STUDY YOURSELF.

This, says Dr. Bailey, is the key to developing physically.

On Tuesday evening, at 7 o'clock, in the Hall of Liberal Arts, Dr. Bailey spoke to those interested in physical training.

The subject: "How to Begin and Break Training." In the first place, he said, training must be gradually begun. No one can begin on a new task and accomplish the best work at once. One should begin and gradually take the exercise to develop the heart and lungs. When he is in a good physical condition, he should be careful during the summer and winter months to be sure that he does not have to recover what he has worked out.

As to diet, every man should be a regular one. There try to make his permanent home. The daily registration in the Iowa City for 1894-95 was 250 or more. The class teams were formed by the association.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE ISSUES INVITATIONS FOR THE THIRD ANNUAL MEETING.

The executive committee of the Dental Alumni association of the State University of Iowa have just issued invitations for their third annual alumni clinic. The dates set for the clinics are February 5 and 6, 1895, and arrangements are being made by the committee for a large attendance and the most elaborate and successful program of the series. When complete the program will include clinics by leaders on all the more important phases of dental work. These clinics have increased in popularity each year and they are coming more and more to be the occasions of general dental alumni reunion, and aside from the educational aspects, the practical demonstrations of the modern developments in the profession, the alumni finds this the best time of the year to renew his college friendships.

BAND CONCERT.

At 7:30 tonight a free band concert will be given in honor of the football squad, at the auditorium of Liberal Arts.

Program:

Dr. Ward Talks Entertainingly as Assemble.

The secret of the Missouri nation is its religion, says Dr. Ward. The reason they are conservative in the face within them that if the world outside may destroy their sacred things—the ideals they strive to preserve.

Push-em-on, the chief, said to Dr. Ward that the Missouri were scared of the heart of the Great Spirit. Other people are not pleased to hear this, hence they fight the Missouri.

PROFESSORS BACK FROM FOREST TRIPS.

Professors Macbride and Wielchik are back from the annual meeting of the Iowa Forest and Forestry Association, which met at Des Moines, December 11 and 12.

The session was successful and interesting. Prof. Wielchik was elected treasurer. Prof. Macbride is secretary.

Among the prominent visitors at the meeting was Baron Von Bayer, a German who has come to this country to make his permanent home.

Prof. Bhimes and J. C. Monnett spoke of the University people on the program, and were unable to be present, but sent papers to be read.

IOWA STUDENTS GO TO MICHIGAN.

Edith Daily Iowaan: Annas, has just sent in this evening’s paper on the “Iowa Club at Illinois University” it may be interesting to note that while, according to recent statistics, there are 101 students from Iowa in the University of Illinois, there are 285 from Illinois in the University of Michigan. It would seem, in view of this palpable fact, that the universities of the Illinois institution might do well to continue their canvass for students with an in the limits of that state, instead of extending it each year into Iowa. However, if Illinois tax payers are willing to pay the bills, we have no objections of course.

ALUMNUS SUFFERS MISFORTUNE.

The following was clipped from a Waterloo paper:

“The many Waterloo friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Munker, now residents of Greenville, S. C., where Mr. Mun­ kers is secretary of the V. M. C. A. at the big Monnahan mill near that city, will regret to learn that a beautiful little girl, designed by Mr. Munker and built especially for him, was burned in the afternoon of the fifth of December.

Mr. Munker graduated from the University in 1893, and was given the object of football as a student who would disappear. Such is football as a sport, but practically we are "The many Waterloo friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Munker, now residents of Greenville, S. C., where Mr. Munker is secretary of the V. M. C. It is not too much to say that "The Forbidden Land," last season's marked comic opera success, will be seen here at the Colfax next Friday evening, December 16, in by far the best work of its kind that has been written in many years. It is rational, consistent, well written, both as to book and musical score, and deserving of the wide attention it has received throughout the country, particularly in New York and Chica­go. Seat sales open this evening.

Nebraska has had a secret girls mass meeting. What in the world may we expect next?

Evidently the editor of the I. S. C. student has some sore spots from the way he jumps at "Iowa." More kid stories.

Do you know that school closes in one week from tomorrow? Now is the time to dig. Then rest in vacation.

Dr. E. L. Kaufman'04 of Downey, is in the city today attending the meeting of the Central Iowa Homeopathic Association.

Professor Magowan has gone west on business, and will be absent during this week.

Professor Patterson is again at home after his New York trip.

J. K. Ingalls of Chicago has been elected to membership in the State Historical society.

Cornell seems to be going around with a debating chip on its shoulder. Is there no college in Iowa that cares to knock it off?

Princeton and Harvard are to play association football next week. They are organizing and will play games all winter, and close the season in March.

Nebraska has concluded that she can't debate Iowa. Does the climatic conditions have anything to do with it, or the sign of the times indicate her downfall?

Melzer is the 1906 captain of the Wisconsin squad. He is a senior law but stays another year where duty calls him.

Two hundred Leland Stanford students and six police had a rough and tumble fight recently at a presentation of "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

Michigan and Chicago will debate on January 19. The question chosen is, "Resolved: That a commission should be given power to fix railroad rates." Michigan will also debate Wisconsin this year.

The Minnesota Daily ranks the freshman big nine football teams as follows: Wisconsin, Minnesota, Chicago, Illinois, Iowa, Northwestern, Purdue and Indiana. You had better make another guess.

The national football committee is asked to meet in New York on next Saturday. The members of the committee are: Walter Camp, Yale; Paul J. Dashiell, Lehigh and Annapolis; John C. Bell, Pennsylvania; Prof. L. M. Dennis, Cornell; R. D. Wrenn, Harvard; Prof. J. B. Fluss, Princeton and A. A. Stagg, Chicago.

There will be a meeting of all the civil engineers in room 16, Hall of Liberal Arts, this evening at 6:30 to affect a temporary organization as a society.

The masons have almost completed their work in the new engineering hall, and the carpenters are in possession of the upper floors, hanging doors and making the interior habitable.

Friends of Mrs. J. F. Brown are sorry to know that she has had the typhus fever since going to Laramie, Wyoming. They are pleased to know that she is much improved.

The National Educational Association has decided to meet at San Francisco, Cal., on July 9-13. This is a great chance for a cheap visit to the west.

Coach Yost seems to be in line for the presidency of the Ann Arbor institution. At least he is better known and more lionized now than the president.
