ORATORICAL LEAGUE

KANSAS ENTERS MISSISSIPPI ASSOCIATION

Iowa Will be Invited to Join—
Basket Ball League in the East—Colored Fraternity

The University of Kansas has entered the oratorical association of the state universities of the Mississippi Valley. There is a likelihood of Missouri, Nebraska, North and South Dakota, also entering the association. Colorado has already joined and Iowa will be invited.

The Inter-collegiate Basketball League now consists of Pennsylvania, Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Cornell and Columbia.

A fraternity for colored men, the only one in the United States has been organized at the University of Indiana.

The Princeton debating societies, Whig and Clio, have elected 193 men to membership. Whig elected 99 men and Clio 94.

The chamber concerts which have been given at Harvard for a number of years will be resumed again this year in the Fogg Art Museum.

An eastern fencing league has been organized this year taking in Yale, Harvard, West Point, Columbia, Cornell and Pennsylvania. These hold tournaments this season.

DEEMER AND McCALIN

Phi Delta Phi Banquet Retiring Lecturers in Law College

Phi Delta Phi will give a banquet tonight at the Imperial in honor of Judges Deemer and McClain. W. K. Herrick '04 will act as toastmaster. The following toasts will be given, "Our Honorary Members" J. H. Burrus, '04, "Uncertainties," Judge Emlin McClain, '70, "Law vs. Politics," Judge Horace E. Deemer, '82, "The Poor Client," Prof. L. M. Byers, "Upward or Downward, Whence?" Dean Charles N. Gregory

Bishop Morrison at Assembly

The Right Reverend Bishop Morrison addressed assembly this morning. In a brief and concise manner he showed that the laws of God are simply the revelation of the condition under which the world must live. The more civilization progresses the more apparent this truth becomes.

Dean Weld of the Graduate College will be absent from the University the rest of the week. He has been called out of the city on business.

Professor Geo. T. Flom will read a paper on "The Elder Edda," before the Edda Society, Saturday evening at 7:30 in the physics lecture room.

BORN ADVENTURESS

RAWDEN'S VALET TELLS OF SOCIAL PLOTTING

Testimony Hard for Crawleys—
Hard Legal Battle In the Primrose Case

In the case of Crawley vs. Steyne, the cross-examination of Lord Dunn was finished with little weakening in his testimony.

CRAWLEYS ARE PLOTTERS

The next witness called was C. E. Noel, until recently valet to Lord Crawley. His testimony thus far has been clear, and tends to incriminate the character of the Crawleys. He showed them both as little more than adventurers. Becky was lacking in motherly instincts, and spent most of her time with the men, in effort to get money from them. Rawden was usually gambling and drinking. Very seldom did they display any affection for one another, and when they showed any solicitude for each other, it was only as regards social position. Throughout the testimony was a story of plotting and intrigue, and lack of moral sensibilities.

MARRIAGE VALID

In the case of Primrose vs. Thornhill now on in referee Hampson's court, the main fight will be on the testimony of Jenkinson. Both sides claim the case from his evidence.

On cross-examination, the vicar has testified that he believed the marriage of his daughter Olivia to be valid.

The marriage certificate was introduced in evidence and Jenkinson testified it was the one he procured. He further testified, that Olivia willingly took part in the marriage ceremony and that it was performed by father Kelley a Roman Catholic priest. Upon these facts the defense will probably contend that the marriage is valid.

Sigma Nu entertained Miss Nadine Perryman and Miss Eleanor McNett, Tuesday evening.

Dr. J. F. Brown left last evening on a ten days trip for inspection of public schools. Last week he visited schools at Pella, New Sharon and Monroe.

Professor Samuel Calvin returned from his trip to Vancouver, B. C. Tuesday morning. As this was a somewhat hurried private business trip he could make no extended observations.

A meeting of the Political Science Club was held at the home of Dean Currier Monday evening. Dr. Frank E. Horack read a paper on the "Recognition of Beligerency and Independence." Particular reference was made in the paper to the Panama situation.

OUR ALUMNI

CONCERNING THE WHEREABOUTS OF IOWANS

Notes of Interest About the Older Students of the University of Iowa

'03 M.—C. J. Shaffer is practicing medicine at Carson, Iowa.

'03 M.—F. A. Washburn has located at Boulder, Colorado.

'02 J. W. Martin is again teaching as principal of schools at Blairstown at an increase of salary.

'01 B. D. Ilgenfritz is assistant cashier of the Shreveport National Bank, at Shreveport, Louisiana.

'03 M.—Ben Chamberlain, who was married on July 15, to Miss Iva Tompkins, is located at Wyoming, Iowa.

'03 M.—G. Roy Boice was married November 18, to Miss Florence Newell. They are now at home in Plainfield, Kansas.

'06—Caroline Schichtl is private secretary to Superintendent Crane of the Marshalltown Schools.

'89, L.—Sherman W. Searle, who last year was Editor of the "Citizen" of this city is now managing editor of the Davenport Democrat.

'00—C. A. Williams, M. A. '03 has an article on the Icelandic in the last number of the Journal of English and Germanic Philology which is just off the press. Mr. Williams is now attending the University of Leipsic.

