South Dakotans Strong.

Will Put Up Hard Fight Here for Debating Honors.

In the Saturday issue of the Sioux City Tribune, appeared pictures of our South Dakota debaters and the three men from that institution who have been chosen to come against Iowa. The paper has the following to say concerning the South Dakota men:

"The three University of South Dakota young men who will debate with the team from the Iowa State university are T. D. Lyons, William Potts, and W. O. Knight. Lyons is a veteran debater, having taken an active part in debating while attending Notre Dame, where he was recognized as a young man of pronounced forensic ability. Potts has tried out before in preliminary debates, and is by no means an amateur in debating. Knight is a member of the second year law class. He was formerly a student at the Fremont, Nebraska, normal, and represented that institution in several debates."

These men were chosen after a general preliminary debate, open to the entire student body. They are considered a strong team, and are coming to Iowa City intending to win. They will doubtless put up a good debate.

The question to be discussed is, as has been heretofore mentioned in the Iowan, "Resolved, That free election is the best available plan for an undergraduate course in a college of liberal arts; free election to be interpreted as being freedom from prescription of studies throughout the college course."

On this question the South Dakota boys are to have the negative side. The date selected for the debate is Friday, April 27, the same date as that of the Notre Dame debate. The South Dakota team is to come to Iowa City this year.

BEAUCHAMP.

Laughing Philosopher Delights Audience With Pathos and Humor.

Beauchamp closed the University lecture course last night with his lecture on "Sunshine." His audience was highly pleased.

Mr. Beauchamp is a surprise. He is verily not a beauty to look upon either as to form or carriage. His first stunt was a series of stories, some excellent, as was shown by the laughter of his hearers. About the time you thought it was to be all fustian, he switched off to a serious talk on the tendency toward criminality in this country and gave as one of the causes the neglect of the Bible. He finished with an eloquent plea for the American home. Then he touched the story button and more fun came forth.

Mr. Atkinson is to be congratulated on the success of this year's course. It has been excellent and at a very low price. Preparations are under way for a stronger course next year.

LECTURES ON MOUNTAIN INSECTS.

Wickham Explains the Reason for Strange Mountain Species in Last Lecture of Series.

The glacial period drove the insects of the Arctic south, and when the ice receded, the southern species remained cut off in the Rocky Mountains and Alleghenies. This, says Prof. Wickham, is the reason that the insects which inhabit the northern part of the continent are found in isolated colonies in the mountain regions of the western states.

This is proved by the similarity of the different species in the two sections of the country and by the fact that farther south, where the glacier flow did not reach, no such species are found. The insects which are mainly carnivorous live on the tops of the high mountains where the conditions resemble the Arctic conditions. Life is maintained among these colonies by feeding on the insects which are blown up from the lower slopes in a continually rising current of air. On arriving at the top of the mountain these insects fall on the snow benumbed with cold and thus are an easy prey to the hardier conquerors.

Lantern slides were exhibited of the many forms of insect life showing the similarity of the Rocky Mountain and Arctic species, in most cases obtained by Prof. Wickham himself on a tour through Colorado.

MISS ROGERS AT ASSEMBLY.

Lauds University Woman—Says She is Sane and Sensible.

"More men are driven to drink by the foolishness of foolish women than by any other cause," was the statement of Miss Rogers before the assembly this morning. She was telling what university life does for a woman and her point was that the university and college woman is a sane, sensible practical woman.

In opening her talk, she spoke of the growth of the school since '92, saying that there are now three to take the place of every one that was in the school at that time.

She mentioned the great change in the status of woman since fifty years ago when her mother shocked the little village in Pennsylvania by declaring she was going to a seminary to get an education. Her neighbors never forgave her.

Miss Rogers is herself a fine type of the university woman.

THE ALUMNI DEPARTMENT IN THE HAWKEYE.

The '07 Hawkeye board are very glad to announce in the columns of the Iowan something concerning the progress of the Hawkeye, the junior annual, and in particular about the alumni department. This department this year is under the immediate charge of Miss Gail White. Miss White has called to her assistance several prominent alumni, who have given her some very good information about many of the graduates. Miss Kate Rodgers of Burlington, has done much for the department, and it is certain that, when the Hawkeye comes out, this department will prove of much interest to hundreds of alumni.

The board this year has started the custom, which we hope will be continued hereafter, of calling upon some of the graduates for contributions. Outside of the noted alumni who are helping Miss White along the literary lines, Mr. Mer Call, '95, now of Red Oak, has contributed to the art of the Hawkeye, by drawing the title page for the department. Mr. Frank Sangster, another alumnus, has made several drawings which will add wonderfully to the department. With the alumni department represented in this way, the board feels that it will be one of the features.

The Hawkeye is expected out April 25.

SEASHORE FOR ALDERMAN.

At the second ward primary held on Monday night Dr. C. E. Seashore, of the department of philosophy, was nominated by the republicans as candidate for alderman in the municipal election which occurs next Monday. J. J. Hotz is the democratic nominee opposing Dr. Seashore.

