IRVING ERO PROGRAM

MEN WILL DEBATE CO-EDUCATION QUESTION

Hard to Secure Fearless Judges Leaves Give Out

One of the warmest debates ever waged on an Irving rostrum was due to be carried on an over the question "Resolved—That co-education is desirable." It should be mentioned that this evening's program will be a joint one with Irving's sisters, the Jetro declinators. The presence of the Eros on mass may therefore be expected to be the desirable. For reasons also it has been difficult to secure judges—that is judges who are not merely students for the sake of the negative. It is rather feared that there will be three missing judges tonight.

The four young men who are responsible for this novel proposition have been working on the question for weeks specializing and doing much original research. J. E. Goodwin who affirms the question will be able to present his views after four years ago and has spent much time in co-education. Mr. Goodwin's name appears in the announcements in exceedingly large type, indicating that he is a sort of leader for both sides. It was this fact that made the Lowell think that there was but one side to the question and the debate would be caused, an appreciation of the charming Eros. Accordingly, Mr. Goodwin is expected to show the following for publication: "As far as I know, the Eros and the Jetra have been given a sound beating. Why, the results are

At the close of the regular debate, General Goggin and Captain Chase, of the laboratory department, the Nebraska Debaters, will be heard. The others, however, have not been definitely agreed to close the debate. The Eros will be mainly the main point of the students. Last fall the debate was limited to the Nebraska Debaters, and the prominence, defensive game and lost.

Iowa and Illinois teams have been the subject of the record. From the Eros and the Jetro have been given a sound beating. Why, the results are

We don’t believe there’s a cigar on the market that has such “kicks” faster or the Famabella Havana Cigar.

“The Perfection of Blends.” Its success has been due solely and entirely to the quality of the cigar itself, and to our they’re making a bigger hit every day, at The Clinton

The senior play, “A Russian Honeymoon,” to be given late this year, is looking much bigger among the members of the class. Professor Gordon and Miss Everts, who have charge of the arrangement of the cast, state that thirty and forty have already tried for parts and that a number of others are expecting to make the trial. Tryouts were held Thursday, Friday and Saturday, when the last one will be held Monday afternoon, at 6:30, at which all who have not yet appeared but who desire parts must meet the committee in the rooms of the department.

The play is regarded as a good one for the display of dramatic ability, and, inasmuch as there are only eight principal characters, it is expected that many and plenty of excellent actors in the senior class, a talented cast is assured.
