Senator Board Considers It.

The Senate Board on Intercollegiate duties and oratory will meet this afternoon, to consider in detail the new plan of organization for the debating interests. At the meeting of the Senate last week, Professor

Duncan was instructed to study any of the leagues that the report had been received with great favor, but that the Senate wished them to consider it be fore taking action. The report has been turned over to the Senate in charge of such oratory and intercollegiate they will have the situation thoroughly before the meeting be held to several weeks. The report that will be presented in the Senate, by the time that action will probably be taken, is it is hoped that this action may be called for next week from Wednesday the full text of the proposed con-will be presented to the Iowa Senate.

COLLEGE Gossip
Cheating in examinations in the western universities is becoming a serious question. Students granted two students a leave of absence and are now adopting the “honor system” as established at Princeton and other eastern schools. This allows students to take examinations in any place they may choose; anyone detecting dishonesty bening duty bound to report to a council.

Class fighting is a thing of the past. At Knox. After several spirited en-reates already this fall, both undergraduates have mutually decided to abandon the class fight. This was brought about by the seriousness characterizing their interrebutting inferences.

Students at the University of California have wondrous opportunities in mu-tical alteration. They have had six symphony concerts this year and will have the most richful comfort. All these concerts are given in the Greek Theatre, with an audience ranging from three to ten thousand.

The Daily Nebraskan, acting on advice of the Chancellor, has adopted sim-ified spelling. Missouri, after some hesitation, has followed suit.
