HOMEOPATHS MEET TODAY
THIRTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL SESSION OF HAHNEMANN SOCIETY.

Meeting will continue for two days. Banquet for guests this evening

Homeopathic physicians from all parts of the state will be in the city today and tomorrow, attending the 38th annual session of the Hahnemann Medical Association. A large attendance is expected, and the membership comprises alumni of the Hahnemann college and most of the physicians of the state who give their faith to the maxims "Similia similia curantur." Every alternate year this meeting is held at Des Moines, in the other years at various cities of the state. Dr. Bywater is President of the Association, and Dr. Royal is secretary.

The program begins this morning at ten o'clock. Most of the meetings will be held in the English Lutheran Church. Mayor Will deliver a speech in address of welcome, and Dr. Bywater will respond, after which the program of papers will be taken up. Those who will address the assembly are Drs. Tait, all of Iowa City, Hachter, of Sioux City, Lein, of Des Moines, Minn. of Des Moines, Johnson, of Cedar Rapids, Parsons, of Anamosa, Moorehead, of Marion, Battin, of Sioux City, Anderson, of Washington, Royal, of Des Moines, Richards, of Webster City, Oren of Sioux City, Homan of Webster City, Staa, of Sioux City, Miller, of Albion, Woolford, of Des Moines, Mr. Dickenson and the Club. Some one said it was the hair that was "a woman's crowning glory" and another fellow said it was the hat and now I see a well-known lady writer says it is the socks. Well, you can bet your sweet life that the socks are going to have something to do with it this summer. Did you ever see such lopolasia patterns before? Have you seen those big vertical stripes that match the shirts? Oh, those dreams in baby blue and gun metal gray and lavender! You've been in, haven't you. I think it is a shame for a young man to go out and buy a well suit, a gray cravat, a gray worsted vest, a Roman tie, a pair of must low shoes and... and, then, to neglect his hair. Oh, yes! But there's no need of grief, Prince of the joyous sort, from $10.00 down to 25 cents. Bring your manly feet in with you and compare notes with our bosomy man. Magnify, with

If you want to make money this summer

We have a proposition by which a good man can, in three months, make more than enough to defray his college expenses for the next year. There is no outfit to buy, and no catechism which you have to learn. All you need is your own gray mare, and a little help from us, from time to time.

If you will write us, we will gladly explain how we propose to make your next college year free from financial worry.
