Iowa Loses Game

Iowa is credited with having played a fast game - Ross and Schenck stars.

Several in the Daily Iowan, Jan. 18. - Iowa has lost to Minnesota in basketball for the first time in the history of Iowa. The score was 18 to 10. The game itself was lost by itself in the second half to better advantage. Ross and Schenck stars were the visitors. The line was: Iowa: Position, Ross, forward, McTae, guard, Forward, Ford, Vareck, center, Guard, Tuck, Forward, Guard, Leach. Minnesota: Position, Ross, guard, McTae, forward, Forward, Ford, Vareck, center, Guard, Tuck, Kiefer, 2, Ross, 4, Barton, 5, Goals: Iowa, 2, Minnesota, 7.

Club Formed

Under the Rock Rapids date was the Register and Leader year. The Register and Leader year was the Lexington County, which was State University of Iowa and was headed by one organization with a good object. The thirteen young people from this society had a score of 4.5 to 17. It was ordered by influencing others its home communities in the first year as follows, taking in order the fifteen universities that head the list in point numerical importance:

- Harvard
- Columbia
- Chicago
- Northwestern
- Michigan
- California
- Illinois
- Cornell
- Carnegie
- Yale
- Pennsylvania
- Syracuse
- Prinston
- Lehigh
- Stanford Jr.

Total: 50,560

A significant feature of this list is the unsurprisingly large representation of Western colleges. Out of the total of fifteen universities, with an aggregate enrollment of 50,568 students, eight with 27,872 students are in Western states. Harvard, the oldest, is the only university with more than 5,000 students, and only three which can be immediately followed by 4,000 and 4,000 are there. Between 3,000 and 4,000 there are also three. The prestige and importance are not determined by size alone, but by the fact that Yale ranks eleventh, while Princeton, Rensselaer, Rensselaer, smaller than Yale, and with only 2,500 and 3,000 there are three.

Revises Conduct of Iowa Representative in Hamilton Club Contest

The Michigan Daily. Purdue Riner, Iowa University's representative in the Hamilton club oratorical contest, has been found guilty of plagiarism. The faculty has withdrawn him from the contest and suspended him from the university. Riner had won the preliminary contests and received the right to represent Iowa in the inter-varsity at Chicago. Four days before the decisive contest, a complaint was laid against him by the Hamilton club. Their committee investigated the facts and found that the young man had taken over a number of sentences bodily from the orations delivered in the Northern Oratorical League in 1899 and 1900.

The Hamilton faculty were disposed to avoid publicly disgracing Riner by barring him from the program, and they would also permit him to speak on the condition that he be informed of the facts. But the Iowa authorities decided that no reproof could be too public or too severe and took more summary measures. Riner claimed that the plagiarism was unconscious on his part, but his explanations failed to satisfy the university authorities.

During fourteen years of debating and orating, Riner and the other members of the company, the oratorical league, O'Keefe, Cedar Rapids, were suspended from any flourished condition. The oratorical league suspended him from dresses of welcome by Mayor Flood. Prof. C. S. Magowan and Woodward of the university discussed the case. Prof. C. S. Magowan showed that the organization was in a very flourishing condition and suspended him from the league. The reports to the reports has been the most successful in the history of the society.

Pennsylvania's new gymnasium is to be so arranged that a small gymnasium class may not take up the whole of the large floor space. Two nets will be suspended from the ceiling which will divide the room into three equal parts. By letting these nets down it will be possible for a basketball game, baseball practice and gymnasium work to go on at the same time without interfering with each other.

On Sundays and holidays in the future, the postoffice will be open for two distribution of mail for one hour, from half past nine until half past ten.

"Arizona" will be given at the opera house next Monday night, with all the advantages of the original metropolitan production. It abounds in thrilling situations, not of the melodramatic type, but of the kind which holds the audience spell-bound. It is full of pathetic love passages, will bring tears to the eyes of the most hardened theatre-goers, only to be relieved next moment by the humor supplied by Mr. Thomas' comedy efforts which have been pronounced by both press and public to be unequalled.

The University of Arizona has published an interesting bulletin on the "Cost of Pumping Irrigation." The paper was prepared by Prof. Woodward and touches upon a subject of vital interest to the resident of Arizona.

Dean L. G. Wall of the Graduate college, left this morning for Washington D. C. where he has been sent by Governor Cumnings as representative of Iowa, to a conference for the purpose of discussing various subjects concerning standard weights and measures. The meeting is one of national importance and a number of questions have been referred to the conference by several scientific sections of the United States. Dean Wall expects to be back about a week.

"It Pays to Advertise"

When Cleopatra, wise old girl, Got out one day and drank a cup, All frugal folks cried out "for shame!" But marvelled at least it was the same. And she was right and she was wise To this gin and to advertise.

When Cleopatra's wise old bid Gave ordinary for a pyramid, He got a nose-well worth a king, (Though not a very useful thing) But he was right and he was wise To thus get in and advertise.

The Clinton St. Smoke is the place To get to know the people to your taste. Thus, A Brown he runs the store And there is nothing he tells that's poor And he is right and he is wise To the gin and to advertise.

And if you'd be counted slow Follow the men that ought to know, They buy their cigars at the big display You can't be rich if they know it. And they are right as you suppose They know the place that advertise.

Michigan Replies

The editor of the Michigan Daily dipes his pen in vitriol and says:
"One of the best pieces of humorous literature that has ever appeared is Casper Whitney's review of the football season in the January number of Outing. Mr. Whitney witnessed the Chicago-Michigan game and as a result of his observation of the contest, says that there are at least six teams in the east that could beat Michigan and that Pennsylvania and Yale could beat her at least 12 to 0. He pays his respects to Heston, saying that the latter showed that he could not hang on to the ball when playing against a big class team. The arrogant contempt with which he treats the west would be a calamity were anyone inclined to take him seriously."

Mr. Whitney's All-American eleven is worthy of a place in Pack or Judge.
