The freshman debating team representing Irving Institute has submitted the question, "That the banking laws should be changed so as to enable banks to establish branches," to the team representing Zogasthonian society. In two weeks the.Zeta will answer and then all the class teams will be at work. Messrs. MacMurray and MacDowell, Onions, Zogasthons, and Myers the Irving.

Tomorrow is the last day for freshmen intending to enter the freshmen contest to hand in their orations, to be judged on their oratory and composition. Six will be allowed in the final contest. About twelve orations are already in the hands of the public, and the orators and judges have been selected.

Tonight occurs the second preliminary contest for places on the freshmen team to represent Irving in the coming annual contest with the Zeta. Two men will be chosen from those appearing tonight to compete with those selected last Friday night. In the first contest Crawford and Hazard were selected give the oration and declamation.

The following is tonight's program:

Our Great Spring Line is NOW COMPLETE.

The clothes that fit you are here, they fit your body, your taste and your pocket-book. The manufacturers guarantee them to us, we guarantee them to you. They are all wool, the colors are set, the patterns are identical with those seen in the best merchant tailor shops. They are made right and trimmed right. It is the clothing that pleases the particular and satisfies the economical. Price ranges from $10 to $30 per Spring line of Hats, Shirts and furnishings are now complete. Come, and let us show you through the home contests and one was represented in the final by a talented co-ed.

The Northern Oratorio league contest is open to women as well as the coming freshman contest. It is just as much the duty of the co-ed to uphold the Old Gold on the rostrum as it is the duty of the men and the university has many young women who could render a good account of themselves in any oratorio contest if they could be induced to enter.

University Calendar
March 24—Frank W. Gunnas at the opera house.
April 28—Junior Prom.
May 8—Glee and Mandolin Concert.

Have your spring suit made at Joe Slavata. Ladies' garments cleaned and dyed at the City Stove Dry Works.

We clean and press 5 coats, 5 vests, 5 pants and give 10 shirts for $2.00. S. B. Thanner, Mgr. Dress club 25 Washington St.

AMUSEMENTS
Richard Carl's performance of "Professor Pettibone" in "The Tenderfoot" is considered one of the brightest pieces of comedy character acting yet seen in this country. It ranks equally with the best achievements of Joseph Jefferson, Richard Mansfield or Nat C. Goodwin, at the Codres Opera House Saturday night.

LEWIS AND CLARK EXPOSITION

The first great exposition of the resources and the products of the Great Northwest will be held at Portland, Oregon, this summer. The gates will be opened in June, and it is distinctly believed that this will be one of the greatest of world's fairs. Portland in test reached via the

FAMABELLA

We don't believe there's a cigar on the market that has "taken hold" faster than the Famabella Havana Cigar. The "Perfection of Blends." Its success has been due solely and entirely to the quality of the cigar itself and to our way of handling our trade. There has never been any "wide wagon" advertising or gift enterprises connected with Famabella. They've won out strictly on merit and they're making a bigger hit every day, at the Clinton Street Smoke House.
