Recognition Day for Y. W. C. A.

Miss Greenwood to make the address.

The Y. W. C. A. meeting this afternoon will be in the nature of a recognition service for the new members. The meeting will be conducted by Miss Cletisfe. On account of her father’s death she will be absent from the city for some time. Miss Greenwood, of St. Louis, is prominent in the work of the King’s Daughters, connected in view of the memorabilia to St. Louis and St. Louis University.

The National Secretary of the Y. W. C. A., Miss Teresa Wilbur, will address the city Wednesday at a meeting of the city’s branches. Her work will be meeting with the various committees, and on three evenings of her stay she will talk to the Association girls, between the hours of seven and eight. She will have charge of the meeting on Thursday.

There are about eighty new members in the Association and the total membership has grown two hundred while the canvass is still incomplete. The new program includes inviting all college association about the fourth Sunday after school begins. The service this afternoon will be conducted by Miss Gertrude Gittins, the local President.

Miss Mae Belle Allard of St. Louis was in town last week. The faculty of the Dental Department has decided to close the dental clinic in November, and it is proposed to call an assembly of the foot-ball coaches so as to get the students an opportunity to attend.

Freshman Social—A New Function.

All Social Events of Freshman Class to be Combined in One Big Game.

The Freshman Liberal Arts class met in the assembly room Friday afternoon, to hear a report of the committee on social affairs, which was appointed to advise with a committee of Deans, Prof. R. H. Butler, and Mr. H. G. Hull, on the report. It was recommended that all social events of the class for the present term be combined into one function to be called "The Freshman Social." This will be held in the University Armory, entirely under the Freshman super Vision, and will be on a par with the Junior Hop, the Junior Prom and the Sophomore Coupion. It will be very informal, a prize object being to enable Freshmen to get acquainted.

It will include orchestral, piano, recitations, refreshments, and dancing. The committee’s report was unanimously adopted by the class, and it is expected this function will be a success.

A very interesting program was rendered by the Thalian society Friday evening.
The Stetson Hat

It may be difficult to pick the winners on the "grid-iron"—but you'll have no trouble in selecting a good hat, if you insist on a Stetson. It sets and leads the style the world over. It wins on merit everywhere.

— THE DAILY IOWAN —

Mr. Townsend, an individually supported, scholarly institution, is in the best tradition of American education. It is an institution where students are free to develop their own talents and abilities, without the constraints of a rigid curriculum. At Townsend, students are encouraged to explore their interests and passions, and to find their own path in life. Whether it is through intellectual pursuits, creative expression, or physical challenges, Townsend provides a supportive environment for learning and growth. The campus is located in a beautiful setting, surrounded by trees and natural beauty, providing a peaceful and inspiring atmosphere for study and reflection. The faculty is dedicated to teaching and mentoring, and the classes are small and personalized, allowing for close interaction and individual attention. Townsend is a community of scholars, where students are challenged to think deeply and critically, and to become leaders in their fields. The college offers a wide range of majors and minors, as well as opportunities for study abroad and research. The campus is home to a variety of organizations and clubs, providing a diverse and vibrant social and cultural life. At Townsend, students are encouraged to take advantage of the many resources and opportunities available, and to take an active role in shaping their own educational experience. Overall, Townsend is a unique and exceptional institution, offering a truly transformative and rewarding educational experience.
