IN NEW BUILDING

MEDICS MOVE INTO ANATOMICAL BUILDING

Fitting Ceremonies for Occasion—Freshmen Hear First Lecture in new Building

To day is an important day in the history of the colleges of medicine. The event marking the epoch of occupying the new building occurred this morning. The moving of several loads of chairs from the "shed" into the new anatomical building yesterday and the overflowing spirit of the members of the medical colleges were indications of occurrences of unusual importance among the "medics."

Last night the seniors of the College of Medicine, desirous of having the distinction of hearing the first lecture in the new building, attempted to have the lecture in the last period given them in the new building but as the arrangements had not yet been completed it could not be done. This honor of being the first class to recite in the new building was the lot of the freshmen at eight o'clock this morning.

The new building now occupied is the anatomical building facing Iowa avenue. The pathological building adjoining Jefferson and Dubuque streets is not yet completed and probably will not be ready for occupancy until next fall.

The last hours in the "shed" were observed with fitting ceremonies Dean Guthrie in an eloquent farewell address reviewed the history of the old Medical Building which occupied the present site of the "shed". The dedication of that old building when the members of the band devised their own music for the occasion and the memories of student and faculty associations were recalled by the speaker in a manner that made the students more proud of their college. After a few patriotic songs and a spirited rendition of the yells the audience adjourned to meet in the new building in the future.

Secretary C. W. Smith of Y. M. C. A. returned from the South Dakota Convention yesterday morning.

The track being unfit for work Saturday afternoon, Dr. Eastman took the men out for a short cross country run. About eight men started and ran down the Burlington tracks for a distance of two miles.

The Daily Cardinal says that Minnesota athletic managers may be asked to explain certain statements which appeared in interviews in the Minnesota Daily regarding Wisconsin's tendency to break contracts. The quarrel is becoming exceedingly interesting.

J. F. Kunz of the senior class has been selected as one of the delegates of the Kossuth county republicans for the judicial convention of the fourteenth district T. P. Harrington L. '99 and E. J. Van Ness L. '03 are also members of the Kossuth county delegation.

Mr. G. DeWitt Dowling, M. A. who was under engagement to assist in the services at the Assembly this morning was prevented from doing so by the train's being two hours late. He is an alumnus of Brown University, Providence, R. I., and is rector of Trinity Church, Davenport. He will preach the sermon in Trinity church this city this evening at 8 o'clock.

The Alumni Meeting

Much interest is being manifested by the Iowa City alumni of the university in the meeting of university alumni which has been called in Des Moines Friday evening. It is certain that a large number of Iowa City alumni will be there to do their share in looking after the university's interests in the legislature. The meeting has been called at the Savery hotel at 8 o'clock Friday evening. In the call which has been sent out by Harvey Ingham editor of the Des Moines Register and Leader and president of the Iowa alumni association the object of the meeting is stated, "to consider the interests of the university in connection with legislation and appropriations." University people all over the state are aroused at the action of the legislature in connection with the university.

Bouquet for Swift

The sporting editor of the Register and Leader says: Perseverance surely wins all athletics as well as anything else. Chas. Swift of Iowa, who holds the western inter-collegiate record with the discus and who will probably establish a world's record this year, has worked hard for his standing. Unlike many athletes, he can do as well in a meet as he can in practice. When he first took up the work with the discus he became so enthusiastic that he lived with a discus in his hand. He carried it to classes and took a whirl on every possible occasion. Gradually he became expert and is now undoubtedly the best in the country. The University of Pennsylvania has added the discus event to its list for the big meet at Philadelphia on April 23, for Swift's special benefit. An invitation was sent to Coach Chalmers to send Swift and the students of Iowa are going to see that he gets there. His performance will be watched with great interest by all athletic enthusiasts of the state and many have found hope of a broken record.

Special Edition Tomorrow.

The varsity girls of the University of Minnesota defeated the freshman at basketball.

Harvard University recently celebrated the seventieth anniversary of President Eliot. The Harvard Crimson has a special edition giving the life of the President.

