Friday a Holiday.

Board of Deans so Decided Yesterday at Meeting.

Everybody may go to Ames Friday, who wish to do so. The board of Deans at their meeting yesterday decided to let the students of the university have next Friday as a holiday. Studies will be forgotten for the time being and every student that is able to do so will go to see Iowa win the state championship. The excursion train will leave Iowa City at 7 a. m. over the Rock Island and Northwestern, by way of Des Moines, and returning from Ames at 8 p. m. An inkling of how seats are selling at Ames is given in the report that 1,000 seats were reserved Saturday. A record-breaking crowd will be present at this game without a doubt. Get the habit and go.

The Iowa team will leave here Thursday, spending Thursday evening probably in Des Moines.

FOOTBALL NOTES.

Iowa defeated Heston's machine to the tune of 44 to 0. Fifty men could not have stopped the Iowa team as they raced up the field for their first touch-down. Heston's machine works too slow—several places need oiling.

Iowa must defeat Ames by a good score. Ames will put up the fight of her life, but she will have a hard time stopping "Germany" when he is shot out of the imaginary cannon. Nor will Ames stop McGowan. The 24th of November must be put down on the log-book as the greatest victory in the history of Iowa football. Just wait until Coach Chalmers springs the new plays he has up his sleeve.

How the Hawkeyes long to play a "Big Nine" now!

Heston said Saturday that Chicago would have a hard time beating Iowa now and that the Hawkeyes stood an even chance of defeating Northwestern and more than an even chance with Illinois. It is hard luck! One good game is coming however—the St. Louis game. St. Louis university is a strong team, and is the champion of Missouri. Iowa must win the championship of two states. Jerry Delaney, Iowa's former trainer, who gave Iowa a winning track team, is trainer of the St. Louis football squad.

A London physician says that disease is a blessing. Of course it is. What would become of the doctors if it were abolished? The plumbers also consider leaky pipes a blessing—Kansas City Journal. Sure, the man who views it otherwise must have a mean disposition.

It is noticeable that all the anti-football talk comes from colleges which are thoroughly disgusted with the other fellows winning so steadily.

"None know thee but to love thee, Nor name thee, but to praise."

ERODELPHIAN FRESHMAN MEETING.

The freshmen of Erodolphian literary society gave a very interesting program last Saturday evening.

The first number on the program was a piano solo by Miss Esther Swisher. Miss Holman's oration on "Governor Folk" was very much enjoyed. Miss Cutler's recitation was well suited to her and was pleasantly rendered. Mr. Adams sang and was heartily encored. Miss Helen Swisher and Miss Flora Cooper discussed the question, "Resolved, That the high school does not meet the present need." Miss Avis Hall gave a very interesting paper upon the "Origin of Thanksgiving." The last number on the program was a reading by Miss Alice C. Wilson, "The Low Backed Car," with musical accompaniment.

Last, but by no means least, the Erodolphians and their visitors were highly entertained by initiates of Scimitar and Fez.

HESPERIA.

An exceedingly delightful program was held in Hep Hall on last Saturday evening.

The first literary number was an oration given by Miss Florence Mings entitled, "The English Windmill" a very unique subject, and an interesting one. It was interesting to note the comparison between the practical American windmill and the picturesque one of Old England. From every standpoint the selection was well written and delivered, and it was surprising that such a homely subject could be of such delightful interest. Miss Grace Brinton handled very well the characters in her selection, "Dr. Carter and His Mother." All enjoyed her number very much. The debate, "Resolved, That the money of John D. Rockefeller should be used for philanthropic purposes," received good support from both sides. The affirmative was represented by the Misses Abigail McRaith and Katherine Hodge, and the negative by the Misses Mary Paulus and Alice Yocum. The fight was a hard one and the decision was given in favor of the negative. "The souvenir craze," was the subject of the speech given by Miss Martha Paulus. This number also afforded much interest. It is a subject of much importance, and its importance has been very lately impressed, especially, upon the students whose duty it is to furnish posters for the different organizations. It seems the posters do not often remain posted very long upon the bulletin boards. Miss Cecelia Loizeaux read a very clever story written by her sister, Miss Jennie Loizeaux, who has been writing for some of the best magazines published.

