SCORES THE FRATS

E. BENJAMINE ANDREWS SAYS UNKIND THINGS

Says Frat Men Themselves Want Reforms—Makes Report to Governor

In his annual report to the governor Chancellor Andrews of the university of Nebraska sets forth the following views regarding Greek letter societies:

"Students social affairs have a close bearing on the university's welfare. Greek letter societies have become part of the university system, yet considerable abuses, which it is most difficult to reach, occur in connection with them. Membership in these organizations often adds painfully to student expenses. Parents should remember that such membership is in no sense necessary or required, students' scholarship, reputation, standing and influence being quite independent of the question whether they join these bodies or not. The old literary societies, the Palladian, the Union and the Dellan still do noble work, socially as well as mentally; so that, membership in them is most desirable.

"It would seem that not a few students enter the university simply to join fraternities or sororities. Having thus secured, as they think, social standing, many discontinue their studies, at the same time remaining in residence at their society houses as sources of demoralizing influence for students wishing to work. The conviction is spreading that fraternity initiations should be supervised and that pledging should be postponed until the student in name has demonstrated his purpose to be a student in fact. The majority of Greek letter society people appear to wish such reforms, aware that, without them, the reputation of the societies for character and scholarship suffers. The regents stand ready to enact remedial regulations, but, for the present await request therefrom from the organizations interested."

IOWA IS VICTOR

Special to the Daily Iowan: Minneapolis Jan. 13—Iowa 24, Minnesota Agricultural College 18, is the story of the basketball game last night. It was a fast game in which Barton for Iowa proved the star. Tonight Iowa will meet Minnesota University. A close game is expected.

Daily Nebraskan: The faculty of Iowa has taken a decided stand against plagiarism. One student guilty of plagiarism in an oratorical contest was summarily expelled from the University.

W. W. Loomis formerly editor of the Vidette-Reporter is in Iowa City today. Mr. Loomis is here to receive treatment for his eyes. He now is a member of the staff of the Boone Republican at Boone, Iowa.

KNOX IS THE WINNER

MICHIGAN SECOND IN HAMILTON CONTEST

Marking For Hamilton Club Contest Are Given Out By Prof. Gordon

Contrary to the manner of procedure of last year the Hamilton Club sends out the marks on thought and composition as well as the marks on delivery. Through the courtesy of the department of public speaking we are able to give our readers these marks:

Marking of Judges on Thought and Composition. 2d. annual Hamilton Club contest in oratory, January 11, 1905

	C. Major	Dr. Phillips	Mrs. Atherton	Total	Rank
Hamiltonian vs. Jeffersonian Democracy, Knox.	1	1	1	3	1

Hamilton the Apostle of Nationalism	6	2	6	16	5

JUDGES:

Charles Major, Author, "When Knighthood Was in Flower," etc.
Dr. J. H. Phillips, Supt. Public Instruction, Birmingham, Alabama.
Mrs. Gertrude Atherton, Author, "The Conqueror," etc.

In the final contests the judges, are instructed to mark on thought composition and delivery at the time of delivery. The results of these marks are as follows:

FINAL CONTEST		JUDGES
Marking of Judges Second Annual Hamilton Club Contest in Oratory January 11, 1905.		Peck	Bowers	Boyeson	Total	Rank
Schuyler B. Terry, Chicago		4	4	4	12	4
Theodore Christianson, Minn.		3	3	1	7	3
Ralph E. Chase, Knox.		1	1	3	5	1
H. Sonnenschein, Michigan.		2	2	2	6	2

Professor Gordon was seen at his office this morning asked to give his impressions in the matter of this contest. He said in substance that after a careful study of the orations submitted by the contestants that as far as thought and composition were concerned the best man had won. A study of the marks reveals the interesting fact that the southern judge gave Mr. Rinker's oration the lowest mark. This was predicted on the strength of the fact that the closing sentences (the alleged plagiarism) gave a very strong pro-northern flavor to the whole oration. He was advised to leave out that part. For two years running now Iowa has stood well in thought and composition. We have lost out in the final. For the coming year enough students ought to take hold and early enough so that a selection can be made of a man who shall win out to the very end. To help all who desire to try for this honor the Department of public speaking will give a special course, three hours a week during the second semester, at two thirty p. m. A full bibliography of the Hamilton material in the library has been prepared.

