Let Us Meet Them, Greet Them, Beat Them

MASS MEETING TONIGHT.

The Greatest Mass Meeting in the History of the University will be held in the University Armory tonight at 7:30. Tomorrow Iowa will entertain two thousand guests. Come out and get into the game. You can help our team beat the Aggies.

TONIGHT'S PROGRAM.

VOLUNTEERS WANTED

STUDENT HELP NEEDED AT ONCE.

The Straw and Snow Must be Removed from Iowa Field This Morning.

Iowa field was covered with a deep bed of straw before the snow fell. This must be removed today in order to prepare the gridiron for the game tomorrow.

Members of the various fraternities have volunteered to help remove this today. Much help will be needed this forenoon. Let all who can do an effort for service early in the day bring shovels and forks.

Iowa Woman's Club Meeting.

The Iowa Woman's Club met yesterday afternoon with Miss Jessie Royal, Phaler, Carolina. There was a large attendance, and the afternoon was spent in the discussion of Christmas and New Year gifts.

The Club will meet with Miss Colombi, Church street, a week from Friday, the meeting is on Friday because the next regular stay at the meeting would be Thanksgiving day.

Negociateur Durante states that many names are being registered in connection with the Club.

The meeting is on Friday night. Let all who can do an effort for service early in the day bring shovels and forks.

Mass meeting in the gymnasium and be on the field early.

Miss Jessie Royal, of Des Moines, will spend Sunday at the Tri Delta home.

Monsieur Toe-French, Editor Merle, and Manse Smith are coming up from West Liberty to see the game.

Klein and Johnson will serve meals at the gate all day.

Miss Irene McCulloch slipped on an icy walk and fell, fracturing her collarbone. She will be unable to make the game.

An extra force of police will be on duty to handle the crowd on Iowa field.

The Iowa Woman's Club Meeting.

The Iowa Woman's Club Meeting.

We are unable to give the record of each team this year marks its ability to score. The expectation and training of several years on each team means that some scoring will be done, especially the highest ambitions of Iowa football stars will be lost.

Iowa goes into the game with few regrets. Our team is in as good condition as we had reason to expect. Our boys are trained to meet a heavy and mighty team. They know Iowa has power if rightly used to pound them across the field, but they believe of Iowa's power can be displayed on straight football.

The condition of Iowa's team in the past before this contest has always proved more satisfactory than the present status, but the support the student body is giving Iowa this year will mean for much in the outcome of the battle. The loyalty of the entire University to her team will mean that Iowa can do better than we expect.

Never quit playing Iowa until the last whistle blows.

From the new teachers a spectator can see as well as they can from the grand stand.

No standing room to be allowed at the east side of the field between the souts and the fence.

NOVEMBER ALUMNUS OUT.

An Interesting Number—Leading Articles on Dr. Shamhu-Day and Professor Shimek.

The November number of the Iowa College Woman is just off the press. The leading features are biographical sketches of Dr. Shamhu-Day, by Mr. John Springer, and of Professor Shimek. One does not need to be an Iowa College woman to appreciate these articles. They are well-written and intelligent appreciations of two of our representative University men, Byn, half-done portraits sympathize the article.

There is also a department in our University news, a section devoted to classified Alumni news. The section is unusually essential, printed on high-grade book paper, and tastefully bound.

Miss Julia Pidcock of Marshalltown will be here for the game Saturday.

The Phi Psi will entertain a number of out-of-town guests at their party this evening at the Ames game river row. Among the guests are: Mr. and Mrs. Neil Jackson, Misses Esther Jackson, Helene Ballet and Neil Law of Waterloo.

Miss Gertrude Read of Council Bluffs, is a guest at the Phi Beta Psi House.

Russell Barber of Chicago is visiting his sister, Miss Ethel Barber.

Miss Mary Jaquith of Grinnel will visit Miss Marjorie MacVicar over Sunday.

CARR FUND SECURE.

Wast not a Request but a Gift, Which We Refuse to Secure.

A somewhat misleading statement appeared in two of the city papers a few days ago, with reference to the A. Whitney Carr endowment. Ripples of the appearance of the article some uncertainty has been expressed by University people as to whether the $150,000 fund was yet to be paid immediately on the retirement of the estate. It is explained that the gift was tendered, accepted, and delivered before Mr. Carr's death. The income has been used for several years in maintaining the Whit¬

CLOTHES don't make men but they do go a long ways to w a r d making a good impression. If a young chap isn't planning looking, he is handicapped. Now-adays the College Man has the call. He is energetic, bright, a wholesome looking type. And the man who even looks like a College man has a decided advantage. COLLEGE BRAND CLOTHES distinguish men. They hold them out from the crowd. They are not like the ordinary sorts of ready-made clothes. The chap who wears them is always well groomed. The merchant tailor is out of a great many men's reach, but merchant tailoring styles are not.
