

"The team this year is a great improvement on the teams of 1901 and 1902," said President G. E. MacLean at the mass meeting. "Everywhere we hear good words about the playing of the boys, their spirit, their determination and their never quitting.

"Do you know that Nebraska went away from Iowa field much disappointed? She did, although she should have been rejoiced to pull out a victory. She came here expecting to beat us as badly as Minnesota did, found that she was playing in good luck to win at all.

"At Minnesota, I was told last week that the Iowa team gave evidence of being well trained and well conditioned and that they played with a grit and 'never quit' that won Minnesota's admiration.

"The team this year is one which we can all support. I know that the faculty feels this way and I know that you all feel this way. It is a good team. It will do all that it can to win. We will do all we can to help it win."

After the speeches, the rooters practiced the Iowa yells and songs.

The mass meeting was enthusiastic, but was attended by only a tenth of the number of students that should have turned out for it.

The speeches made by President MacLean and Congressman Wade were excellent, some of the best ever made at mass meetings, and the speakers were loudly applauded during their speeches.

It is planned to hold two more mass-meetings before the Illinois game takes place. It is hoped that the next meeting will be attended by every student.

OPEN PRACTICE

ROOTERS CAN WATCH FROM GRANDSTAND

Opportunities for Rooters to Cheer the Team—No Practice Saturday

The gates of Iowa field will be open during the practice next week.

The rooters will thus have an opportunity to watch the practice from the grandstand.

The Rooter's Club will hold meetings in the grandstand every night next week. Membership in the club and participation in its meetings is open to every student.

The only prohibition connected with the open practice is that spectators must sit in the grandstand. If they begin to crowd on the field, the gates will be shut again during the practice.

NO PRACTICE SATURDAY

Coach Chalmers will give the candidates a rest Saturday. No practice will be held on Iowa field. The practice will be resumed Monday afternoon at three o'clock.

Unification in Education

The establishment of more normal schools is again being advocated. This time Atlantic wants the plum. By circumstances, which cannot now be overcome, the educational interests of Iowa are scattered in three different institutions. The leading educators of the state and of the state institutions, are working to unite interests as they cannot hope now to unite the schools. To build more would be supremest folly, and could only come from a commercial club, whose interest in building up their town supersedes all other interests. The strength of the universities of our neighbor states lies in the fact that they unite all their efforts to build up a single institution. The lack of wisdom in a divided interest, is too apparent for comment. Let us hope that the State of Iowa will never divide further, but rather seek to unify by every possible means.

Literary Chat

In view of the probable consideration of the question of financial legislation by Congress this year, special interest will attach to Mr. Wilbur Aldrich's new book, "Money and Credit," from the Grafton Press, New York. This is a simple but scientific work dealing with the principles and history of money and showing the development of the rise and the nature of credit. The laws of the subject are deduced from their historical sources, one by one, in order to establish clearly their truth, and the whole is done with a terseness and lucidity of style that add a striking merit. For the student, the man of affairs, the banker and the legislator, as well as for the average reader who desires to gain a knowledge of the underlying principles of banking and subjects allied thereto, "Money and Credit" is one of the best works thus far published. The lucidity of the exposition and the soundness of the argument, together with the simplicity of treatment, should recommend this book to all thinking persons, directly or indirectly interested in the economic aspects of finance.
