Good Game.

Iowa Stronger in Defense Than at Former Times.

Tomorrow at 11:17 the Iowa band will meet the Grinnell team and escort them to the hotel.

At 2:30 Iowa will line up in her first game for the state championship.

Streff is entirely out of the game on account of a bad shoulder and Murphy will likely be out. However, we have a team that is now stronger both in offense and defense than it has been this year.

Coach Chalmers has done much for the team in the last few days in getting it into good form for this game. For three years Iowa has not been very strong on end runs, but now it is stronger than it has been for a long time.

The Grinnell team is as heavy as Iowa in the back field and possibly so in the line.

It is expected that there will be a fierce, fast, snappy game tomorrow. The line-up of the teams will not be given out tonight.

There will be a light signal practice tonight.

SOCIETY PROGRAMS.

Ghosts Will Apepar in Erodolphian Exercises.

The Irving program this evening will open with a declamation by Gray, followed by an oration by Cunningham. Geerhart and Bracewell will argue the affirmative, and Dunkelberg and Pike the negative of the question, "Resolved, That immigration from southern Europe should be further restricted."

Music will be the first number on the Philo program. Wharton will give a paper on the subject, "The Athlete." The debate will be on the question, "Resolved, That U. S. senators should be elected by direct vote of the people. McLane and Rorick will support the affirmative, Sheel and Scherner, the negative. Vestal will give a short story entitled, "Little Jarvis." Another musical number will conclude the program.

The Zets will give the following program:
Music.

ATKINSON, C.

Oration—Smith.
Debate: "Resolved, That the United States should establish a system of ship subsidies."

Affirmative: Phelps, Geddes.
Negative: Griepenberg, Johnston.
Declamation—C. Howell.

Music.
The Erodolphians will give the following Hallowe'en program Saturday, November 4th, in Irving-Ero hall, at 7:30 p. m.:

Cornet solo—Agnès Barry.
Declamation—Ghost Showalter.
Oration—Ghost Branson.
Piano solo—Ethel McKnight.

Debate: "Resolved, That ghosts are out at midnight on Hallowe'en."
Affirmative: Ghost Shedd, Ghost Knerr.

Negative: Ghost McNeeley, Ghost Lawson.

Declamation—Ghost Chase.
Essay—Ghost Price.
Violin solo—Mr. Vincent.

After the program, the Irvings and Erodolphians will hold a Hallowe'en party in Irving hall.

READERS' CLUB BLOWOUT.

The Readers club met last evening with Miss Jacobs, 328 North Dubuque street, at six o'clock. Each member brought twenty-two cents' worth of something good to eat and the one who brought the best and most for that price was awarded a prize. Mr. F. R. Cooper was the lucky man. After a most sumptuous spread, four new members were initiated.

BIG GAME SCHEDULED.

A bunch of striking handbills made their appearance today, announcing in glowing terms the "society event of the season," otherwise known as the Beta-Phi Psi football game. The contest is scheduled to come off at ten o'clock tomorrow morning, on Iowa field, and a record-breaking crowd of rooters and newspaper men is expected. That the game will be a hard one is evidenced by the following statements, quoted from the hand-bills:

"Coach A. Chalmers says: 'The Phi Psis are in the pink of condition.'"

"Coach McGowan says: 'The Betas are in the pinkest condition.'"

The general admission to the game will be $5.00, with a discount of $4.99 for cash, and the proceeds are to be for the benefit of the Standard Oil company.

SEAT SALE WILL BE AT BOX OFFICE.

Beginning with Charles B. Hanford all Seat Sales Will be in the Theater.

In the future the reservation of tickets for all shows will be in the box office of the theater. The seat sale for Charles B. Hanford will open Friday evening at 7 o'clock and for "Little Johnny Jones" Monday evening at 7 o'clock.

For many years in the past the seats have been reserved at Wieneke's book store. Miss Wieneke has been very obliging to all patrons, and the change is merely in order that the management can keep in better touch with their patrons than otherwise.

HAMMOND.

Program For This Evening in the Senior Lecture Room, a Mock Trial, Jevons vs. Rock Island R. R. Co.

An intricate case involving important questions in the doctrines of master and servant, scope of representative authority, proximate cause and insanity.

An insane witness will be placed on the stand. A woman in the case. Attorneys for the plaintiff—Ramsell and Sims.