Cornell college will fitly celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of its founding. From June 10 to 16 special exercises will be held, with addresses by many prominent educators, alumni, state and city officials. The anniversary sermon will be by Bishop E. G. Andrews of New York City and the commemorating sermon will be by Rev. George Elliott of Detroit.

Pictures and News Tomorrow.

Progress in Medical Colleges

Another epoch in the progress of the University and of the Colleges of Medicine was begun this morning when the medical department moved into the new building. Regardless of the many rather sarcastic and humorous expressions concerning the "sheds" there still is a feeling of admiration for the place where so many hours of intimate communion with fellow students and friendly professors had been spent. It was most fitting that the Dean of the College of Medicine should give an eloquent farewell address to the old quarters. The changing of places destroys largely the pleasant memories experienced by an alumnus in visiting his alma mater. In the new medical buildings associations will be formed that those very places will recall to the present and future students in their alumni days many years hence.

This will make visits of alumni more pleasant and more frequent which will result in a still more loyal alumni. The IOWAN rejoices with the friends of the University in the present progress of the colleges of medicine and hopes that the success of the present may be but the beginning of the success of the future

AMUSEMENTS

The Gus Sun American Minstrels, one of the cleverest black cork organizations on the road, was the attraction at the Auditorium last night and proved a pleasant surprise to those who were fortunate enough to attend the performance. The company is first class in ever particular. The Vocalists are all good and the specialties among the best ever seen with a minstrel company.

The "Congress of Nations" is an entirely new feature in the show business and is being presented before the public for the first time during this season and has drawn the largest houses and the most praise of any pictorial production ever before attempted. It is the only attraction of the kind in the world, and it is the greatest wonder that this idea of travelling photograph scenes has not been used before. A person could sit for five hours and view these selected scenes from all over the whole world without the least tiresome effects, and nothing could be more instructive to children or grown people. There are 815 scenes, 33 subjects 52 ft. long and 35 ft. high presented in 2 hours and 25 minutes at the Opera House on Wednesday and Thursday evenings March 23 and 24. The prices are always the same in every city, 10, 20, 30, 50c. Seats now on sale at usual place.

Rival Minstrel Stars, Fred P. Russell, with The Gus Sun Minstrels, who are heralded to appear at the Opera House next Friday night had an amusing experience with a rival minstrel star which he was appearing with Dumont's Minstrels in Philadelphia some years ago. It appears both comedians were singing the same song, Russell having the advantage of appearing on the program first. The rival was furious because Russell got all the applause and went to the manager flushed with the heat of anger and jealousy, demanding that Russell's number be changed to the bottom of the bill and his placed at the top. Next day to avoid controversy the singers changed places on the program and to the chagrin and astonishment of the rival Russell again carried off the honors amid deafening applause. The manager decided Fred was the champion and his opponent was compelled to step down from his former exalted position.

"Weary Willie Walker" a fellow of infinite jest, of quaint mannerisms, and a happy faculty for getting into and out of trouble is to come to the Opera House next Tuesday night March 29. As the title implies "Weary Willie Walker" is a fun show of the funniest sort, inspired by the clever cartoons published in "Puck". The central figure is a happy go lucky tramp, the play has a well developed plot filled with humorous comedy complications and laughable situations. During its presentation a scene of musical interruptions are exploited by the company of fashionable funmakers and picturesque show girls. The company is headed by Jolly Ed. Wills Norma Nugent, Will Warren, Myrtle Morton, Clark and Campbell, Flora Fay and others of equal note.

The Modern Short Story

That the short story is popular is abundantly evident by its increasing vogue in most monthly and weekly magazines, even the daily papers, and from the fact that it has several magazines exclusively devoted to its exploitation, "Lector" who is well qualified to speak on the subject, writes a very discriminating article on the subject of the short story in the April number of the Book Lovers Magazine.
"Lector" reviews some of the most recent collections of short stories, and puts the reader in possession of sound, sensible criteria for judging the short story as a work of art.