At the close of the program the society enjoyed the annual visit from Scimitar and Fez. The initiates each gave a selection from the platform which was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The Hesperians invite the public to attend their next program which will be held on next Saturday night.

FOOTBALL HEROES BANQUETTED.

Captain McGowan and Cohorts, Streff and Murphy Honored.

The Phi Delta Theta fraternity gave a banquet last evening to their football members. Covers were laid for twenty-six in the large fraternity dining room and an elaborate dinner was served in elegant style. Afterwards, Louis Rodderwig as toastmaster, presented to Captain McGowan, a beautiful gold headed cane with the respects of the Phi Delta boys. Last Saturday was "Mac's" last game on Iowa field and this gift was given him as a memento of that occasion. In years to come when "Magugan" is old and gray he can uphold his feeble form with this cane and think of old football days at Iowa. "Jack" Streff and Bernard Murphy, the other two football players in the fraternity, were also well remembered, the former receiving a stick pin and the latter a watch charm.

Splendid toasts were given by the faculty members present, Dean Weld and Prof. Magowan, E. K. Brown, an Iowa City alumnus, and Chas. Dayton, of Iowa City, a charter member of the local chapter and its first president.

The evening was one of supreme enjoyment and one that will be remembered for many years to come.

NEW EQUIPMENT INSTALLED.

Two "Buffalo Down Draft Forges" were installed in the engineering shop today. These forges embody the latest and best designs obtainable, having a detachable hood, machine driver fan and other convenient features.

Mr. Ohl has just received a "Crosby Gauge Tester," which will be used in the steam engine laboratory to test the different kinds of steam gauges and verify their calibration.

The shop class of the electrical engineers have completed their woodwork and within the next few days will take up the strenuous occupation of the blacksmith and ironworkers.

DEAN GREGORY HONORED.

Dr. Charles N. Gregory, dean of the law college, has just accepted an invitation from R. W. Breckenridge, president of the state bar association of Nebraska, to address the annual meeting of the state bar association, on next Thursday.

Kappa Sigma entertained last Saturday night at an informal party at their home, corner of College and Summit street. The out of town guests were: Dr. and Mrs. Will, of Des Moines; Misses Richardson and Williams, of Cedar Rapids; Coach Ristine, Mr. Copeland and Miss McCord, of Ames; Dr. Collins, of Geneseo, Illinois.

It costs sixty cents to educate a child in this country. Maybe that's why so many half educated people look like thirty cents.—Register and Leader.

Forensic Season Near.

Oratory and Debate Now Attracting the Students.

As the open season draws to a close and the final struggles in the football arena are near at hand, the attention of the students naturally turns to the coming forensic battles. Debaters and orators are hard at work and some of the preliminary contests are scheduled for the month of December, although no definite date has been announced.

The outlook in all forensic lines of work is good. Some of the choicest of our students are enlisted. The work in oratory is usually slow, but this year promises to be an exception. Orations of a type high above the average are being handed in for criticism, so Prof. Gordon reports.

Students desiring to enter the preliminary of the Northern Oratorical League should note the regulations governing this contest, which may be seen at room No. 312 L. A., and some of which are as follows:

The final contest takes place in Oberlin the first Friday in May for a first prize of $100 and a second of $50.

The preliminary is scheduled to take place "not later than two weeks before the close of the first semester," Friday, Jan. 19, 1906. In case there are more than eight contestants they will have a try-out on or before "three weeks before the final home contest," which would bring the contest into December. Whatever date is adopted, it is clear that those desiring to enter the contest should have their orations completed by the close of the holidays.

Last year's contest was put on the final Friday in January, which for the corresponding date this year would be January 26.

The contest is open to all students in the University under certain conditions, with the exception of students holding academic degrees.

A CHANCE FOR BOYS TO REFLECT

The boys who are tired of going to school should commit the following to memory. The average educated man gets a salary of $1,000 per year. He works 40 years making a total of $40,000 in a life time. The average day laborer gets $1.50 per day, 300 days in a year or $450 annually. In 44 years he earns $18,000. The difference of $22,000 equals the education. To acquire this earning capacity it takes 12 years at school of 180 days each, or 2160 days. Divide $22,000, the value of an education, by 2160, the number of days required in getting it and we find that each day at school is worth more than $10 to the pupil.—Iowa Falls Sentinel.

