JANUARY ALUMNI OUT.

Signed of President Bentley One of the National Features—Alum Personal Mention.

The Alumni, which is supposed to be listed on the fifteen of each month in its appearance for at least two years has come. The front page of the monthly newsletter contains the report of President Schiller of the Normal University, the president of the class of 1870. Dr. S. L. McConnell contributes the most recent information. In the business section was a great deal of interesting material. The alumni letter in the present number of the Alumni is not a progressive organization. It is not only a financial loss to human beings but it is a loss to humanistic. Financial loss is not only a financial loss to human beings, but there are losses to human beings, but there are losses to the community and to business in general. Mr. and Mrs. Day.

Every strong, hard-working, confirmed housewife wants to secure that which is pleasing yet sparing. In the field of entertainment this problem resolves itself into securing one who is natural, as that term is used by one of the best English critics, George Henry Lewes. The character presented by Blue Day, and Orange Tree Day fills the most exacting requirements of naturalness and sincerity. The entertaining is unique on the platform, and it has all the atmosphere of the lyceum, so that the most conservative conventions need not hesitate to engage them. Mr. Day's success during the years of his lyceum career has long ago removed his programs from the experimental stage. Mrs. Day's charming work as a reader and in the little play makes the program even stronger than it has been.

Miss Wiley will lead the Y. W. C. A. meeting at four o'clock this afternoon.

SPECIAL SALE OF SHEET MUSIC Before taking invoices we will have a Special Sale of Sheet Music, beginning January 10th. Call and hear some of the popular music which we will sell at 10c and 15c per copy. We will play over any pieces that you wish to hear.

A. Baurer & Son. 1-22.

Phil Rho Sigma initiated the following non last night: R. C. Sherman, W. A. Henningham, and L. J. Waterman.

Mrs. M. E. Bartosme, who has been employed by one of the leading clothing concerns in the city has just opened a Cleaning and Repairing Parlor at 112 East Washington street, over Bartosme's jewelry store. The new establishment is making a special rate of 50c for cleaning and pressing ladies' skirts. Both men's and ladies' suits are cleaned by the French Dry Cleaning process, and those who may leave orders there will receive satisfactory workmanship. All suits are cleaned separately, which is much to the credit of the new establishment.
