very much time, and might sometimes cost too much, it is clearly evident that the Pavilion does not need the embellishment of bunching and artificial flowers. Its cleanliness, its massive beams and iron girders are beautiful in themselves. When it becomes old, rickety and ugly it will be time enough to drive tacks, nails and spikes.

Summer Session Announcement

The announcement of the university summer session, which will be held from June 19 till July 28, is out. The book contains the curriculum of the session and much other valuable information for those interested. A feature of the summer session will be the department for library training. This course will be given under the auspices of the Iowa library commission. Its purpose is to train students for positions in libraries.

On Friday evening the tuneful and popular opera "The Princess Chic," the company which presents this opera is one of the best, both individually and collectively which will be seen in this city this season. The coat is headed by the talented and beautiful Sophie Brandt, recently prima donna of the London "Prince of Pi I" company, and it is a matter of congratulations to the management of "Princess Chic" that they have been able to secure a young woman, whose environment, temperament and training have so thoroughly equipped her for her present work.
