AN AQUATIC FEAT

STUDENTS FLOAT DOWN THE IOWA RIVER

Six in Three Canoes Float From Amana—Rained on Camp out Saturday Night

Aquatic adventures seem to have a special charm for the Iowa student at the present time. Not content with boating here a half dozen students last week shipped three canoes to Amana planning to float down the river Saturday and Sunday.

Saturday morning taking a passenger train they stopped off at Marengo proceeding to prepare their breakfast "hobo" fashion at the water tank. They did no foraging however but carried their own provisions and tent. From their some walked to Amana while others took the freight. About ten o'clock they started from Amana two in each canoe. All that day they paddled and floated along the winding Iowa and far into the evening until the shadows began to creep out from the shore and the stars to twinkle through the over reaching branches.

Beaching their canoes they pitched the tents and then ate supper while the campfire blazed and sent sparks into the air. That night they rolled up in a blanket and slept as many a pioneer perhaps fifty years ago. The next morning breaking camp about 7 o'clock they resumed their journey. The poetry soon faded from the landscape, when it began to rain and the water trickled down their backs.

About three o'clock the canoes reached the boat house here with their weary and bedraggled occupants who seemed to have lost more esthetic sentiments than the psychologist ever knew.

C. W. Smith, Secretary Y. M. C. A. left for Chicago today. He will return this week.

The Davenport high school will send eighteen athletes to the meet in this city May 20.

The Board of Regents have granted Prof. Bohumil Shimek and F. J. Seavers a fellow in Botany a leave of absence beginning May 15. It is their intention to spend a few weeks in field work in New Mexico.

A college education gives a man 200 times as many chances as that of the common schools and is ten times as valuable as a high school training, according to the forthcoming report of the United States Bureau of Education. In an article in that report William W. Smith will give the result of investigations extending to the lives of 10,000 typical successful Americans, to prove the foregoing assertions. The statistics, he says, show that a boy with a common school education has one chance in 9,000 of success.

IOWA VS. MISSOURI

PLAY ON IOWA FIELD THIS AFTERNOON

Game Called at 3:15—A Close Contest With no Odds—Field in Fair Shape

Iowa plays her second game with Missouri today. The game played at Missouri resulted in a victory for Iowa by a score of 2 to 1. The game today promises in every respect to be an exceedingly fast game. The Missourians are a clean bunch of fellows and are here for business. The grounds are in pretty good shape after the rain and there is very little wind. Coldren will probably umpire. The game was called at 3:15 sharp.

The following is the line up of the two teams.

Iowa Men Return

Henry G. Walker, Iowa's representative to the Northern Oratorical contest which was held Friday night at Ann Arbor, Michigan returned home last night. He was accompanied by E. R. Johnston and J. O. Johnson who represented Iowa in the business meeting which was held in connection with the contest.

The Iowa men report excellent treatment at the hands of the Michigan entertainers. They were accorded every possible privilege that would enable them to have an enjoyable time. They say that the productions given on the night of the contest were of a very high order and were close. Jones, of Minnesota, won first place with Chicago second and Michigan third.

The Iowa men were greatly impressed with the great spirit among the Michigan students brought out by their many successes on the football gridiron and athletic field. The Iowa men witnessed the game of baseball between Michigan and Chicago in which Chicago won by a score of 4 to 2. They report that while Michigan was winning her students cheered themselves hoarse and when the Michigan men began to lose they cheered still more with the hope of winning.

The Engineering students have struck rock in their borings for the Dam seventeen feet below the sand bottom of the river.

Dr. L. W. Dean Saturday afternoon entertained the Senior Medics and Nurses of the University Hospital at the Country Club.

STATE MEET CHANCES

GRINNELL AND DRAKE HELD CLOSE MEET

Drake Won—Wall Protested—No Startling Records Made Watson's Bunch Off

Since the outcome of the dual field meet between Drake and Grinnell has been announced the wise ones believe that Iowa's chances for winning the state meet are better than ever. While many of the records made Saturday were good, there were no state records broken. Drake's victory of 87 to 35 due in part to the temporary poor condition of the Grinnell team which will be strengthened in time for the state meet on the 28th. Longshore the sprinter as not able to compete because of illness.

Iowa's chances for the state meet are bettered because of the protest that has been entered by both Grinnell and Ames against Wall, Drake's high jumper. Trainer Marsh of the Ames team states that his school can furnish evidence to prove that Wall took part in a dual track meet with Grinnell five years ago while a student at Ames. If Wall is ruled out Drake's chances will be weakened greatly and will probably get first and second in the high jump.

The Iowa coaches are spending this week in selecting men to take to Minneapolis next Saturday to take part in the dual meet with Minneapolis. The mile preliminary was held Saturday and resulted in the selection of Bateman and Riley for that event. Coyle and White will probably go in the dashes although a preliminary be held tomorrow afternoon. The other members of the team are in doubt except W. Davis in the pole vault.

Miss Ella Waterbury Honored

Miss Ella Waterbury '05, the literary editor of the Junior Annual, has had the honor of having a story accepted by the Atlantic Monthly. The story is called "The Todd's Utopia," and probably will appear during the current year. The honor is a very great one, not only for Miss Waterbury, but for the University, and her friends all unite in congratulations.

The Y. W. C. A. cleared about $60 from their May Morning Breakfast.

