IOWA HAS BAD LUCK

VARSITY LOSES OPENING CONTEST

Errors at Critical Times Give Opening Games to the Rock Island Teams

Hard luck seems to have been following the camp of the Iowa baseball warriors since the opening of the schedule Monday afternoon. Iowa has lost two games to the Rock Island leaguers after having won them both. Errors and a combination of hard luck in the last innings changed the results of both contests.

The first game:

THE NEW HAWKEYE

READY FOR DISTRIBUTION FIRST OF MAY

Many Additions and New Arrangements Have Been Made Dedicated to Old Bell

The 1905 Hawkeye or volume XIV of the series is now being bound and will be ready for distribution during the first week in May. Many new and novel arrangements and additions have been made.

The book will appear with a dark brown cover upon which is stamped a gold figure. The illustrations and reading matter exclusive of advertisements and jokes cover almost three hundred pages. Many views of the University and the scenery about the city are shown. An improvement over previous issues consists in numbering the pages and indexing the volume.

The frontispiece is a work showing artistic ability. It consists of an Iowa pennant, and an "I" on which is the familiar eagle. These are shown with a grayish back ground and are accompanied by the word "Hawkeye" and the numerals "05". The board has dedicated the volume to the old bell in the central building. A picture of the bell that has summoned generations of students to classes appears with the verse of dedication.

Following the calendar and instructional staff are cuts and short sketches of the new professors, Messrs. Byers, Gilbert, Barlow and Wells. With the class organizations the yells, officers and likeness of the presidents are given.

A new arrangement of the individual pictures of the juniors has been made. All the half-tones are given on the right hand page and on the opposite page are given the names and the addresses. The various colleges are given in their order of seniority.

In forensics the Hammond Law quartette and the results of the Hamilton club contest are new features. The Iowa Alumnus has been added to the university publications. The new clubs represented are the Le Comite d'Alliance Francaise, the Professional Woman's League and the Hawkeye Chess Club.

Besides the records and teams in athletics are given cuts of the Cross Country Club cups, the Max Mayer prize, the mechanical rooster of the engineers at the Illinois game and the individuals of the football squad. Pictures of the freshman and sophomore girls' basketball teams are also shown.

The literary department contains stories and verses of student life. The work of the humorous editors is of the usual standard of excellence.

PROM FRIDAY NIGHT

PARTY WILL BE ON A BIG SCALE

Home Talent Orchestra Will Be Employed—Dancing To Start After the Opera

The committee having the junior prom in charge held a final meeting yesterday afternoon and completed plans for the big function which is to be given in the armory Friday night. The committee besides arranging for decorations and other features, decided to employ Molsberry's university orchestra for the occasion. Inasmuch as the athletic benefit is to be given at the opera house on the same night it has been agreed that for the best interests of the promoters of both entertainments, the programs for the prom will not be given out until the benefit is over.

The prom committee is doing all in its power to make this year's party the best ever.

Algona Alumni

The alumni held a banquet and rousing meeting at Algona last Friday evening. Eighty alumni of Algona and the surrounding country were present. The faculty was represented by Dean Currier who reports that a spirited and enthusiastic body of alumni was present.

Colonel and Mrs. Burnett will entertain tonight.

Professor A. A. Veblen delivered an address in Northfield, Minn., last Saturday.

Mrs. W. R. Whites entertains at a six o'clock dinner on the evening of April 30, in honor of the coming marriage of Dr. Henry Morrow and Miss Marguerite Hess.

President George E. MacLean has gone to Great Barrington, Mass., summoned thither by the death of Mrs. MacLean's father, which occurred Friday. Mrs. MacLean had already gone there.

Mrs. Kate Johnson gave a delightful dinner party at her home on south Dubuque street last Friday to about fifteen of her friends. The dinner, which was a very dainty affair, was given in honor of Miss Anna Johnson, who recently won a scholarship in Harvard university.

At high noon April 10, in Ocean Park California, occurred the marriage of Miss Leah Lanor Talbott, daughter of Mrs. Jeannette Talbott of Grinnell, and W. Burrill Brush '90 formerly of that city. The marriage occurred at the Brush home the father of the groom, Rev. F. E. Brush, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Brush will spend a couple of weeks in Ocean Park, after which they will go to Los Angeles to live, the groom being connected with the Tallerd Manufacturing Company.

The 1905 Hawkeye

In later years the classes will be estimated more from their Hawkeyes than from any other single enterprise undertaken by them during their presence in the University. The object of these annuals is to record the history so that the growth of the University can be obtained from the series of Hawkeyes. To attain this end much hard and harmonious work on the part of board and the hearty co-operation of the class are necessary. Hence a good annual is the best evidence of class spirit and enthusiasm.

The coming junior annual will have several additions that are very creditable to the Hawkeye board and to the class. An especial effort has been made to represent all the organizations and give cuts of them whenever they were attainable. The volume as a whole gives evidence of the constant growth of the University.

Harry Willis expects to leave May 1, for Bluffton, Indiana, where he has been offered a surveying position with the new Bluffton, Cincinnati and Chicago railway, with which Charles Foster has recently taken a position.

Mrs. D. K. Harkness last week visited her son Dr. Gordon Harkness at Davenport.

Miss Alice McGee has returned from Carroll, where she has been spending the past week.

Judge Emlin McClain has returned from his duties on the supreme bench at Des Moines.

J. C. Monnett and family, who are here from Cando, N. D., have taken possession of Dr. W. R. Patterson's new residence, 511 East Washington street, where they will reside until fall.

Miss Edith Evans, who for the past three years has been director of music in the Iowa City schools, has sent in her resignation, which will take effect at the end of the present school year.

MISTER STUDENT:—In reply to your question as to where to buy your cigars and tobacco, I would say the Clinton Street Smoke House is the place. Its proprietor is Tom Brown, a genial fellow and a friend of the student and student enterprises. His shop is clean and neat. The fittings are up-to-date and in keeping with a first class cigar store. Brown sells customers what they want and no "as good as" goods. His stock contains all the popular and advertised brands. As for pipes his line is as fine as any in the state.

If you want anything in the smoke line, go to the Smoke House, and Brown will treat you right. If he don't, tell "Buster."

Yours for a good smoke,

IMPERSONATER HEROINES OF SHAKESPEARE

As You Like It next Friday night Athletic Union benefit by Shipman's management

For the benefit of the Athletic Union Miss Florence Gale will be seen as Rosalind in the most purely ideal of Shakespeare's plays. Miss Gale has starred the principal cities of the east as Shakespearian heroines. She is the most popular impersonater of these roles that the last decade has known. In her are combined charming personality, scholarly ability, and histrionic excellence. She will be seen here next Friday night, supported by a splendid cast under the Shipman management.

As You Like It is the most prominent play in the repertoire of Shakespearian revivals. It had an uninterrupted run of three months at the Republic Theatre in New York last season. Columbia University had three open air performances of it. Shipman has improved the costumes, scenic effects and the cast and will give us a delightful and unique production. This will be the only appearance of this play here this season.
