One of the most enjoyable social functions of the year will be the military ball to be given in the armory tomorrow night. The dancing will start right after the Minnesota Iowa debate. The committee in charge appointed by Colonel Burnett consists of the captains of the company, Harry Boes, Roy Champion, Max Emsmier and Wiley Page. Moline's orchestra will furnish the music for the waltzes and the entire university band will play for the two steps and marches. Burnett, Mrs. Geo. Wood, Mrs. Emil McClain, Mrs. T. H. Macbride, Mrs. Max Mayer.

THE DAILY IOWAN

Kenneth D. Sieber, who became temporary business manager of THE IOWAN when Frank R. Wilson was unexpectedly called to Sioux City, has retired from the position. He has been succeeded by M. A. Hennings who has been his assistant for the past three weeks.

The committee who has charge of the military ball has arranged not to start the dancing until after the Iowa-Minnesota debate. It was impossible to arrange for the ball at any other date and the action taken by this committee is very commendable indeed.

Tomorrow night occurs the annual debate between the university of Iowa and the university of Minnesota. Iowa has a strong team and expects to win. Her chances of winning will be greatly enhanced by the support given them by the student body. It must be remembered that the members of the Iowa team get absolutely nothing for their efforts along this line. The individual members of the Minnesota team receive a substantial cash prize and an additional consideration if they win the final contest. The Iowa team is working for the good of the university and not for individual gain and for this reason alone deserve the loyal support by the well wishes of the Old Gold. It means a great deal for Iowa to win an interstate debate and the team should be given as much or more support than is given at any gridiron or other athletic contest.

A Mandolin Club

.. FAMABELLA ..

We don’t believe there’s a cigar on the market that has “taken hold” faster than the Famabella Havana Cigar, “The Perfection of Blends.” Its success has been due solely and entirely to the quality of the cigar itself, and to our way of handling our trade. There has never been any “hand wagon” advertising or gift enterprises connected with Famabbels. They’ve won out strictly on merit and they’re making a bigger hit every day, at The Clinton Street Smoke House.
