IOWA'S FRESHMAN TEAM IS IN IOWA AS CHAIRMAN.

SENIORS HAVE AN INSPIRATION

THEY WILL ASK A FAVOR OF TAFT.

Our Noted Commencement Guest Will Lead the Grand March at the Hop—Maybe.

Secretary of War William H. Taft will be asked to lead the grand march at the time of the Senior Hop Juni 12, according to the plans announced yesterday by the committee at a meeting at the Sigma Oh House. Advantage will be taken of the presence of the noted Senator in this city to have him present at the final social function of the year.

The committee selected Ralph Oliver of Ossineke, Mich., as chairman. The music was not selected but the committee is considering offers from several of our town orchestras as well as the local organizations which gave such excellent service at the time of the Military Ball. The decorations will be more elaborate than usual at the Senior Hop and every effort will be made to make the annual affair a success.

Chairman, Oliver, appointed—

Brenton Glass, treasurer and the following commitee, printers and advertising, Remercock and Oliver decorations and arrangements, Brainard, Pulleman, Williams, refreshments, Moen, Brainard: music, Riley, Williams.

EXTRA! EXTRA! All About What Happened to the Betas When They Played the KAPPA SIGS.

The Betas were again defeated yesterday afternoon when the Kappa Siggs took a game from them by a score of 8 to 3. McMann for the Betas was pretty wild and his support, was rather ragged, while Smith kept the hits well scattered and was well supported.

Cutter Shrumm played the best ball for the Betas and Hawkins for the Kappa Siggs, connecting with the sphere twice for two buggers and once for a single.

Batteries—Kappa Sig: Smith, Burnquist, Beta McMann Schrumpf. Score by innings—

Betas: 1 0 2 0 0 0 0 — 3
Kappa Sig: 2 0 1 1 2 2 4 — 8

The Junior Homeops have finished their lecture work and are taking up drug proving.

Dr. Colgrove of Toledo is a visitor at the Hospital.

Dr. Cogswell of Cedar Rapids, is in the city.

You know, I am a small, skinny girl of a boy that no one else can see that I am growing some this spring, and I've been trying on some of the new boy's suits and shoes, they are the realRestController and no mistake. The double-breasted Norfolk coats with the double d品尝ers and straight line fancy collars make a good look fine. And the big, loose shoulder style don't give away the size of my legs enough. Then we've got some new sweat shoes for boys, my shoe also is the same style on the surface, and someone brings in thin soles, and they make your feet don't forget that we have all the correct furnishings for boys, the new store sitting things in House Plants, Boy's Shirts, Boy's Hosiery, Shoes, Boys Overalls, Plus Suits, Bundlers, Underwear, Nightshirts, socks of every kind you want to see. Bring this in, old pairs, and we'll take as many, and try on a few. Everything for boys, ages 7 to 13, and younger.

Wisconsin T. M. C. A. SECRETARY,
H. L. Heizman, Graduate of Kansas University, Will Hold the Position Next Year.

Dean Raymond yesterday received a telegraphic acceptance of the call that had been tendered to Mr. H. L. Heizman, of Topeka, to be secretary of the local Y. M. C. A. He will assume his duties next fall.

Mr. Heizman was one of the best presidents the Kansas association ever had. Since his graduation he has been engaged in boys' work, in connection with the Y. M. C. A. at Topeka.

The Greek Play.
The Coaches of the Greek play report that the work of drilling the actors is going on very well. The work of the principal characters is almost complete, and the members of the chorus are rapidly learning parts together with the music and dancing.

The making of the costumes is also going rapidly forward. The costumes are designed as accurately as possible and the stage setting will produce closely that of ancient times. The construction of the stage scenery is in the hands of Mr. Banister of the Engineering Department.

The stage setting used in the second and third acts of "The Lion and the Mouse", which will be seen at the Golden Thursday evening, represents the inner private library in the home of John Burke of the richest man in the world. The room is a replica of one in the home of the New York financier, Jesse Seligman. Mr. Henry B. Harris is a close personal friend of Mr. Seligman and in this way secured the latter's permission to send artists to the Fifth Avenue mansion to make sketches of the room. The designs were carefully followed, and when Mr. Seligman saw the play he complimented Mr. Harris' artists for the fidelity of the reproduction. A notably artistic feature of the setting is the enormous white mantel, the original of which in the Seligman house was found in an old castle in Italy and moved intact to New York. Seats now on sale.

Fans at all prices, very fine lines.

- Why not get all you can for your Money?

- There is no man in this city who invests in ready-to-wear clothes who can afford to throw away anything payable away. Yet that is precisely what you do when you overlook trade conditions as they exist. We own and operate seven large modern clothing stores.

- We buy seven times as much merchandise as the nearest competitor we have. And from the best makers only. Thus we get an enormous quantity discount in addition to the discount we get for paying cash. It should be perfectly easy to plainly see that the Willner store is the only place in the city that can give you the very best there is for the lowest price it can be had. For we not only can give it at a price, as we say in store price we will not.
