Brilliant Reception to Professors Wilcox and Loos While They Were There.

One of the biggest S.U.I. alumni associations in the state will soon be forming in Sioux City. The organization movement was started last Monday as a reception given by the State University of Iowa. The State University of Iowa has been highly regarded by the United States War Department, which is just preparing its 1904 U.S. Army register for acceptance.

There appear the names of the following three Iowans: Edward E. Johnson, Iowa City; Casper E. Schenck, Waterloo; and William Fred Hellburg, Anamosa.

The enrollment of the names of these three Hawkeyes indicates that for highest standing in the University of Iowa's register, during their past four years work in military science.

The fact that 1,500 of the bright young men in Iowa and other states were elected to the University register here between 1900 and 1904 adds to the credit bearing to the securing of a place in the army register. Three other university men were elected from Minnesota, Wisconsin and the Shattuck school, respectively, for those laurels.

Gymnasium is Ready.

The gymnasium in Close Hall is nearly ready for the use of the women of the university. Con- porters have been working on it for some time. It has been entirely red and arranged in the most modern and approved manner. It is equipped especially for the use of the women and plenty of showers and tubs. The building has been chanced of A. S. Spalding & Co., and will be installed at once. This will give the women advantages that very few schools can afford.

Miss Kastman, who is the physical director for the women, has a strong class organized in all the lines of athletics. Strong teams in tennis and field ball clubs are already formed.

Republican Club Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the University republican club in the auditorium of the hall of liberal arts tomorrow night at 7 o'clock. It is an important meeting. It is the plan of the promoters of the club to make the organization complete, and the members present for the remainder of the year. It will be under the presidency of President J. O. Johnson, who will also read a letter from the White House concerning the organization for the work it accomplished during the campaign.

President Weston of Cornell spent Sunday in Iowa City visiting her brother M. B. Weston.

All the Regulars Will be in the Line-up—lowa Stock Advances.

"On to Illinois" is the slogan of the Iowa football worries this week. Every effort possible will be put forth to win the game, which will be played by both coach and players. There is fine prospect of winning it in the minds of Iowa supporters at least. They are not going to let an opportunity slip by to lift itself one peg in the Big Nine ladder.

The defeat of Illinois by Northwestern last Saturday and the Iowans hope that Iowa may win next Saturday. However, the victory of Northwestern is not taken as indicating that Illinois is weak in any sense of the word because it is known here that the Northwestern team is a great deal faster now than it was when it met Chicago. Illinois is fast as shown by the scores made. Remember, reports are unanimous in saying that Illinois is capable of exciting Chicago.

Coach Chalmers is spending this week in drilling the men for the Illinois game. The strong Iowa defense will come in handy to stop the rushes of the Illinois backs. Iowans do not believe that the Illinois line will be able to stop the strong work of McManus, Jones and Schwin.

Iowa’s team will present its whole lineup Saturday for the first time in three weeks. Jones and Schwin have had the game and Schwin alternate line will play. The Grinnell game Bacterist, which Iowa walked over the Congregational- ista by a score of 69 to 0 was a good work out of the line of Iowa players engaged.

Is Risitine Sore?

In an interview in the L. S. C. Student, Coach Risitine of Ames expresses himself as follows: "In reviewing the football season, I will begin by saying that we started out well, but were not able to get new places to fill, but nevertheless, with a large squad and lots of spirit the game was better than others. I have been chosen of A. G. Spalding & Co., and will be installed at once. This will give the women advantages that very few schools can afford.

AMUSEMENTS

There is something about Olga Veres's personality that asserts itself in every play that she is put in. Somehow, she seems to carry an atmosphere around her that freshens and sweetens the theater and the audience like a draught of pure air from hills where daisies blow. It's a warm stronger than her talent. It's a mysterious, elusive fragrance that one doesn't find often in the theater, or in the world, for that matter. But if you watch an audience coming out after a matinee of a play there is a certain serenity of soul expressed on the most frivolous face in the group. The brightness of eye and color of cheek and naught whir of skirt that you will observe after a Paast matinee in the theater but voices have grown sweeter, ways more gentle, words kinder. At the Opera House Thursday evening.

Albert N. Currier of the C. B. and Q. force at Galesburg, Illinois, spent Sunday with his parents, Dean and Mrs. Currier, and visited at the Beta house. The senior Lita and freshie Medics lined up against each other yesterday afternoon for a shore scrimmage. The scrimmage was hard and close with results slightly in favor of the Medics. The seniors had a similar match with the High School team this afternoon.

CHANCE FOR ORATORS

NEw LEAGUE HAS BEEN FORMED

Includes Eighteen State Universities in the United States

Iowa is One

It is announced that eighteen state universities including Iowa are now members of the National Oratorical League of Universities, an organization founded not long ago for the promotion of excellence in extemporaneous speaking.

The subject chosen for this year is "Trade Unionism." This topic is divided into five sub-topics by the university. The winners of these will compete with neighboring universities, and the winners in the latter contests will be permitted to enter the final, which will be held late in the school year.

The place of holding this has not yet been decided upon. In the final contest each contestant will be assigned one of the sub-topics by lot, immediately before he is to speak. This is for the purpose of making the speeches extemporaneous, although last year it was found that some of the speakers had prepared a speech on each of the topics.

It is believed to be impracticable, owing to the shortness of the time, to hold a preliminary contest in the University of Iowa. Those who have the matter in charge, therefore, hope that some person, well equipped in economics and public speaking, will, after consultation with the proper authorities, undertake to represent the University in this matter.
