IOWA CITY, IOWA, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1904

IOWA shows up well

The final score of the football game Saturday was Nebraska 17, Iowa 12. A dispute arose as to whether the Nebraska ball was fumbled and brought down by Iowa's team. Nebraska coaches and players insisted the ball was not fumbled and the ruling was not based on time. Both teams were bitter over the decision.

The official game was reviewed on the basis that Iowa had the majority of the ball and the Nebraska line was not up in time. The final score was Iowa 17, Nebraska 12.

Iowa would have won with All Her Players in the Game.

The fever of election has taken hold of university voters. Many students have decided to vote for the Republican ticket this year. The election has been very close, and the Republican candidates have been working hard to win.

Medics and Dents

All the classes in the medical, and dental colleges notified the faculty that they could hold their register classes Saturday, Monday, and Tuesday. These little notices brought many returns. The faculty send to each Medical and Dent a kind invitation to be present at the regular classes. At most to a man, the invitations have been ignored. In this connection, it is rumored that the Medics are going to declare a holiday soon in honor of the birth of Asclepius.

in very complimentary terms of the quality of football put up by the home team. He greatly admires Coach Chalmers and his close style of play. He also believes that the score would have been larger had Iowa punted more frequently throughout the game.
