Kansas Preliminary Debate.

Laws Prepare to Show Kansas a Thing or Two.

In the auditorium of the Hall of Liberal Arts Friday evening will be held the Kansas preliminary debate to decide the personnel of the team which will represent Iowa against the Kansas university team. The preliminary will be between the Forum and Hammond law societies, and promises to be a feast for all lovers of eloquence and fine oratory.

Dean Charles Noble Gregory of the college of law will preside. The question which will be debated is this:

Resolved, That the United States should establish a permanent mission to every nation in the world, whether democratic or monarchial, as a means of spreading civilization, establishing justice, and as absolutely necessary to produce a decent, clean, pleasurable world.

The debate will be open to the public.

BARES OF ANIMAL BEHAVIOR.

Second of Prof. House's Lectures.

Prof. House gave the second of his series of biological lectures in the Liberal Arts auditorium last night at 7 o'clock. This lecture, like its predecessor, was well attended.

The lecture was upon the question of animal behavior.

The basic idea of animal behavior. Prof. House says, is found outside of the animal's body. Energy of the outer world acts upon the animal's body through direct or indirect means.

At the meeting of the editorial association Friday afternoon, the visit of the association was announced by Prof. House. They will visit the University, the Chemistry and Pharmacy buildings, the classrooms, and the laboratory.

EDDA.

At the meeting of Elda January 12, Mr. Valens read a paper on Gustavus Adolphus in the 16th year. The following officers were elected: President, J. M. Barnard; Secretary, Miss M. A. Anderson; Treasurer, Miss Kastman. At the meeting, on January 27, Professor Plam will give a lecture on Henrik Ibsen: Some Notes on the Biographical Background of his works.

EDITORS TO VISIT UNIVERSITY.

Tomorrow at 8:45 the editors will go on a tour of inspection. They will visit the University dam, the experimental farm, the insect and mite laboratory, and a museum. They will then visit the bacteriological laboratories, the anatomy and physiology building, and finally the end of the afternoon by a visit to the Clove Hall.

Two Great Men.

Chicago has just lost two great men; one, the head of a great university, the other a great financier, the one a great educator, the other a merchant prince. Each had his sphere to fill and did it successfully. One was president, educators, statesmen and foremost American philanthropists, the other paying tribute to the two men. President Harper by his mastery in education, was able to organize men and lead them to future success. He built up and successfully conducted one of the great universities of the world. He was helpful, inspiring, strengthening to those who come in contact with him. Marshall Field by his energy and power as a commercial organizer was able to achieve things of human importance in his own sphere.

Both men were great, each has gone to his reward and it is said that both will not mourn for them. They belong to the United States.

Upper Des Moines Editorial Association.

Now in Session in the City—Will Visit University.

The session of the editorial association is in full swing. The first meeting was held this afternoon.

The wives and daughters of the men present at this meeting will be present at a three o'clock tea by President and Mrs. George E. Maclean, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Kennedy, Miss Everts, dean of women; and Mr. J. S. Eddes, editor of the "Iowa City Leader."

The reception took place at the home of the University president this afternoon.

The banquet this evening will be held at the Kirkley Imperial. The following program of toasts will be given:

Elmer E. Johnson, toastmaster, G. W. Hall, Iowa City and Its Vicinity, J. B. Hanger, "The Editor as an Educator." J. Hamilton Lewis, "Address." Dr. Dashiell, "The Des Moines Educational Association." George E. Maclean, "The University of the People."

Tomorrow morning the editors will spend in visiting the University and the city. Their business session will occur in the afternoon.

President Janes' Tribute to His Mother.

"One of the early decisions which had to be made in my own life, and which I regard as of great importance for myself," said President James of Illinois university, "was the one to choose between the fastidious and grateful a mother who influences her children, for which she was cultivating in more ways than one, and that was the determination to accept the world of possible education which the schools of this country offer. I remember distinctly when, at the age of twelve years, the question was to be decided whether I was to go to a school or another, I was allowed to choose between two schools. And I chose, I must confess, now as I look back upon it, probably under the skillful direction of my mother, the one which was known for its severity and strictness, for the closeness with which it exacted the very utmost amount of work in quantity and the very best quality."