In a recent letter Charles Meyerholz '03, who is a scholar in history at Harvard says, "I feel lonesome for old S. U. I. Harvard is a big school, and is worth ones efforts to attend. The lecturers I have are great in the amount of material they seem to have, but are not logical lecturers. In my estimation Iowa has men who can present material in a more attractive way than most of the Harvard men."

GOOD SCORES ON RANGE

Inspector Smith Praises Record of University Marksmen

Capt. W. F. Smith, inspector of small arms practice for the 53rd I. N. G. in a letter to Major Turner says of the recent competitive shoot, "at the season of the year your score was a good one, in fact I may say the same of several of the other contestants. I trust you may be able to bring about the matter of taking a team to the State Range. From the excellent scores I feel sure you have some splendid material to select a team from, and I would like to meet them at the range."

CLASSMEN ON CARPET

FACULTY SAYS THE SCRAP MUST CEASE

Representatives of Freshmen and Sophomores Call at Prexie's Office by Request

The faculty has told the freshmen and sophomores they had better cease from scrapping.

Thos. Pederman of Lead, S. D. and Frank R. Wilson of Sioux City for the freshman, and Fred Moore of Harlan and J. W. Crossan of Eldora, for the sophomores, were in the President's private office for some time this afternoon.

They met there by request to come "at your earliest convenience."

The President and the executive committee of the liberal arts faculty told them that the class fight had gone far enough, and that if they wished to save the classes from faculty action, they had better scrap no more.

SHIMEK LECTURES

Addresses Public and Inspects High Schools on Trip

Professor Shimek lectured Saturday evening at Council Bluffs on the subject "Iowa Deserts and Missouri Bluffs." Monday morning he spoke before the high school. In the afternoon accompanied by the superintendent and science teacher and 125 pupils of the science course, he went to Fairmount Park to study the plant distribution and life as well as the geology of the regions.

Perryman-McNett Recital

Once again, by its lack of patronage, Iowa City has demonstrated that its tastes are not musical. The crowd that attended the Perryman-McNett recital last night was a miserably small one. Small though they were, they were an enthusiastic and appreciative audience. The encores were, hearty, sincere and deserved. It was a first class entertainment, and one that anywhere else than in Iowa City would have been received with packed houses.

Miss Eleanor McNett, who is an Iowa girl and sister of W. L. McNett L. '05, is one of the leading pianists of the state. Her rendition is free and easy, her interpretation is perfect. She touches each key, and gives each mood just right.

Miss Nadine Perryman, has a national reputation. Her soprano voice is clear, full and rich. It reaches and fills the entire building and this without loudness. She sang like a bird because she must sing. Not an opera that has been at Iowa City this year has had near her equal.

California has established a student fire department.

Charles E. B. Muller

Charles Muller of Coon Rapids died at the university hospital last night at eleven o'clock from a complication of typhoid, and peritonitis.

Mr. Muller was a junior in the college of law. He was a member of the Forum and Newman societies. His record as a student was a good one. By industrious, conscientious work, he won the esteem of faculty, and fellow students.

The sympathy of his friends at the university goes out to the sorrowing friends and family at his home.

The funeral will be held from his home at Coon Rapids tomorrow.

Wednesday's Register-Leader contains a verbatim account of the football review by R. A. Cook published in Tuesday's IOWAN. The same issue contains the cuts of Judge Deemer, A. J. Swindle, C. F. Dickson, Geo. E. Remley, C. Knox, W. McNett and J. Lam precht, judge and attorneys in case of Crawley vs. Steyre now being tried in Judge Deemer's court.

Phi Delta To Entertain

Phi Delta Theta has sent out to the football team the following invitation for Friday evening.

"Ye football men of brain and might
Come to our home on Friday night;
Roast pig and trimmings rich and rare
Will be our tempting bill of fare."

Mrs. Hansen's is of a deliciously pure and fresh quality, perfectly true in intonation—Evanston Index.

Miss Hansen, of Davenport will sing the soprano solos in "The Holy City" at the Presbyterian church, December 14.

The Katzenjammer Kids, Blondell and Fennessy's Musical comedy to appear at the opera house next Monday night is said not only to be a very funny show but creates no little amusement to many who try to pronounce or spell the word "Katzenjammer." The latest and most modern style of the word in the way of pronunciation would be, "Cats-in-jam-or-Kids."

The Iowa College Glee Club completely captured our city last Friday evening, drawing out to the opera house a large audience of our very best people. The entertainment was indeed fine all that was anticipated, and more. The Glee Club of eighteen male voices was superb each of its charming numbers eliciting rapturous applause, prolonged to encore and double encore.—Mason City Express. At the Congregational Church Saturday, December 16, under auspices of Congregational Y.P.S.C.E.

The success of the book, "Quincy Adams Sawyer," and the play made from it, to be seen here at the opera house Thursday night becomes all the more interesting and remarkable when it is known that the publication of the novel was the experiment of a young woman, Caro M. Clark, who made $50,000 in one year out of the venture. Her royalties from the play have already reached a very handsome figure. The big production to be seen here is the same one which delighted the New York audiences at the Academy of Music. Secure your seats.
