The rehearsal scene began for the production of the Greek play, "Phisuphena," which is to be given some time in May by the A. M. L. B. of Greek Language and Public Speaking. An account of the large number of people taking part in the production some little difficulty has been experienced in getting the cast together. It is expected, however, that the rehearsal scene will be in full swing in a short time. This play will be unique in its introduction of the Greek style of dramatic production. The staging will be arranged as were the Greeks of the day in a room of door checkers, the principal actors speaking from the rear of the stage. Another feature in the Greek chorus is a series of twenty girls who occupy the front of the stage. The play has an opportunity to take the story of a daughter of Athens after the Trojan War. The girl is a princess in a temple far from her native land, who is forced to be taken by the Greek brothers. She is taken by Miss Jane Coon of the Big Indian Club.

Representatives from All Three of the Forensic Societies to Compete for First Place.

Considerable interest is being aroused in the Freshman Oratorical contest which takes place on Saturday evening in the Liberal Arts Auditorium. The six orators which have gained places in this finish this year are expected to be especially good for the first year contests and a hard fight for the winning place is predicted among all six contestants.

The contest will be held on Tuesday evening at 9:30, and the orators will be selected by the judges of the three societies.

On account of the postponement of the contest from the last week of March to this time there has been greater opportunity for preparation and much is expected of the Freshmen in delivery and presentation. Since all these of the purely forensic societies are represented in this competition it is assuming serious proportions and takes on the nature of an inter-society contest.
