BASEBALL TODAY: IOWA VS. MISSOURI

MISSOURI COLUMBUS COLLEGE FROM DRAKE - OUR RIDE START ON Northern Trip Wed. Sunday.

The real beginning of the baseball season will come this afternoon with the Iowa-Missouri game, to be called at 3:30.

The Missouri men are making a long trip, they played yesterday at Drake, and will go from here to Simpson. No one sees to have very much of an idea as to their ability, but it is rumoured that they are a pretty strong aggregation.

The game for Iowa will be the same as for the first Rock Island game: Kirk sent, pinch; Kelley, first; W. W. by, second; Miller, shortstop; Whiteman; Burton, left; Joe Hanlon, center; Daly, right.

The lineup will probably be: A. A. Anderson, center of Cedar Rapids.

Missouri played ball last on Iowa field in 1904, when we beat them four to nothing. Coach Chambers will probably have McMillan then the following year and last, next.

Thursday morning the Iowa nine will have for the northern trip. Wednesday they will play Luther College at Decorah, Thursday at Iowa State, Minneapolis, Saturday at St. Thomas.

The Hawkeye club has been fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Carl Hobbs of this city to assist in the general Art work of the annual. The annual has a grand appearance with Miss H. W. Bemis and Dan E. Clark Clark are among the contribution to the Iowa Journal of History and Politics for April.

I see the German Empire has been getting confidential with a friend of mine and telling him so as how it is a thankless task to run an empire—thaf if he guesses right on how things should be done, the critics say, "Who put him wise?" and if he guesses wrong they say, "Poor fellow, he couldn't have expected to know." Well, there's a lot and miss plans of running any kind of business and then there's the know-how plan. You are "expected to know" all right, in this store, and no hit and miss excuses go. You are expected to get wise about the things you buy, for goods well bought and well sold, but you've got to be careful not to be half sold in buying. The market is full of graft purchase, failed wares and flim flam stuff. If you buy right, you'll sell right and that's all there is to it, critics or no critics. Of course there are critical times and all classes on more critical than they used to be. That is what we call, the boss says, "in the crisis, we are prepared for them." Really and truly, this store was never stocked so completely to suit all tastes as now.