The Freshman Hesperians with the aid of their Zetagathian brothers gave two farces Saturday evening at Close Hall. A large crowd witnessed the presentations and by their laughter and applause the play should certainly be considered a success. "The Champion of Her Sex" was a laughable little comedy while "The Garroters" was equally funny.

TENNIS MEN VICTORS

BAILEY-MONNET WIN AT NORTHWESTERN

Beat Northwestern's Team then A Crack Star Team From Faculty—Play Chicago

Iowa made a clean sweep in the second day's play of the Northwestern dual tennis tournament, winning every match played without the loss of a set. After the two remaining single matches had been played and won by Iowa, two Northwestern University professors, who in past years, had made their tennis reputation in eastern colleges, issued a challenge to the Iowa team. This was promptly accepted. But although professors Scott and Oldfather were two to one favorites with the spectators and played a hard hitting game, they failed to get as many games as the Northwestern student team, the Iowa men winning by a score of 6-5, 6-5, 6-2.

Complete scores of the tournament follows:

Monnet, (Iowa) beat Nash (Northwestern) 6-0, 6-4.
Bailey (Iowa) beat Conant (Northwestern) 6-2, 6-2.
Monnet and Bailey (Iowa) beat Conant and Wilmarth (Northwestern) 7-5, 8-6, 6-2.
Monnet (Iowa) beat James Northwestern 6-2, 6-2.
Bailey (Iowa) beat Wilmarth (Northwestern) 6-4, 6-4.

College "Sings"

Syracuse University, of New York, has lately had an epidemic of longing for college music. Songs innumerable have been written by faculty, alumni and students, and each class has taken turns in fostering the movement by contributing to the prize song fund. Now the University has inaugurated the custom of college "sings." On an eastward sloping hill of the campus the students will assemble some fair evening and practice songs in "unison and harmony." The interest of the "sings" is to be heightened by competition between the liberal arts and the applied science men. It is planned to execute a few cheers and yells also, in order to get ready for the inter-collegiate contests.

Miss Mary Sleight Everts of the Public Speaking department is at Ottumwa assisting the High School with their play.

Miss Ethel R. Golden L. A. '98 attended the Phi Beta Kappa banquet Friday and visited over Sunday.

Dr. W. L. Bywater is on the program of the Hahnemannian Medical Association Meeting at Sioux City May 24-25.

The University has obtained a large tent for Commencement exercises. It will probably be pitched in the same place as last year.

University Lectures

So many are the lectures and so varied the topics offered by the University that any one may be satisfied. The entering student too often becomes so lost in a bewilderment of new conditions and events that he entirely forgets to fulfill his determination especially in regard to lectures. Full development of a man's capabilities can only be attained by contact with developed minds. Even if no more is obtained than a mere glimpse of the man and his thought one nevertheless is benefited. The effort expended is indicative of unforeseen possibilities. The more you broaden your acquaintance the more competent a judge of human nature you become. Be awake to the new impressions and study life. The field presents untold opportunities and contact with them presents new aspirations. Get out at least and listen to a few of these lectures.

Wanted—A University Song

There are innumerable traditions at Iowa which if put into song would serve to awaken old memories and bind the alumni and student body closer together. There is an inspiration and good fellowship in a rousing college song. Some of the fondest recollections of student life should be the evenings spent on the university steps singing. The University Band has set a precedent that we hope will be lived up too. We miss so much we never dream of. Surely there is some one here who has the ability to write this very song. If there is his name will be remembered by numberless students to come.

A Snap on Pipes

I am selling out my stock of pipes. Not that I am going out of the pipe business, but I like to clear out my stock of pipes about once a year, and then get in fresh goods.

The pipes I have on hand are all first-class goods, bought last fall for the winter and holiday trade. I am selling them at big reductions from regular prices. If you want a pipe of any kind, this is the time to buy it, and my store is the place.

The pipes include every style and make, from the cheap apple tree wood pipe to the meerscham. Many of them are in handsome cases. It is an exceptional opportunity for pipe smokers. And while you are buying a pipe don't forget

AMUSEMENTS

It is needless to say that the performance will be a grand one, such as Mr. Owens always presents, and the supporting company is an exceptionally strong one, including the old favorites, Mr. John W. McConnell and Miss Camilla Reynolds. Every attention will be paid as to the costumes, scenery, etc.

Phi Beta Kappa Banquet

The seniors of the liberal arts who had been chosen for membership in the Phi Beta Kappa fraternity were initiated into the mysteries of the oldest of Greek letter societies, Friday night the initiation being in charge of Professor W. C. Wilcox. Following the initiation the members of the fraternity repaired to the Berkeley Imperial, where was held the annual banquet. Professor Leona A. Call acted as toast-mistress, toasts being responded to by Prof. H. E. Gordon, "American Statesmanship"; Miss Mary Makepeace Morris, "The Initiative"; Robert E. Leach, "Whither"; Mrs. Adelaide L. Burge, "Das Ewig Weibliche"; Dean Currier, "Significance of Phi Beta Kappa." President MacLean sent his regrets at being unable to be present.

Fifty members were present, the out of town guests being Miss Ethel Golden, Vinton; Attorney R. E. Leach, Independence; Mr. Blake, Cedar Rapids; Dean J. H. T. Main, Iowa college, Grinnell.