Dr. Seashore is a man of absolute honesty and if elected will serve the best interests of Iowa City. Prof. Shimek is the only faculty member in recent years who has filled the position of Iowa City alderman.

FORENSIC FRATERNITY.

Tuesday evening a meeting was held for the purpose of organizing a forensic fraternity in the University in accordance with similar organizations in the leading universities of the middle west.

The fraternity, as a national organization, is to mean in debate and oratory, what Phi Beta Kappa means in academic scholarship. The purpose shall be to promote forensic work in the University, to develop a feeling of fraternity among the members of the organization and to secure for the University by every honorable means the attendance from high schools and elsewhere of students who have shown forensic ability.

Eligibility to membership shall be based primarily upon participation in interstate contests in debate or oratory.

The plan of the movement is that each university shall send a delegate to Oberlin at the time of the N. O. L. contest in May, when the national organization shall be completed and arrangements made for the installation of chapters.

Fred Cunningham, Iowa's orator at the N. O. L., will act as the delegate from the local organization.

Ray Files, Mm. Brinton and Chas. Barnard were appointed executive committee to work out the details for the local chapter.

Adopted in Toto.

University Senate Adopts Recommendations of Big Nine Conference Without Modification.

Yesterday afternoon the University senate met in special session to hear Prof. Smith's report on the second Angell conference at Chicago on football rules. The full recommendations of the conference were adopted almost without discussion.

The principal modifications of the first conference recommendation were permitting the coach not a member of the faculty and putting the last game on the Saturday before Thanks giving.

DRAKE DELIVERS TROPHY TO IOWA.

Thompson Drake's star distance runner visited Iowa Saturday and delivered the cup which Iowa won in the state track tournament last spring. The cup is a large silver loving cup about a foot and a half high and it certainly looks good in the trophy case. This is the first time this cup has ever come to Iowa as it is its second year. Drake won the last cup two years ago and this cup last year winning the meet three years in succession. We must win this year and next.

MOCK CLINIC TONIGHT.

Great Doin's by the Medics at Zet Hall.

Instructions: Come early so as to find standing room.

Do not laugh during the program. Life and death will hang in the balance.

Bring your camphor and ammonia bottles (smelling salts) with you—precaution in case of emergency.

Children under twelve should be checked at the cloak room. Responsible nurse will be provided.

Money is no object. Leave your purse at home.

Zet hall, eight o'clock sharp.

MR. HUIZINGA SPEAKS ON PHILOSOPHY.

A. V. C. P. Huizinga addressed the members of the Philosophical club and the students in Dr. Miner's class in philosophy last night on "Philosophy in its Modern Outlook." Because of the Beauchamp attraction and another lecture, the audience was not large. After giving an historical sketch of philosophy, Mr. Huizinga showed that the modern tendency of philosophy was towards the study of the individual and away from the study of man taken collectively. The speaker accounted for the present unpopularity of philosophy by saying that many look upon it as a sort of "mental gymnastics."

Professor: "A fool can ask questions a wise man cannot answer."

Freshman: "That's why we all flunked."—Ex.

OUR MUSICAL ORGANIZATIONS.

Along no line of University advancement has more progress been made than in our musical organizations. Only a few years ago it was considered a decided musical triumph to have a band of twenty-five pieces that could play "Blaze Away" on the march. Glee clubs if successful (as they sometimes were) owed the fact to a fortunate personnel of singers rather than successful training and directorship.

Last year, however, the glee club received a new impetus through the arrival of Dr. Prentiss. His faithful and consistent work are apparent in this year's organization—a glee club of which the University, students and professors, may feel proud.

Other vocal musical clubs have also reached a high degree of efficiency. The Dental Glee club and University quartet are both deserving of much appreciation and praise.

This year's band needs no recommendation; every one who has heard it, knows that it recommends itself. For the past few years we have been fortunate in bands, but this year, under the direction of Mr. Van Doren, it has reached a degree of proficiency never before equalled in University history. A class of music is being handled (and successfully handled) that has never before been attempted. Besides an unusually large repertoire of marches and selections, a large amount of standard music is being played.

Overtures by Shubert, Suppe and others are excellently presented by this amateur band. The fact that the boys are dated for concerts in all the largest cities of the state, during their spring vacation tour, proves that they have a good and growing reputation.

The band has just ordered four melophones from New York, the expense of which will amount to about one hundred and thirty dollars. Besides this they have to meet the expense of an advance agent for their tour, which will probably amount to another hundred dollars.

They deserve your patronage at their concert (advertised for the evening of the twenty-seventh) and should receive the encouragement of seeing you there and the benefit of your financial support.

DRAMATIC CLUB TO DES MOINES.

Will Leave Next Wednesday to see Willard in The Professor's Love Story.

At a meeting this afternoon it was fully decided by the Dramatic club to go to Des Moines next Wednesday to see Willard, the great English actor, in "The Professor's Love Story." This play will be put on by the club about May first. Willard opens a half week stand in Des Moines on Monday night in repertoire, playing the first night, A Pair of Spectacles, and The Man Who Was, Tuesday night The Professor's Love Story and again at afternoon matinee at which performance he will be inspired by the dramatic club, and closing his engagement on Wednesday night with The Middleman. The popularity of the play in question is shown by the two performances given of it.

