GAMES COMMITTEE WILL NOT TAKE BASEBALL

May Decide That Normal Is College—Barker Given State Record

The games committee of the Iowa Intercollegiate Athletic association decided at its meeting held in Des Moines yesterday that it would not hire a baseball team with intercollegiate baseball. The games committee has charge of the annual track and football teams and the rules of the baseball teams therefore have been formulated and enforced by the Iowa collegiate baseball league consisting of members of the four teams represented, Iowa University, Grinnel, Ames and Cornell.

The university has been trying to have a baseball team appear in the intercollegiate Athletic association with the purpose of creating a professionalism in collegiate baseball. As a satisfactory agreement could not be reached with the other schools and the state committee was of the opinion that they had enough trouble in regulating track and football interests they decided to drop the matter and allow the present method to continue.

Another subject of discussion was what constitutes a college of recognized standing. The State Normal school which is one of the largest feeders to university athletics has hitherto not been regarded as a college of recognized standing and athletes from the Normal school have not been allowed to compete in university athletic associations. The Normal school has attempted to get standing in the university for one year. The provision in the present constitution which makes it impossible for classes that are members of this association of the college section of the State Teachers Association, and the Iowa State Normal school, shall be considered colleges of recognized standing? If this clause is allowed to remain and the normal school is regarded as a college of recognized standing it would be more seriously affected by the rule than any of the other state colleges.

The members of the games committee are reported to have said when asked whether the present clause would become a part of the constitution, that some clause would be made but would not express themselves as to the exact nature of the amendment.

The claim of Captain Barker to the state record in the high jump was considered and a few words being found in the record held by J. J. Louis, formerly of Iowa, it was decided to get Barker.

Barker's record was made at the state meet last spring and is 5 feet 7 inches.

In the news columns of the Iowan tonight the problem of athletic directors is brought up. The more the director is reviewed at some length. For its solution the Iowan can give no suggestions. There is so much justice in the demands of both sides that a decision one way or the other must seem satisfactory.

Perhaps at present the more imperative of the two needs is a gymnasm director. If the gymnasium is to be utilized to the students it would be a good idea for the students to work in the gymnasium. A great majority of the students who work in the gym will do so for the sake of exercise and not as a preparation for some athletic team. It would seem, therefore, that this course is the more advisable.

But whatever is done the improvement over the old system will be so great that all must be content. Hereofore the advantages of a gymnasium were approximately nil and the training of the athletic teams was such as the good will and inclination of individuals would gratuitously offer.

AMUSEMENTS

Hamlin and Mitchell have secured in the person of "Little Chip," a comedian of international fame, such a person; in this part of the Alon, the loyal, greatly little fellow who protects his sister Jane when they are lost in the Valley of Sia's. Chip's plays on the most resonant heart chords. It is not surprising that Chip and Mary Marble are making such good hits in Glen McDonough & Victor Metcalf's musical comedy "Beau Brummel in Toyland", for their's is the genuine humor and talent that have their own reward at the opera house tomorrow night.

University Assembly

Delay in the train service made it impossible for President J. W. Flancher of Iowa Wesleyan college of M. Pleasant Iowa, to address the university assembly this morning. His place was taken by Rev. George Luther Cadby, former letterer on Sociology and Criminology at the university who has resigned his position as Pastor of the Congregational Church of Iowa City to accept a call to a similar position in Dubuque. His address, taking the form of a farewell to the students of the university with whom he has been associated so long, was listened to by the audience with hearty applause.