Twenty students at least ought to go in for this honor one of the greatest in the Academic year.

WHO IS TO BE TRAINER

MAY BE JERE DELANEY OF NORTHWESTERN

University Authorities Are Now Engaged in Securing a Good Man

That the completion of the new university gymnasium means a new step in the development of Iowa athletics is evidenced by the fact that the university authorities are now engaged in an attempt to secure a good gymnasium director and trainer for the track team. For some time this matter has had the attention of the university officials but the question of securing the right man has caused considerable delay. There has been correspondence with several prominent physical directors in various parts of the country but no choice has yet been made.

The latest indication is that the man who will have charge of Iowa's track athletic team this coming season is none other than Jere Delaney the man who has helped Northwestern University to win many athletic contests. Delaney is a well known track and baseball expert and would be a strong man to add to the Iowa coaching staff.

Iowa will not get Delaney however without competition because Wisconsin is after him. Wisconsin sees in him a promising track trainer and is offering him inducements to go to Madison.

It is said that Delaney has a feeling in his heart that Iowa is the place for him.

There are thirty candidates for the crew at Wisconsin.

Delta Gamma held a "spread" at the sorority house last evening.

Mr. C. L. Bryden reads the Baconian paper tonight on the subject, "The History of a Piece of Coal." illustrated by lantern slides.

PRESENTATION OF 'I'S'

FOOTBALL MEN HONORED LAST EVENING

Professor Smith of Athletic Board Presents Sweaters And I's Last Night

At the Phi Delta Phi fraternity house on Thursday evening the football stars who were awarded "I's" and sweaters, by the athletic board some time ago, were presented with tokens of appreciation. Professor Smith, president of the board of control, presented the sweaters and "I's". Before the presentation Professor Smith in a neat speech; said that all of the men had well earned the "I's", that it was an honor to wear an "I" and to be given a souvenir sweater. Continuing, he said that the athletic board had the same power to revoke an "I" as it had to grant it. In the athletic history of Iowa one has never been revoked and he hoped that one never would be.

The presentation was attended by the members of the athletic board of control and many football stars who have been awarded "I's" in past year's. The ceremony was followed by a smoker.

High School Frats

The current number of the School Review issued from Chicago University contains an exhaustive report of the committee on the influence of fraternities in secondary schools, appointed by President Harper last fall. As a result of the report the conference voted that secret societies in secondary schools were detrimental both to the schools and to the individual concerned.

The arguments advanced against fraternities are:

They injure the school dividing it into cliques and bringing into it politics and bad morals;

They cause a decline in the interest and in the preparation of school work;

Unlike college fraternities they are unnecessary as the students are at home and are too young to choose any life outside of the home;

They cause jealousy especially among the girls;

Their standards are different from those set up by the school authorities and they often can offer strong opposition to the policy of the authorities.

While the tone of the article in general is unfavorable to fraternities it contains several arguments in favor of them. There are that secret organizations can be made useful to the school at large as well as to the individual student; that they can aid school discipline if properly treated; that they foster friendships, and that they increase school spirit and loyalty.

Lewis Institute of Chicago and Colgate Academy of Hamilton N. Y., are mentioned as secondary schools which favor fraternities.

It is encouraging news to the lovers of track athletics at the university of Iowa that the university authorities are attempting to secure a good track trainer and physical director for the gymnasium.

It is too much to expect that Mr. Chalmers would be able to take care of all this work. Let him have charge of the baseball team. However if Mr. Chalmers were to take charge of the track team the students of Iowa would be perfectly willing to risk it in his hands.

One encouraging feature is the fact that Iowa is looking carefully for a first class man for the track department. No second rater will be accepted. He must have displayed ability in actual experience. Delaney of Northwestern is such a man. Iowa students will be glad to hear that he may be the man.

