Nebraska Game Saturday Gives the Team Hope of Defeating Illinois

IOWA GETTING READY FOR ILLINOIS

Work of Saturday Gives Hope That They Will Win Out

If Iowa University with three of her star football players out at the game and the remainder of the team disorganized can play Nebraska to a standstill, what will she do to Illinois and Minnesota with the team in good condition?

This is the question that is uppermost in the minds of Iowa football supporters. And a good Iowa thoroughly surprised herself in the showing made against the Nebraska Cornhuskers Saturday. The Hawks looked for defeat by at least twenty points. The show- ing of the in its witched condition has filled Iowa roosters with a great deal of hope. The team has demonstrated the possession of such a degree of fighting spirit that gave the Drake men the finest kind of treatment, and showed them every courtesy. When Burcham made his goal from the field the little squad of Drake substitutes gave a Drake yell and, as an echo, came a yell for Drake from the Michigan men, as soon as they recovered from their astonishment at being scored upon. They also cheered when Maine, with perfect inter- ference, turned their end and started for the goal, and were brought down by Norcross, who dove and succeeded in striking him on the foot with force enough to upset him. It is a pleasure to play against a team and a institution like that," said Dr. Monilaw and his boys.

There was one feature of rivalry against Michigan that is particularly pleasing to the friends of the blue and white, and that is the way the men stood up under the force and rapid play. No substitutions were made because of injuries and the team was playing faster football and seemed as fresh when the game ended as when it began.

W. S. Hankard has been chosen captain of the Drake football team, which will meet the freshman laws next Saturday in a curtain raiser to the Grinnell game. The game promises to be a good one.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 8.—Interest in the Wisconsin Minnesota game is just as great at favor here as it was a week ago and the two big teams have met. Minnesota is working as never before this season, and from Grundy campus comes word that the team has been thrown into the most complete practice of confidence since the Michigan game, and a general feeling of optimism regarding the Minnesota game is becoming manifest.

The engineers at Minnesota have inaugurated an anti-chapel crusade, the control of which has been vested in a sort of vigilance committee. The duty and pleasure of this committee is to see that the engineers do not abuse their privileges in this manner.

A new act comedy drama, admirable performed by Gay Hickman and his clever company, attracted the largest audience seated in the Grand Opera house in the past three years last evening. Long before the beginning of the excellent performance, every seat in the house was taken and standing room was sold at a premium. In return for such a magnificent audience, Mr. Hickman and his company, put on one of the best repertory productions ever seen in this city at popular prices. Ottumwa Daily Courier.
