WHO WILL WIN THE INTER-FRAT CUP?

BIG CONTEST NEARLY ITS CLOSE.

The Pan-Hellenic Baseball season closes next week, and the winner will be known then. There is possibility, however, of there being a tie, which will necessitate a pre-game settling of the season to decide the winner of the 1907 cup. The Phi Delta new team lead by 833 per cent having lost but one game out of six. The Kappa Sigs and Sigma Nu follow with 900 per cent each having lost one game out of six played. The Phi Delta has yet to play the Phi Alps, who are holding seventh place in the percentage column. If the Phi Delta wins this game, they will be the champions again, unless either the Sigma Nu or Kappa Sigs win their remaining two games. The Kappa Sigs have regained the title from Sigma Chi and the protended game with the Sigma Alphas. The Sigma Nu must play the Tau Delta who has made a find in their new pitcher, Wringle, and may defeat the Sigma Nu. The Sigma Chi plays against the other game against the Sigma Chi. If these three first division teams lose to their remaining teams, there will be a three-cornered tie and it will bring about a terrific fight for the coveted trophy between these teams.

The Tau Delta leads the second division teams with 600 and the remaining teams on the Sigma Alphas and Sigma Chi follows with 600. Each, the Phi Pails are keeping company with the tailenders, the Bates 600.

Phi DELTA WINS.

Seventh inning Rally Causes Defeat of Tau Delta Yet-day.

The Phi Delta tied up their winning streak by defeating the Tau Delta in a close game yesterday by the score of 7 to 2. The Phi Delta tied the score in the sixth, and in the seventh, which enched the game. Dixon was first up in this inning and Pitcher Rhynsberger from Winkle's throw to first. He stole second and came in on Smith's single into center field. Smith died on third, Murphy striking out, having been brought out by Harmsy, pond passed and Russell making the last out. Ron- Donal was pinch-hitting for him. The game went out one, two, three in their half.

Game looked rather dubious for the Phi Delta, most of the way, however, as Pitcher Denio was ex- ceeding well, giving many bases on balls. The Phi Delta were unable to contain the Phi Delta's new twir- ler's curve, most of the time, and the score stood 2 to 1 in favor of the Tau Delta on the all, sixth, when the score was tied. It was a pitcher's battle. Winkel had the best of it of the way, although he allowed more hits than Denio.

The Tau Delta were slow in their base running, the Phi Deltas owing their score to good base running.

The summary of the game is as follows:

FRESHMAN SCRAP DISCUSSED AGAIN.

UPPER CLASSES ARE TAKING NOTE.

A Push-Ball Contest Will Probably Be Substituted For The Scrimmage Next Fall.

A series of class meetings are in progress this week in which the object is to arrive at something definite in the regulation of the annual contest between freshmen and upper classmen. The upper classmen are taking part in the movement, and it is thought that their influence will go far in accomplishing the desired result. Considerable satisfaction was felt on all sides over the elimination of most of the objectionable features from the scrap last fall, and now it is sought to make the game secure in civilization permanent.

During the negotiations with the freshmen class last fall, a push- ball contest was favorably con- sidered, and the freshmen agreed to submit this form of contest for the grey and primitive struggles of former years. Efforts have been made this spring to secure the push-ball, but the price of the article has advanced to a point that is almost prohibitive since last fall. No firm keeps such a ball in stock, and it is necessary to make them to order. The increase in the price of leather, and the lack of much competition in the supply of such articles, has made it very difficult to get a price that comes within reasonable range. However, the idea has not been abandoned and it may be that an order will be placed for the manufacture of one of the big spheres. A push-ball contest is the most probable outcome of the negotiations pending.

He said to me, 'You've been in school, but you didn't like it.'

What is grammar? A dictionary does not define it.

I have one graph. Quite jealous of another man. He just went to a grammar school and got a good grade in English. He calls it grammar.

I am old-fashioned and there are old-fashioned things about me.

To be fitted for business is the best way to get into the store.

And the price. It would be just as good.

So, after all, if you take it, but who come in and find it's good.

That's our great hour.

Wise Talks by the Office Boy.

You know I told you I was going to night school. I asked the teacher what they meant by this craft business I hear so much about. He said to forget it, that boys weren't in school to study politics, but they didn't satisfy me a little bit. What is graft, anyway? The dictionary doesn't give me any satisfaction—least not about the "graft" everybody is talking about.

I have some thoughts about graft. Quite often one man is jealous of another and he refers to him as a grafter. Again, one man sees another taking advantage of a good opportunity and he calls him a grafter; jealousy again. To graft is to acquire something and there are unlimited opportunities and there are unlimited opportunities to acquire things here in our stores.

To be fitted into one of our faultless business suits would be ideal grafting—if you do the suit. And the price would be so far removed from grafting that you would be justified in saying that it is good graft.

So, after all, "graft" is as you take it, but whatever you graft, come in and let us dress you. That's our graft.