To Lecture for Chapel

On Friday evening, January 20, Rev. George Luther Cady of Iowa City will deliver his illustrated lecture, "The Life and Works of Tennyson," at Grinnell. The lecture will be given in the college chapel and the proceeds are to go to fund for erecting a new chapel and association building.

At Other Schools

Tokio is the largest university in the world, for not less than 48,000 young Japanese are studying in it. The favorite courses are law and civil and mechanical engineering.

The football management at Yale reports a profit of $70,000 for this season. The surplus for the past few years of the Harvard athletic association has been $25,000 a year.

The most important gifts to Yale during 1904 were as follows: $100,000 for a mining laboratory, $50,000 to the medical school, $40,000 to library funds and a bequest of $250,000 for the construction and maintenance of a building as a memorial to Dr. Jarec Lindsly.

Fifteen colored students of the University of Michigan expect to organize a Greek letter fraternity.

On Sundays and holidays in the future, the postoffice will be open for the distribution of mail for one hour, from half past nine until half past ten.

Iowa Northwestern

After an interval of four years it is now practically assured that Iowa and Northwestern will again meet on the gridiron. Iowa has not played Northwestern since 1900 when the two teams played a tie game at Rock Island—a game which was a dark spot in the football history of S. U. I. for that year at least. The Iowa team had beaten every other team in sight that year including Chicago and Michigan and when the Hawkeyes met the Northwesterners it was only a question of the size of the score. However the score was a tie. Every man on the Iowa team was ill that day. Examination showed that they had been drugged.

Iowa will welcome the resumption of football relations with Northwestern. It is expected that the Iowa-Northwestern game next fall will be played on Thanksgiving day.

No Baseball Team

Considerable anxiety has been aroused among the students at the University of Minnesota over the dreaded clammy of not having a baseball team next year. Their fears do not seem unfounded as it is the policy of the present board of control to do nothing that will help along the organization of a team. It is even rumored that the new board will be advised that the abandonment of a basketball team next spring would be a good policy.

AMUSEMENTS

"Peggy from Paris", a George Ade musical comedy which will be at the Opera House Friday evening is distinguished not alone for its wit but for its originality and its many novelties. One of the latter which is of striking interest to persons uninitiated behind the scenes of a theatre, is the setting of a stage in full view of the spectators. This process is carried out in reality not in pretense. One set of scenery is "struck", which is the theatrical expression for removed, and another scene is set in place or "made", and all in plain sight of the audience. It is actually a part of the action of the play. The scene represents the preparation of the stage of the Paragon Theatre in Chicago for the reception of a distinguished foreign singer.

MacLean Prize Song Contest

Professor Seashore, chairman of the senate music board, has again announced the conditions of the MacLean Prize Song contest in order to correct misunderstandings which have existed since the last publication of the offer. The correct conditions of the offer follow:

President MacLean offers a prize of $20 for the best song for the University of Iowa, the award to be made on the following conditions:

The song may be words with music or words alone.

The contest shall close April 1, 1905.

The members of the senate music board shall act as judges.

Competing songs shall be sent to the chairman of that board with the name of the competitor in a sealed envelope.

Phi Delta Theta will entertain informally tonight.

Phi Kappa Psi will give a dancing party this evening.

A thousand chairs have been ordered by the university for seating the new armory.

Dr. Roscoe Pound, Dean of the law school at the University of Nebraska, will resign from his position and will take up the practice of law.

The advance seat sale for the Eva Bartlett Macy entertainment Tuesday night will be held on Monday instead of Saturday as was previously announced. The entertainment is the second number of the S. U. I. lecture course now in progress. Seats will be disposed of at Wieneke's Book Store.

Will Discuss the Census

Prof. W. R. Patterson of the State University will go to Des Moines Saturday to meet with the executive council to discuss the census. He is the expert statistician in the work and has some plans he will suggest to the council.

S.U.I. Lecture Course

The second number of the lecture course will be given Tuesday evening January 17 by the Eva Bartlett Macy Company at the Presbyterian church.
