CHALMERS ARRIVED COOPER COMING
YESTERDAY

GLADLY RECEIVED BY FOOTBALL SQUAD.

Thirty Men Out Last Night in Practice—Cautious Spectator on Side Lines.

Two days ago, "Hurry up!" Yusuf Mohamed and the other 39. One day ahead of schedule, a severe child as usual over the prospects.

Yesterday afternoon Coach Chalmers arrived in Iowa, greeting the squad at the old Black Hawk. The big fellow often strolling the squad through a few tests, which, if not very trying, are to be still of the same easy temperament, and when we asked him what good work he gave the players, he replied, "Well it won't do to say much for when we do, and things dictate to go wrong, then everyone goes down stairs." A review was needed, the plane tells all the time and then the public is as well informed as we are.

Such is the spirit of Coach Chalmers. The football season has been lacking in its usual habit of building a "machine" such as the one which is the best for the job. But at Iowa, we can keep a good even temperament whether we have the champion in the Big Eight or in the Big Nine. The boys certainly do play and keep going under the instructions of Coach Chalmers. Every player has a chance to prove him, and whether he diae a star player or fumble, so long as he did his best.

When asked how the lunch looked yesterday, "Well up look good enough, but you know we can't tell who will be able to play. I do feel that the freshman lunch of last year are showing up strong, and there is no reason why we can't have a good even team although the line was weak.

For the past two nights Assistant Coach Card has been prating, and watching the trench of old gold men with considerable inspiration. Coach McGowan of Brown, who has seen for regular work in a preliminary practice. Last night the Coach spoke as usual on the line and giving signals on the old style line.

UNIVERSITY EXTENSION WORK.

Professor W. C. Witters Will Lecture in Burlington—Important Work Carrying on in Illinois.

In the near future Professor W. C. Witters will lecture on the subject of his six lectures before the University Extension movement is to resume its work.

The subject of the course is "His University of the World—His University in Europe."

The first lecture will be delivered Monday, Oct. 10th. The University Extension movement is an attempt to give lectures on educational values of certain objects or conditions. It may be expected to popularize their cause. They are for the principal purpose of assisting in the current of the course given to the public by the University Extension movement on some series of related topics. This work extends throughout the state and is generally carried on by professors, usually by local boards of education. The president of the faculty is Director of the work. Professor Witters is in charge.

The Illinois Extension movement intends to extend the educational work to non-faculty members in the state. The courses are open to all persons, but are limited to those who have attended at least one course in the Extension movement. The work is carried on by the Extension movement in cooperation with the University Extension movement.

The work covers a wide range of subjects, from sciences such as physics and chemistry, to social sciences such as sociology and economics. The Extension movement also offers courses in practical skills such as agriculture, home economics, and business administration.

The Daily Iowan yesterday published an editorial stating that the University Extension movement is unimportant and may not deserve the day given to it in the University Extension movement. It is concluded that the University Extension movement is unimportant, and the students in it are not following the program set by the University Extension movement. However, there is a need for a better method of extending the educational work to the public. And that is the work of the Extension movement.

As noted in the calendar, the University Extension movement in the weeks next Tuesday, the twentieth of October, Building 15, principal part of the movement, under discussion. The law now requires such plans to be laid before the university in the matter of its probable work. The extension movement might be subordinated to the next session of the leg. The Extension movement is known to be built within the next two years. This is not the case with the Extension movement.

What appropriation should be made to the Extension movement for the engineering building? This question will be considered.

On the following day the Extension and Building committee will meet. This is the usual procedure.
