GIRLS' GYM WORK BEGINS

CLASSES AND SCHEDULES ALL ARRANGED.

Enrollment is Larger—Mrs. McClintock Talks to Sophomore Girls.

The girls' gymnasium classes are now completely organized, but clinics have not yet as yet for regular work. Mrs. McKlin, who visits the freshman class twice a large as they were last year. As an introduction to the work for this year, Mrs. C. C. McClintock gave the sophomore class a short talk on the way to obtain a perfectly healthy body. Mrs. McClintock emphasized the fact that system and punctuality in all work were two of the essentials in keeping good health. She also told great stress upon the fact that in order to have good health, ventilation was absolutely necessary. Miss Sadie Hess will have charge of the boys for the same as for the seniors. The work will be divided into two parts: the work for boys and for the seniors. The work will be divided into two parts: the work for boys and for seniors.

N. A. S. U. MEETS NEXT MONTH

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENTS WILL MEET AT BATON ROUGE.

National Association of State Universities will hold its Eleventh Annual Meeting.

On November 12 and 13, State University presidents from all parts of the country will meet at Baton Rouge, Louisiana. They are the only members of the National Association of State Universities, and will represent the states of 25 members. But thirty are absent. The association of Richard H. Jones, President of the University of Michigan, and George W. Maclean, President of the University of Chicago, are the only associations present. The subject of the meetings will probably be discussed by the educators in coordination of systems for academic subjects. In the past, the system examination prevails, while in the west the method of accrediting is found. Information on the subject is considered necessary. Great Variety.

Next week will see College Theatre, an extra fine variety of this best unteracts will be presented. On Monday evening, 8. Kent, Mr. epitome, by a republican company will present the success of England and America, "Ribbits." A cartel of scenery and effects are erected. This is without doubt one of the season's best offerings. The seat sale comes from tonight.

Wednesday, Oct., 24, one of the best comedies ever written will be presented. This is "The Arrival of Kitty." A complete company of cusses and confidences will be seen in this very popular play. A dozen musical numbers are introduced and a pleasing evening's entertainment is secured. Final sale, opens Monday evening.

Friday evening, Oct. 17, the W. St. West Minstrels will hold forth. This is to be as good as the most interesting offerings ever brought together. It was very popular from here when it played at Cedar Rapids about a year ago, and is said to be first class in every re-cott. Sale will open Tuesday evening.

On Saturday evening, Oct. 17, Char.

B. Harris and his grand company of thirty people will be seen in a grand edition of Shakespeare's "Juliette Capulet." Two casts of orchestra are carried for this great production and we are assured one of the greatest of rare treats.
