MARSHALL SOCIETY LAUNCHED

Mary New Members Received Friday Night—Judge Towner Gave The Principal Address.

The opening meeting of the new law society was well attended and it was a grand night for Marshall. Judge Towner’s address emphasized the importance of acquiring a good education and emphasized the opportunities for development and the practical value of the work for students.

The address at the next meeting will be given by Professor L. M. Byers. The meeting following will be in the nature of a more social character.

The fraternity and business meet will follow the program Friday night. A number of new members were voted on, whose names are as follows:

Gibson Mulhern
Keane Outland
Jewett Martin
Lomax Low
McGill Lovell
McManus Morgan
Becktel O’Brien

Did Not Adopt 200-Word Limit—Next Year in Council Bluffs

The three days session of the Iowa State Library Association came to a close Friday, and the university decided to return to the 200-word limit. Mr. Wyer reports the convention a great success. A report has been circulated to the effect that the convention adopted the "Reform List" in spelling. This is incorrect. An informal vote was taken to see what portion of the delegation would be in favor of adopting it. No action in an official way was intended. Those who voted were in their opinion as to the advisability of adopting such a list.

One of the social features of the convention was the Library School Banquet dinner. No action in an informal way was intended. Those who voted were in their opinion as to the advisability of adopting such a list.

The library school banquet was held under the auspices of the student body. Miss McManus, of Des Moines, chairman, has been selected president of the association for the coming year. The meeting will be held at Council Bluffs, the 200-word limit.

The bar of the University Library will be ready to meet Missouri students. A mass meeting to the most effective means of securing a college spirit. In our college spirit early this week may we not have a mass meeting?

C. P. U. HAIDS MEETING

The annual election of officers of the C. P. U. hands on Friday afternoon at which the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Miss L. Lynch; Secretary and Treasurer, Miss Clare Brennan. The society planned for a reception to be held on Tuesday evening, October 19th, at the home of Miss Margaret Miller. During the past year the C. P. U. have been very active in social desins. They have at present a membership of nearly one hundred.

NOTICE

The Knights of Columbus, and their families, will give a reception to the Catholic students of the University on Monday evening, October 18th, at the home of Miss Margaret Miller.
