Minnesota Debate To-night.

THIS STORY IS A STOREY STORY

OUR NEW COACH IS ON THE GROUND.

He Has Good Stuff to Work On—Believes in Wielding the Big Stick.

Coach Leslie Story took charge of the base ball squad yesterday afternoon, and put them through some lively hitting practice, followed by a nine inning game between the varsity and the Freshmen. The varsity won out, 7 to 2, in a rather listless game. Kent pitched for the varsity and Elliott for the Freshmen.

Coach Story took a short workout himself for two innings as pitcher for the Freshmen, and kept the hits well scattered. He expresses himself as very well pleased with the material, although hitting practice and lots of it will be the order of the day from now on. Last spring Story developed a hard hitting team, perhaps the hardest hitting college team in the state, from a bunch of mediocre material at Cornell. He has a very successful system of coaching in this respect, and Iowa will undoubtedly have a formidable bunch of clouters before the season is over.

Another thing that Coach Story is especially for is the "hit and run" game, and good base running. Iowa will need to do all these if she expects to make a good showing against Rock Island's Three-I League team, which comes here in a week or so for a series of five games. Rock Island has one of the very best teams in the Three-I League, and in the past has worked hard to win all her practice games with Iowa, which was something Davenport didn't do last year.

Three of the Iowa colleges now have old S. U. I. men for base ball coaches. Story at Iowa, Clyde Williams at Ames, and Dennis has recently gone to Cornell to take charge of the team there. These men are all old Iowa stars, and the first two have already succeeded very well as coaches. Dennis will be sure to turn out a good team, also, as he has had considerable experience as a ball player.

C. M. Parker, a Freshman law student, has returned to his home in Cedar Falls to confer with the editor of the Daily Red Oak. He contemplates either accepting a position on the staff of the daily, or studying in the office of Attorney Newman.

Seat sale now on for "The Little Minister," Monday night.

THE CENTERVILLE MEETING.

Faculty and Alumni Take Part in Southeastern Iowa Teachers' Meeting.

The University, both in Faculty and Alumni, is well represented at Centerville this week, where the teachers of southeastern Iowa are convened in their thirteenth annual session. This morning at the general session, President Geo. E. MacLean is to speak on the subject, "Industrial Education in Iowa." Professor W. H. Bender, now of the State Normal, also appears on the morning program, speaking on the subject, "The Teacher vs. the System." In the evening a lecture will be delivered by Professor John E. Cameron, '95, on "Birds in Their Native Haunts."

Thursday afternoon the college and the high school section was in charge of Professor Forest C. Ensign of the Department of Education, and this afternoon the Latin and German Round Table will be conducted by Professor Chas. B. Wilson, head of the Department of German.

Papers and discussions are in order on the various programs from A. O. Thomas, '03, E. F. Schall, '06, F. M. Fultz, '86, A. H. Paeker, A. F. Siepert, John M. Stokes, '94, F. M. Witter, '61, W. H. Bender, '95, and Supt. A. V. Storms of the Iowa City schools.

The president of the Association is P. A. McMillen, '93, Chairman of the executive committee, R. E. Crone, '97, Treasurer A. A. Slade of the local schools.

MILITARY BALL DATE SET.

Will Take Place in the Armory on May 17th, Night of the High School Meet.

The Military Ball committee met yesterday and selected the date for the Annual Military Ball. May 24th was taken of, but on account of its conflict with other events of that date, the night of May 17th was chosen. The University has concurred in this arrangement. This is the date of the High School Meet, and there should be a large attendance accordingly.

Notice.

Mrs. Mark Catlin announces an outdoor sketch class to be held weekly during the next six weeks. All interested call at 414 Brown street at 9 p. m. Saturday, April 6.

Professor Charles Bundy Wilson left yesterday for Centerville, Iowa. He will preside today at the German and Latin Conference held in that city, where the Southeastern Iowa Teachers' Association is in session. Professor Wilson will return Saturday.

COMING EVENTS OF THE AMATEUR STAGE

THIS IS AN EXCEPTIONAL SEASON.

"Madame Butterfly" and "Quality Street" Will be Produced Next Month.

Few people realize the scope of the work in amateur dramatics that is being carried on in the University. There has not been a time since the opening of the second semester during which practice has not been going on for some amateur production. Only one has been presented thus far, that being "Miss Hobbs," the Erodolphian-Irving play, but the next few weeks will see the production of several of these plays, the preparation for them having covered long arduous weeks.

Perhaps the best feature of the dramatic productions of the present school year is the fact that in almost every case plays requiring real dramatic talent in their production have been chosen. Every one of the plays must be carried by the actors taking part in them as not one of them is of the rollicking comedy type, in which the play carries itself.

The first of these plays is the Philomathian-Octave Thanet production of "Sweet Lavender" at the Coldren Saturday night. "Sweet Lavender" is one of the best of Pinero's comedies, and gives wide opportunity for character work. The central figures are a carousing young barrister and Sweet Lavender, whom the name adequately describes. A pretty love story is interwoven in humorous situations, and there is a touch of pathos in the supposed "bar sinister" of Sweet Lavender.

