MUSICAL READING AT THE BURKLEY

MRS. GILBERT AND MRS. GOBIE "ENJOY ARDEN"

Guests Were Lovely University People—An Artistic Interpretation—Readings followed by Recitation.

Tuesday evening Mrs. Herry Bilgert and Mrs. Preston East asked about two hundred guests to a musical reading with named re-tines, "Tusch Artichoke," at the Burkley.

The entertainment was given in the dining room of the hotel. Which is a very attractive room and particularized to seek its occasion. A scene was built at the west end of the room so that the seated plan was drew served as a background. The read aloud to the effective rooms of the artistic reading.
The scene to "Tusch Artichoke" was suggested by Richard Wheatstones and followed by the Wagnerian idea of when, as there is a distinct idea of ưới chairman, which is received son and as the characters as proper in the order. Mrs. Gobie interpreted the music very accurately.

Mrs. Gilbert's reading was a wife of the Indian and Indian her work always been of the highest type, but her interpretation of "Tusch Artichoke" was even beyond her usual height.

After the reading refreshments were served in the corner of the dining room. The decorations of the dining table were crimson roses, sunflowers, and flowers, Favors of crimson flowers were given.

Masses Allen McGee, Alice Weylner, and Radio Band assisted in the serving.

never profitable to all who participat-
