CEDAR RAPIDS HAS UNIVERSITY

Composed of Those Who Have Bachelor's Degrees from Any College of Good Standing

College people at Cedar Rapids enjoy a Christmas vacation from the great Iowa-Minnesota football game at Minneapolis on Dec. 9, 1905. This enthusiasm created by this hard fought game was thoroughly sustained at a student banquet that was formed, as a sort of center for athletic and academic interest.

Beside occasional called meetings, there is a great deal of co-operation during the Christmas holidays. A banquet is usually given, attended by the members and by local students at house for the purpose of discussing plans for the year. There are other banquets in honor of prominent educators. Some who have attended are entertained at the Press, King of Oberlin College; Professors Harkavy and S. L. Howard who delivered the Educational Day address of the American Chemical society; Professor Wm. Liddle of Princeton University, who delivered the lecture of the American Chemical Society; the students, and a number of other institutions.

The aim and purpose of the club is to promote good fellowship among the members by application to the secretary, the members by way of entertainment, and the public by way of assistance. It is intended to make the club a regular feature of the Marion College life, and will aid in fulfilling their obligations as college men.

As for eligibility: "Any resident of Cedar Rapids who has graduated from the degree of A. B., A. M. or Ph. D., or from a college of repute, and has been accepted into the club by the members of the club, is eligible to become a member of the club, and will be given the necessary assistance by the members of the club to keep in touch with the college and the college literature, and will aid the club in fulfilling its obligations as college men."

MEDIC STUDENTS SPECIALIZE

M. A. and Ph. D. Degrees Sought by Students in Eys, Ear, Nose and Throat Department of Hospital.

There are many students in the ear, nose, and throat department of the hospital who have done some excellent work for honor degrees. They are working on their higher degrees along this line. Among them is Mr. Fred Bailey, who is investigating the bacteriology of the eye, and will publish his investigations in due season. Dr. Ariss Cary is working on the same subject for his M. A. degree. Dr. James Kossler is studying the refraction of the eye, and will be shown as a subject for the same. Dr. John H. New is working on a subject for the same.

The aims of the students in this department are to gain a thorough knowledge of the field, and to be able to carry on similar investigations hereafter.

There are two men who are taking the junior and senior classes who wish to become physicians.
