Gymnasium Dedicated To-morrow

Home Provided for Athletes by the

Generosity of Board of Regents

Complete in every detail, ready for the reception of the track squad which will begin immediate training under the direction of Coach Delaney, with the most practical facilities of any gymnasium in the west and fully large enough to accommodate the students of the State University of Iowa, the New Gymnasium, the product of the generosity of the Board of Regents will be dedicated today with impressive ceremonies.

No longer will winter training fail for the lack of a home. No longer will it be necessary to work in the cramped quarters of Wes Hall or of the Armory. The track men need not wait for the setting snow of April or the warm May sun which for many years has been the only agent capable of putting the athletic field in condition for use, to begin preparing for the long hard strain of the dual, state and conference meets. Iowa, acting through the Board of Regents, has thought kindly of its university and has backed up its thought by generous action.

The university now has an opportunity to offer the student who makes no pretense of being an athlete; training for his physical strength as well as education for his mind. The organization of classes for the general student which will be under the direction of Edward A. Rule, will begin March 1st when he assumes the duties of his position. The details of the organization have not as yet been determined. Regular work will not be required this spring but it is believed the great interest in this new department will bring forth plans for future buildings. His report will be followed by the dedication of the building and the presentation of the keys by President George E. MacLean to Col. George R. Burnett, commandant. The exercises will be closed by the singing of "America" and the benediction.

While it is with great interest that the student body looks forward to what the morrow will bring forth it is with even greater interest that the evening's arrival is awaited. Then will occur the first university ball on the immense dance floor of the new building. Then will the lights shine over fair women and brave men and every foreign team, baseball, track and football may prepare for its Waterloo, and even greater teams may well tremble.

Invitations have been sent to all the students of the university through the class presidents and a large crowd is expected to this initial ball. So many have expressed a desire to see the armory that the gallery will be sold. The admission will be a quarter.

THE NEW GYMNASIUM
It stands today a monument to the generous far sighted policy of the Board. It has been demanded, to the exclusion of every other project, by a class, with so much vigor, that it appears in the light of a necessity rather than—a “developed mental” want of the institution. Having built the gymnasium the Board is interested in the question, Was the gymnasium a necessity? Is it?

In only one way can the Board determine. The student body is the hydrometer which must test this ‘new element’. If they make use of the privilege now afforded them there can be no question but that the money was wisely spent and well. The gymnasium was not built for the track, baseball or football teams exclusively. If it serves for their training and for no other purposes, then indeed has it missed the mark of its being. It is for the average student, the man who has no expectation of making a university career, but who knows he needs more physical exercise than he is receiving, that the gymnasium was built. Let this class of students show by their actions that the judgement of the Board was not at fault.

AMUSEMENTS
Practically every seat in Green’s opera house was occupied last evening when the Newman Amusement Co. presented their vaudeville and a reading performance. The large audience was more than pleased. The moving pictures were good and specialties meritorious—From the Cedar Rapids Evening Gazette (March 8, 1904) Future night at opera house.