The club will leave about eight in the morning and return on Wednesday night, leaving Des Moines at ten. Rates have been secured and any desiring to go should see the manager of the club.

SIoux CITY ALUMNI ACTIVE.

Extensive arrangements are being made by the Sioux City Iowa university alumni association for the entertainment of Prof. T. H. MacBride who will speak there before the Northwestern Iowa teachers association in the early part of April. The members of the committee in charge of the affair are Miss Marie Lynch, Prof. W. H. Clarke, Prof. Paul Doreweller, Perry Bond and Frank R. Wilson.

DAM TO BE BLOWN UP.

The executive committee of the board of regents has appropriated a sum of money to be used in blowing up the Terrill dam north of this city. With the passing of this dam one of the oldest landmarks in this part of the state will be removed. It was built over 69 years ago, of wood and brush with rocks piled in, and it is probably the oldest wooden dam in a good state of repair in the United States.

Roller skated?

Girls, have you changed your (ad) dresses since last November?

Rumor has it that University appropriations will be "cut to the bone by the legislature."

The crowds grow larger at The Merchant every day.

Miss Catherine Taylor, L. A. '97, is teaching Latin and history in Lyons high school. Lyons is Miss Taylor's home town, and she has been engaged in the schools there ever since leaving the University. She is meeting with decided success as a teacher and sends kindest greetings to friends in the University.

D. A. McMillan, L. A. '93, is minister in the First Presbyterian church of Lyons. Mr. McMillan's ministry is proving highly successful. Not only is the church growing in numbers and spiritual power but material progress is evidenced by a fine new church building now in process of erection.

Della F. Northey, L. A. '98, formerly of Dubuque, is now living in New Richmond, Wis., where she is engaged as teacher in the high school. Ex-state Senator Robert Bonson, '90, has returned to the practice of law, and is located in his home town of Dubuque.

John W. Kintzinger, Law '97, is city attorney of Dubuque. He is just closing his first term and will succeed himself without opposition.

Albert H. Blocklinger, M. '94, of Dubuque, Iowa, is spending the year in Germany, working and studying in the hospitals there.

John J. Brownson, M. '86, is surgeon in St. Joseph hospital at Dubuque. Dr. Brownson has a finely equipped room in the hospital, supplied with all the modern equipments and conveniences of surgery.

Will Schroeder, ex-'01, who will be remembered as one of the popular foot-ball giants of his day, is starting the practice of medicine in Dubuque.

First freshman: "Can you tell me whether there will be a moon tonight?"

Second freshman: "I don't know, I am a stranger here myself."

The University is well represented in Waterloo, the alumni list numbering well toward 75. The schools of Waterloo are in splendid condition this year and are manned in a very satisfactory degree by University people. On the east side, Henry H. Savage, L. A. '99, is the very successful superintendent, and among his energetic high school teachers are found Mae Belle Allstrand, '05, teacher of German; Florence L. Joy, '03, at the head of the work in English; Mary Morton, '98, has work in Latin and history. On the west side, A. T. Hukill, '87, M. A. '90, is the able superintendent, and among his high school teachers are Lillian Waite, '00 and Eleanor Hossfeld, '03.

Prof. W. C. Wilcox will deliver a lecture at Estherville Friday night on "The Meaning of the War Between Russia and Japan."

Call on H. A. Strub & Co. for new spring suits, new spring jackets, shirt waists and separate skirts.

Polygon held a "parody" program last evening. Some of the parodies were excellent and may find their way into the Hawkeye.

Miss Ella Ham will entertain Pi Beta Phi Thursday afternoon in honor of Julia E. Rogers and on Saturday Pi Beta Phi will entertain Miss Rogers. Miss Rogers was a Pi Phi of the class of '92.

Early spring millinery at H. A. Strub & Co.

The crowds grow larger at The Merchant every day.

Students of Illinois university express themselves as very well satisfied with the new football rules.

Chesley, '04, masonry inspector for the Big Four Ry., in Southern Illinois, is in town for a temporary stay.

A movement has been started at Syracuse university to have student self-government. It is proposed to have a committee which shall have the power of settling all disputes between the members of the two lower classes, such as the arrangement of rushes and other matters of importance.

Iowa's orator, who chances to win the N. O. L. contest this year, will find one of his rivals for ultimate honor, a Japanese. This young orator won the prize of one hundred dollars in gold offered by the University of Michigan and also won the Chicago alumni medal. He spoke on "The Mission of New Japan" and will use the same oration when he meets S. U. I's orator in the final N. O. L. contest.

M. L. McKinley, a graduate of the law school of the University and now a prominent member of the Illinois legislature and a practicing attorney of Chicago, has recently declined to be a candidate for a third term in the legislature, alleging as his reason that a career in the legislature is ruinous from a financial standpoint.
