More Frat Ball.

WHAT THE BOARD OF REGENTS DID

SEVERAL IMPORTANT APPOINTMENTS WERE MADE.

Dean N. A. succeeds to Dean Currie's position; Professor McBride becomes Dean of Graduate Studies.

The board of Regents adjourned Friday afternoon, after a meeting of unusual importance. The resignations of Dean Shelden and Dean of the college of Liberal Arts Professor T. H. McBride were reported.

Phi Psi-scored 6000 to 1907.

Riddle, for Iowa, pitched great ball, allowing Minnesota only 1 hit, the same number being made by Iowa against St. Thomas. Iowa lost because of errors and no hits when needed. Saturday morning it began snowing and continued till night. Consequently the Iowa bunch with their spring suits five years ago, as the special coach Remley, had the good luck to win away from home against the University of Minnesota.

Canvassers can Make Big Money
Every year canvassers engage in canvassing for the AMERICAN BOY, the boy who wants to go to college. We will train canvassers, and divide cash prizes among successful canvassers in the different states. Every canvasser has a field of his own, and all profits made on the canvassers' sales are their own. We have a large demand for our books, and canvassers can be easily handled as a side proposition or as a side line. Any territory is good territory. Write for terms to:

A foolish breakfast and a cigarette cost will keep a man dry all day. Ger, wasn’t that a dandy rain. And, yes, we’re the dandy store on cranberry. Our dark Oxford crayon at $25 is the biggest value ever offered in the state. Cut with the wide shoulders, big sweep-off skirt, flanges straight, weighs only about three pounds and keeps you dry and warm. That’s because the air goes through but the wet doesn’t. Our $17.50 crayon is a little better cloth, a little finer, more hand work in the fronts and shoulders, but no better style. Our $20 costs are the peak of the market. Twenty dollars is easy money for a fine rain coat and if you have them going, all right. I think a genuine Priestly crayonette is the best buy for a spring topper because you know we’ve likely made some wretched weather in April and your crayon is equally good for early fall and late spring. And the dandy coat for evenings, Muggly.

Summer Has Arrived, and we are prepared to meet any and all requirements of those who desire the most stylish and best fitting clothing. At no other store will the good dresser find such a large stock of so smartly designed and such a variety of styles as at Slavata’s.
