Iowa and Ames Battle Today For The Iowa Football Championship

JEFFERS GETS FIRST

WINS TODAY'S CROSS COUNTRY RUN

Gordon and Remley Are Second And Third in The Order Named

The first competition of the Cross Country Club. was held this morning and resulted in a victory, for Clyde Jeffers; last years star. Jeffers was hard pushed by A. C. Gordon at the finish who made a creditable run. Remley was the first of the freshmen class to crrss the line and was followed by Phelps, Hanson, Stanfield and others.

About eighteen men ran the entire course.

The start was made at 10:07 and Jeffers crossed the line at at 10:28::43.

Will Have Banquet

The members of the freshman class of the university have taken the bit in their teeth and will undertake to renew the custom of giving a class banquet this year. At the meeting of the class yesterday afternoon a committee was appointed to make arrangements for the banquet.

The action of the freshmen is significant because the classes of the past two years have not undertaken to give a class banquet at the request of the university authorities. Ever since the memorial banquet at the Burkley Imperial hotel three years ago no attempt has been made to give another.

Old Gold Waves Triumphant Over Iowa Field Today

State University 10; Agricultural College 6

Special To The Daily Iowan:

IOWA FIELD—Oct. 29 Three thousand rooters assembled on Iowa field today to witness the greatest struggle in the history of football in the Hawkeye state. For three hours the teams struggled back and forth across the field while the state championship for 1904 hung in the balance. Rooters for both sides almost tore their throats out in their effort to help their respective teams on to victory.

Today's demonstration on the part of the Iowa rooters was the greatest ever seen on Iowa field. The Iowa students lead by their yell masters yelled in a chorus and in sections. The students of the various departments employed their memorable traction engine used so successfully last year against Illinois. The engineers sang and yelled. One of their choruses which went to the tune of "Under The Anheuser Busch" was as follows:

Os-ki wow wow, os-ki wow wow.
Skin-I wow wow, skin-I wow wow,
Engineers, I O W A, Wow.
Come, come, come and get wise with us,
Here's where we hop to old Ames
Come, come, come down the line with us,
Here's where we hop to old Ames.
Hear the little Iowa band, who wah wah, who wah wah,
Come let us hold your hand, wah—
Do, do, come and keep your eyes on us,
While we were hopping to Ames.

CAPT. JONES

"REDY" GRIFFITH

As a curtain raiser the Iowa City High School defeated the Cedar Rapips high school by a score of 16 to 0.

The Ames team came upon the field at 2:45 and went through signal practice. The Iowa team came on a few minutes later amid deafening cheers. Iowa won the toss and chose to defend the north goal and receive the kick-off.

Daniels for Ames kicked off to Jones who fumbled and an Ames man picked up the ball an carried it over for a touchdown. Ames kicked goal.

Ames kicked off again and Iowa made first down. Jones was forced to kick. Ames could not gain and kicked to Griffith. Jones was forced to kick and Ames fumbled the ball going to Iowa on Ames 30 yard line.

Iowa was penalized but made her downs. Ames was penalized for off side and Iowa made another down. McGowan hurdled for good gains to Ames 3 yard line. Schwinn went over for a touchdown. Jones missed goal. Jones kicked off ta Ames and the "Aggies were forced to punt at at once. Iowa's ball on Ames 45 yard line. McGowan and Schwinn made first down.

Iowa was forced to punt and the ball was punted out again to Griffith who ran around the whole Ames team 30 yards for a touchdown Jones missed goal. Iowa 10; Ames 6.

COMEDY IS CHOSEN

DRAMATIC CLUB WILL STAR THIS YEAR

"An American Citizen" is Title Of the Play Chosen For This Year

The Dramatic Club has decided to present "An American Citizen." The play is a good comedy having been written for Nat Goodwin. While it was created for a star it is by no means a one man show. The cast calls for sixteen persons and most of the parts permit of much clever acting.

The story is that of a young American lawyer who falls heir to an English fortune. The conditions imposed are that he marry a girl of English birth and renounce his allegiance to the United States. This lawyer has a charming English cousin who suggests that to get the money he marry her in mock ceremony. The marriage is legal but its obligations are not to be considered. How they really fall in love and the marriage which was a fake becomes a reality in the conclusion of the play.

