PARTY FOR HOSPITAL

EUI. PEOPLE WILL DANCE FOR CHARITY

Dame Will Occur at Smith's Armory—Big Society Event

The nurses of the university hospital will give a big dance in Smith's armory tonight for the benefit of the hospital. The armory has been decorated in an elaborate manner and Mollen-berg's orchestra has been secured for the occasion. Members of all the faculty, including President and Mrs. MacLean compose the patrons and patronesses.

The sale of tickets for the dance has been large and a good crowd is promised.

The merchants of the city have been liberal in their donations for the dance and the various fraternity houses have given their decorations. So much thought is being put into making comfortable the armory.

Prairies University

Rev. C. S. Hanley, the editor of the Daily Illinois, is in Chicago in connection with the National Education Association which has its annual session here. He is the president of the University of Iowa, an alumnum of the university has some good words to say to his alma mater in a recent letter. In closing he says:

"Our education under the direction and influence of such a faculty as that of the university has given to the students the instruction in which we have now been engaged for over fifteen years. It is the only education most of us have received for their help in this matter, and thank the Giver of all good, for the advantages given us of a liberal education at the state university of Iowa. May the institution continue its growth and usefulness until university in the United States shall exceed Iowa."

All-American Team

Coach Lorthvelth of Illinois has made a selection of an All-American team which includes only two players from Eastern universities. It is as follows:

Ends: Rothgeb, Illinois; Bush, Wisconsin

Tackles: Hogan, Yale; Currie, Michigan

Guard: Terp, Illinois

Center: All-East Illinois

Quarterback: Eberhard, California

Halfbacks: Heston, Michigan

Fullback: Pennsylvania

Substitutes: Frolick, Princeton

Bloomer, Yale

Wise, Nebraska

Vast, Wisconsin

Kaiser, Northwestern.

It is reported on what seems to be good authority that the Ohio State football team has decided to abandon the grad-uation game. This attempt will be made to in- vite Phil King to return and kick the eleven next fall.

FRESHMAN BANQUET

FUNCTION IS HELD AT CEDAR RAPIDS

About Fifty Couples Attended

President MacLean a Guest

The freshmen class was in its glory last night. All unmoled it went— at least a portion of it— to the Grand Hotel at Cedar Rapids where in spite of the repeated advices from the faculty it indulges in its annual class ban- quet. The sophomore class con-fined itself, with allowing its freshmen to enjoy themselves and no molestation was offered al-though several of the sophomores spent the evening at Cedar Rapids to see that the freshmen behaved themselves in a becoming manner.

The banquet was an eminently successful although the attendance was not as large as had been anticipated by the two monitors of class affair. There were about forty-five couples in attendance. Hec-ticly the tables of the banquet, the class, acted as toastmaster, and toasting responded to by President MacLean, Professor Calhoun, Miss Edith Ball and D. E. Carroll.

The freshman had been prepar-ing for their banquet for a long time. The arrangements which had been charged of the class, had not been successful in getting in the way of the class. The affair was attended with the necessity of solving a problem which was hotly discussed with the idea of secrecy almost completely failing to know the preparations as they progressed.

The opening speech was made by the freshmen left Iowa City last night. The dining car, arriving in Cedar Rapids after six.

The banquet took place at the Grand Hotel. Dancing followed the feast.

The freshmen claim a victory over the sophomore by succeeding in pulling off the banquet, while the sophomores claim that the first people displayed a streak of yellow in going out of Iowa City and saved their defeat.

Normal Is Pleased

In its excellent football edition the Normal Eye says:

"The four places in football honors are clearly defined this year. Iowa is first, Ames second, Drake third and Northern fourth. Every one landed her the remaining places on the team. But even more gratifying than that news to the students is the news that Tommy Jones has been selected as the captain of the State University as captain of the all state team. Wright, our Cornelian, is in this place.

The Eye concludes by printing the following notice for an au-dience and its notice on the normal team.

The Debating League will hold a meeting tonight.

CLUBS TO ORGANIZE

MEETING TO BE HELD TONIGHT

County Club Presidents Will Meet In Office Of Professor Loos

A meeting of considerable im-portance has been called for to-night to consist of the presidents of the various county clubs which have been formed among the students of the university. The meeting will be held in the office of Professor Loos who is chairman of the faculty committee on county clubs.

The purpose of the meeting to-day is to arrange for a contribu-tion of the work of organizing the county clubs after the matter outlined in the editorial of the Daily Iowan a few days ago.

The call for the meeting resulted from the impetus given the work of organization at the meeting of the delegates held in the old capitol Tuesday afternoon. It is anticipated that the work of organizing the county clubs will be begun at once and continued until the greater part of the counties are represented by an organization.

Society Programs

With the literary societies Philomathian and Octave Thetas having a jolly good time, the society life at the university is reasonably bright. The Iota Beta, Rho, and Sigma Chi have been active since the new year, and there has been a good deal of debate since then. The Phi Delta, Theta and Rho Eta have spent a large part of their time debating and reading in the library.

The Fraternity Council held a meeting last night, wherein much business was transacted. The two most important topics were the constitution for the new club and the discussion of the rules for the organization of the Sigma Chi.

Ivy has a regular program in the form of a declamation by Bemley and speech by Church. The debate on the question of the people of the domain of the United States is affirmed by Barton and Royal and disaffirmed by Handel and Myers.

The Zeit program will be op-ened by an oration by Jones. The debate is on the liquor system and will be discussed by Missa-uely, Bealshaw, Herbock and Morris. Mr. Hour will close the program with a declamation.

Illinois Grange Petition

The petition asking for a long- holiday vacation has been favor-able acted upon by the Council of Administration of the University of Illinois yesterday afternoon. The council did not grant exactly what was asked for, but extended the less granted something equi-alent. The petition asked that the holiday vacation begin January 1, December 16, instead of December 21. The council fixed the time of the be-ginning of the vacation on Fri-day, December 21, but extended the time at the end of the month from Wednesday, January 5, to Wednesday, January 12.

The High School football team will give a dance Tuesday night.
A remarkable endorsement of a tax-book is that, which has been accorded "Readings in European History" compiled by James Harvey Robinson, Professor of history in Columbia University. This work was introduced in advance of publication at Harvard, Columbia University of Chicago, University of Yale, and University of Texas.

The freshman class at Wisconsin numbers 906.

Harvard gives four courses in forestry this year.

AMUSEMENTS
The story of "Eben Holden," a dramatization of which will be presented at the Opera House next Tuesday is too well known to need repetition here. The novel, which was written by Irving Bacheller, has been one of the largest sellers of the last two years, and the dramatic version has been fully as popular in book form. The character of Eben Holden is one of the most striking ever presented on the American stage and its interpretation by Henry Horton has placed him in the ranks of such actors as Denman Thompson, Richard Golden and the late James A. Herne.