Monday evening will be produced what is perhaps the most pretensions of the dramatic efforts of the year—"The Little Minister," by the University Dramatic Club. The scene of the play is in Scotland, and the movement covers the love story of the minister of Thrums with the daughter of a Scottish nobleman, who masquerades as a gypsy girl. The play requires a high order of dramatic talent. The love story is beautiful, and Barrie has twined it most interestingly with the humor of the religious deacons of the Scottish church.

Another play which will be given some time in May by the departments of Greek and Public Speaking is the Greek play of "Iphigenia." The feature of this play will be the introduction of the regular Grecian stage and the chorus of the outdoor productions of ancient Greece. The time of the play is just succeeding the siege of Troy, and the plot concerns the finding of a long-lost sister by a son of Agememnon in his wanderings to escape the furies. The title role contains about 500 lines, and will be carried by Miss Jepsen J. L. Oakes of the Dramatic Club, will carry the leading male role. This play, under the supervision of the department of Public Speaking, will undoubtedly be the most finished production of the year, as concerns preparation.

The Freshmen of Irving and Erodolphian Societies are also preparing a play for production the latter part of this month. The play is a comedy of light movement and will be easily carried by amateurs. It promises to be of interest from a humorous standpoint.

Another dramatic production which will be one of the events of the year in this line will be the Senior Class play, the "School for Scandal." The big cast which is engaged in this play has been hard at work for some time under the direction of Miss Sadie Jacobs, and as they have still two months for its completion the play should be in finished shape when produced. This play could carry itself but it will hardly be allowed to do so in the light of the competition for the places on the cast, the wide choice of material, and the time put upon it by the amateur thespians.

Perhaps the play engaging the

IOWA MEETS HER OLD TIME RIVAL

MINNESOTA SENDS A SPLENDID TEAM.

Three Judges from Lincoln—Every Man on the Contest To-Night an Experienced Speaker.

Once more the University of Minnesota is about to try to beat us in debate, upon our own ground, a thing she has never yet been able to do. The men she has sent to do it are keen debaters, with a forensic record back of them that ought to qualify them for victory. The leader is Algernon O. Colburn, of Minneapolis. He is a senior Law in the University, and business manager of the Minnesota Daily. He took part in the Forum debate for the Jacobs prize cup, and is Pillsbury this year. Michael J. Doherty, of Le Sueur, Minn., was a member of the first high school team that won the Journal prize cup and state championship of the high school league. He has also participated in the Jacobs prize cup debates. He was on a sophomore debating team. He ranks as a Junior in Liberal Arts. Albert G. Evans, of Duluth, is a Junior Law. He has several high school victories to his credit, and has been a Peavy prize debater in his freshman and sophomore years.

The Iowa team has won its spurs in battle, too. H. W. Barnes, the leader, was a leader of the Junior debate last year. He was president of the Zetagathian society last fall, and editor of last year's Annual. Walter Myers, of Muscatine, has taken part in class and preliminary debate, and has won the Sophomore Oratorical and the N. O. L. preliminary. Vincent Starzinger, of Des Moines, was in the Wisconsin preliminary; last year he was president of the Freshman class.

The debate will be held in the Armory, as previously announced. The admission fee is twenty-five cents. The judges are three men from Lincoln, Neb., Professor Edwin Maxey, of the law college; Albert Watkins, editor of the History of Nebraska; and Judge L. Frost.

While the much-controverted question of municipal ownership is being threshed out here, our three Wisconsin debaters will be arguing it at Madison in the hope of bringing home a decision. They have arranged to telegraph the returns to Mr. Healey, at the Burkley Imperial, and the fate of the battle may be learned there at a late hour to night.

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED.

Do you want some information on a live question of public interest? You can get a very big quarter's worth of the same by attending the debate tonight. And if you want to have the pleasure of seeing Iowa whip one of the strongest debating schools in the country, you can have that satisfaction at the same time—probably.

If these inducements are not sufficient, perhaps you can be made to see that it is your duty to contribute that quarter and the encouragement of your presence. For the League needs both your money and your personal support.

The Armory holds a lot of people, you know, and a small crowd makes a pitiful showing in that big room. If we had only a handful of people scattered over the bleachers when Minnesota sends her football team down here we would feel really mortified at our lack of spirit. Peace hath her victories, not less renowned than war. It is just as big a thing to wallop Minnesota in debate as in football. And it would be just as appropriate to show enthusiasm over the matter.

On account of the unusual number of contests this year the League has heavy expenses to meet. Nothing would do so much to boost debating here as a large, cheerful, and argentiferous crowd at the Armory tonight.

"Sweet Lavender" tomorrow night at the Coldren.

We Have Just Added the Famous

most dramatic talent will be that produced in May. Quality Street and Madame Butterfly will be presented in one evening. The leading roles in these plays will be taken by Mr. Barry Gilbert and Miss Blanch Bloom, the rest of the cast being made up from the University Dramatic Club. Madame Butterfly is a one act curtain-raiser concerning the love affair of a fickle American with a Japanese maid. The play is a beautiful one, combining the pathetic and the humorous in a wonderful way. Everything centers about the Japanese girl, Madame Butterfly, this part being taken by Mrs. Gilbert.

In Quality Street the leading role will be carried by Miss Blanche Bloom, supported by a cast from the Dramatic Club. The Club has already considered this play, so that it is well within the scope of amateurs, with the exception of Miss Bloom's part, which gives unlimited opportunity for dramatic ability.

Several other plays by different literary societies of the school are being prepared, and will be described later.