Miss Everts has offered to assist in selecting the cast and superintending the rehearsals. The date of the play has not been definitely set but it will probably be in the latter part of December.

Play at Davenport

Iowa City, it seems almost assured, will not get the Minnesota-Iowa game on Thanksgiving day.

The Iowa board received a notice from the Minnesota board yesterday, all but refusing to submit to the change. The communication seems final.

The Minnesota people do not ask for a change of the game to Minneapolis, and they are not absolutely determined that it shall be played in Davenport. They hold, however. that Iowa City, as a football site, under circumstances, is not a money-making proposition, like Davenport, with about 200,000 people upon whom to draw.

Miss Margaret Moore of the university is being visited by her sister, Miss Moore of Traer.

Among the out of town visitors are Charles Bradley, LeMars, and John W. Hoskers, Orange City.

The arrest was made recently of two Colnmbia students for taking entrance examinations as proxies for others.

Dr. L. W. Pence, a former university student, now located at Marshalltown is in the city with a patient for the hospital.

C. L. Gillis, a graduate of the university in 1882 and now located at Leeds, South Dakota, is in the city, the guest of Charles Lake.

Keep It Up

Iowa has taken a long step in the matter of systematic rooting as was evidenced by the great showing made on Iowa field this afternoon. It is likely that such systematic and well organized rooting was never before seen on Iowa field. However it is to be hoped that today's demonstration will not be merely a wave but a steady tide that will continue in volume and strength.

One of the things to be particularly commended in the manifestation of enthusiasm was the department rooting. The engineering students did themselves proud with their noise making devices and songs, and the laws, dents and pharmaceuts did almost as well.

Iowa students should take today's manifestation for an example. Keep the ball rolling!

Miss Ruth Paxson was the guest of honor at a very pleasant informal reception given yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Nutting on Washington St. The affair was in charge of the Y. W. C. A., and large numbers of the faculty ladies and young women of the university took advantage of the chance of meeting Miss Paxson. Many of them having known her in her student days here.

Octave Thanet will hold its regular program this evening.

AMUSEMENTS

The Gus Sun American Minstrels entertained a large audience at the Bucklen Wednesday evening. Many new things in minstrelsy were introduced. The performance gave great satisfaction. The vocalists were of unusual ability, and their songs were well received. The olio of novelties contained artists exceptionally fine in these particular specialties. Fred P. Russell, the principal comedian, was a complete show in himself. His monologue especially including several clever parodies, took the house by storm, and it was with difficulty he could get away, even after responding to three encores. —Elkhart Review, Sept. 24, 1903, at the opera house next Wednesday evening.

Sigma Chi will give a Hallow'een party Monday night.

Phi Delta Theta will entertain at their home next Monday evening.

Miss Paxson will address the Y. W. C. A. at the Congregational church, four o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Statistical Laboratory

The University of Iowa will soon have a statistical laboratory Such a laboratory but two other schools in the United States can boast of. These two schools are Chicago and Columbia.

The first instrument to be enstalled will be a Hollerith tabulating machine. This is the system of punch cards which was used by the United States in the last three census.

C. F. Pidgin, commissioner of labor of Massachusetts, who is also the head of a firm that will manufacture various tabulating machines in the laboratory. Mr. Pedgin is probably better known to the people as the author of Quincy Adams Sawyers, and Blennerhassett.

Within a year the student at Iowa will be able to learn the machanical part of the computing of statistics. The work will be in charge of Prof. W. R Patterson, whose recent work in New York has made him thoroughly competent to handle the work.

The Iowa university fraternities will observe Hallowe'en Monday night. Among those which will give parties are Sigma Chi, Beta Theta Pi, Delta Tau Delta, Sigma Nu and Phi Delta Theta.

The Y.W.C.A. room at Close Hall has been crowded to the fullest limit the last two evenings at 6:30, speaker being Miss Ruth Paxson '98 a national student secretary of the association She speaks in the Congregational Church tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, in place of the usual Sunday Y.
