PI BETA PHI PARTY

FINE MUSIC AND ARTISTIC DECORATIONS

Many Visiting Friends Help to Make Party a Success—

The Patrons

A peep into the armory this morning showed a lot of tired, happy girls. Their loyal Greek ancestors were carrying out rugs, sofa pillows, chairs and all the pretty things which made last night's banquet so enjoyable. The electrical device of red gloves signalizing Pi Beta Phi was still on the ceiling, showing to whom congratulations are due. The decorations varied in pale blue and white. The sides and belly of the armory were covered with blue bunting and mid-way between ceiling and floor were stretched rows of white paper roses. Nor were the rear quarters neglected. So near together that they almost touched, they formed a labyrinth of shades the like of which was never seen when the roses were illuminated by the soft red light of the Pi Beta Phi colors. It is true they were truly beautiful. The flowers immediately below were bright red and as one went from the center they grew paler until those on the outer edge, seen against the blue sky above, emerged in a pale soft glow. The blending of colors was the best ever seen at a university party and blended with beautiful music was beautiful music.

The cast of gay gowns were Less Osborne, and Lucy Tucker of Anamosa, Bertha Alexander of Des Moines, Minnie and Laura Cowcher of Eldridge, Gladys Whiteley of Westiy City, Maid Young, of North Liberty, Misses Hughie and Anderson of Ames, Rush Burnett of Iowa City, Misses Dunham of Atlantic, Asey Ames of Davenport, Horse Aschwind, of Daneli Bluff, Leslie Surrey, of Cedar Rapids, Dr. and Mrs. Churchill of Burlington and Mrs. Martin of Kansas City.

The patronesses were Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Raymond, Mrs. Shambaugh of Iowa City, and Mrs. Lecy Weld of Cedar Rapids.

J. F. O'Connell, ex '95 is a guest at the Saguas No. house.

Cecilia Rittle of Sioux City and Marcia Dunham of Troy, New York, are pledged to Kappa Kappa.

William Allen, Michigan '95, who was a captain of the football team during his senior year, and who since has coached Michigan, Babson College, University of California and Virginia and the Washington School of Agriculture, is also the head of the Laboratory School of Physical Culture in New York City, was in the city Thursday. He is the guest of Dr. Ben F. Sillinger. He left for Omaha Friday morning.

Delaney and Rule will Come to Iowa

Jery Delaney has been secured by the university authorities to assist Coach Chalmers in training the track team. Associated with him will be Edward Rule who will also have charge of the classes for work in the gymnasium.

In securing these men Iowa has taken a step forward in the training of her track athletes, a branch of sport which has been neglected for the past five years, that places her far ahead of any other in the state. Both men have had ample experience in the work they have been secured to do, ranking above every other coach or trainer in Iowa.

Rule's training has been in the east, where he has been under the instruction of Dr. Sargent of Harvard university. For two years he had charge of the Y. M. C. A. gymnasia in Iowa City, leaving to accept a similar position in Des Moines. While here he built up a basketball team and was the first director of the gymnastic movement able to create interest in the classes outside of the students of the university. In Des Moines, during the present season he has trained a basketball team that is considered a strong candidate for the championship. This spring he will be in charge of the physical culture classes which he will proceed to organize immediately. He will also assist Chalmers and Delaney with the track team.

Jery Delaney was a student of Gourmett university and a member of their track team that twelve years ago won the eastern intercollegiate track meet. He was an all-around track man but made his best records in the sprint events and the four forty. Since leaving Gourmett he has been engaged during the past ten years in coaching track and basketball teams and conditioning football teams. He spent two years at Colgate university, two years at Union college at Schenectady, New York, and two years at Bates. Prep school in all of which positions he was successful in developing winning teams. Coming west he employed as a track coach at Northwestern University where last year, hampered by the lack of material, he met his first reverse. Both men are in the city today, and express themselves as well pleased with the situation. Delaney took charge of the track squad this afternoon. Rule will not begin work until the first of March.