Attorneys for the defendant—Floren and Green.

Judge—C. O. Gunderson, L. L. D.

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING.

A meeting of Iowan stockholders was held in the office at 218 Washington street on Monday evening. The attendance was not large, and the discussion was entirely informal.

The prevailing opinion of those present was that the all important thing now is to put the paper upon a solid financial basis. The opinion was expressed that the proper course is being pursued by the management to bring about this condition.

THE ALUMNI.

News of Graduates Taken From The Alumnus.

1900.

Mrs. Mary Lawson Neff, M. '90, has accepted the position of medical director in the Northern Arizona Normal school, located at Flagstaff, Ariz.

Dr. D. C. Parsons, D. '00, of Lake City, Iowa, has entered the University for a course in medicine.

S. S. Stockwell, L. A. '00, has entered upon his duties as superintendent of schools at Cheyenne, Wyo. For two years Mr. Stockwell was connected with the pedagogical department of the University of Wyoming.

1901.

H. E. Burton, L. A. '01, has been chosen captain of the tennis team of the University for the coming year.

Miss Bertha Willis, L. A. '01, will assist her father in the Iowa City Academy this year.

Miss Mabel Clare Smith is teaching Latin in the high school at North Yakima, Washington.

1902.

Miss Fannie Sunier, L. A. '02, has been very successful in teaching French and Spanish in Washburn College, Topeka, Kansas.

Miss Ellen Geyer, L. A. '02, has returned to the University as a candidate for a master's degree.

E. F. Mueller, L. A. '02, has gone to Washington, D. C., where he has a position in the bureau of standards.

Grinnell Hopeful.

Expects to Fight Her Best Fight and Be a Good Loser if She Must Lose.

Scarlet and Black, reviewing Grinnell's chances, takes the true attitude of the friendly contestant. The following, from Scarlet and Black, if it speaks the sentiments of the team, shows that Iowa has men to meet on Saturday, whatever the outcome of the game:

"The question uppermost in the minds of the faithful this week is, Can Grinnell beat Iowa? Twelve long years have passed since the Old Gold was humbled in the dust by the Scarlet and Black and although we tied them in 1898, yet victory has never perched on Grinnell standards since the days of '93. Time and again have our vallant warriors journeyed to Iowa City only to return with bruised bodies and in an unhappy state of mind. In 1901, we were confident of success but our confidence was shattered to the tune of 17 to 11. Again we had hopes in 1903, only to see them blasted on Ward field by a score of 17 to 0. Thus have the fates, or rather the better team, been against us.

"Once again the unexpected victory over Drake and the magnificent showing of our team have given Grinnell rooters reasons to feel hopeful. The team at present is in excellent shape and all the injured will have rounded in to form by Saturday. Coach Fiske assisted by various alumni is following the tactics of Bergen and the team is playing an excellent article of ball. Grinnell is going to win but if they lose, it will be because Iowa has the better team and therefore deserves the victory."

There is little chance for comparison and the superiority of either will be demonstrated after a hard struggle.

NEBRASKA REGENTS ON FRATERNITY RUSHING

Impressed with the evils of fraternity rushing, the regents of Nebraska have made the following appeal to the fraternities:

"The evils of early electioneering and pledging are from various quarters urgently pressed upon the regents' attention, with demand for correction, and can no longer be ignored. The regents think that no student should be pledged or admitted to any fraternity or sorority till he or she has been in the university at least two semesters. They, however, much prefer that this reform should be inaugurated by an agreement among the organizations themselves. The regents appeal to them to undertake the reform and carry it through, hoping that no enactment by university authority will prove necessary in the premises."

The Clarkston Republic of Clarkston, Wash., of May last, contains an appreciative article on the schools of that place. The picture of Otis T. Randall, '97, appears in connection with this item: "Prof. Otis T. Randall, the superintendent of the Clarkston-Vineland public schools, and who has been again elected for another year, was graduated from the Iowa State Normal at Cedar Falls in '97. After a two years' course at the University of Iowa, he accepted the position he holds, and it is putting it mildly to say he certainly stands very high in the estimation of the school patrons—both parents and pupils. His work has been decidedly successful, and the influence he exerts over the school is marked by the most excellent results that has been made manifest since he assumed the responsibility of organizing and grading the school." —Normal Eye.