Since the dollar is the cause of the present day evils in athletics, the time has come when the athlete should go back to the laurel wreath and banish funds forever from amateur sports.—Register and Leader.

A ROOTER'S MEETING.

Now that the faculty has done its part in granting a holiday for the Ames-Iowa game let us as students try and do our share in helping our team to win. Let us have a meeting in which we can practice yells, songs, etc., so we can do some real rooting. It was a very noticeable fact Saturday that S. U. I. was weak. Drake in the face of defeat out-classed us in rooting. Why not call a meeting and have some one present to take charge instead of allowing people to come and go away disgusted.

Let each college appoint a man or several men. What is the use of waiting on one man, if he does not come let some other man be ready to lead. Let this be the student's meeting and every one come, and take a part. If you can't sing, yell; if you can't yell, help in the collection. Now is the time to do your duty. We expect every S. U. I. student on the team to do his duty; are you willing to do yours. Iowa expects every man to do his duty.

A TIME TO STOP.

There is a limit to what a man or boy can do, and yet be classed as a gentleman. On Saturday evening as the train was about ready to leave for Des Moines some rowdies acted as though they had never seen a respectable crowd or been where ladies were leaving. It seems strange that persons forget the place and people they represent if they care nothing for their personal reputation. It is the duty of students to see that their guests are cared for while in the city and sent away without feeling they have been among a lot of hobos.

SOUVENIR COLLECTORS, ATTENTION!

The "Souvenir Craze" seems to have taken fresh impetus lately. Some of the posters which have been posted upon the bulletin board in the Liberal Arts hall have disappeared very, very mysteriously. Many of these posters were really works of art, and people in their earnest quest for souvenirs have innocently taken them, not thinking, perhaps, that they were committing a theft in the purest sense of the term. Now souvenir collecting does afford much delight and comfort to the collector, but he should bear in mind that, although he may be perfectly innocent in his pursuit, he is often committing theft. Even pennants were taken from Close Hall during the Y. W. C. A. convention. It is now that this matter has become a serious one, and it is hoped that people in the future will use more discretion in this innocent pastime.

VALUABLE GIFT TO ENGINEERS.

Eastern Company Presents University With a Fine Rock Drill—To be Used in Quarries.

The college of engineering of the State university of Iowa has just received from the Ingersoll-Rand Drill company of New York a new No. 86 rock drill. The drill is valued at $200 and comes as a gift from the Ingersoll-Rand company for the use of the mining engineering students of the university. It is complete in every detail with tripods, weights, steels, hose, couplings, tools, etc. Prof. C. L. Bryden, through whose instrumentality the drill was received, is having it put together and when it is set up it will be thoroughly tested by the mining engineers in the lime stone quarries on the west bank of the Iowa. This test will be made by the upper classmen who will be required to prepare theses on the subject at the conclusion of their tests. The generous gift of the Ingersoll-Rand company is one of the more important received by the engineering department thus far this year.

A NEW BRAND OF EDUCATION.

Class spirit is at its height in Mount Vernon just now. The freshmen and seniors are bearing the brunt of the other classmen's practical jokes. The seniors are being stuffed in a most thorough manner. The leaves are plenty on the ground and the frost and rain and cold have made them crisp and scratchy. The fellows who are doing the stuffing plan to give every man in the senior class a good fill of them before they suspend operations.—Cornellian.

BELATED CLASS SCRAP AT UPPER IOWA.

Fayette, Iowa, Nov. 9.—The students of Upper Iowa university have been in a turmoil for several days on account of the hanging of the sophomore colors, some time Sunday night or Monday morning, upon the belfry of the "Sem," the main building of the institution. The freshmen organized their forces, which number about fifty young men and coeds, and went after the colors. There was some hard struggling before this object was attained, but the colors finally came down, together with the big red tin can, which has been the object of special adoration by the sophomore class ever since its organization, and which has been through a dozen previous class "scraps" without having been taken from its proprietors. No one was injured in the collision between the classes, which lasted half of Monday afternoon, but a great deal of class enthusiasm was manifested, and other classes were drawn into the matter. During the night a newspaper was issued by the freshmen calling the attention of the public to the fact that they had outwitted the sophomores, and two manifestos were also published by the sophomores trying to set themselves right with the world.
