SMITH WILL BE HAMILTON ORATOR

LAMONT MAN WON THURSDAY CONTEST

Frezer Got Second Place; Shakespearean Scenes Added Variety to the Program.

The fifth annual Hamilton preliminary contest was held Thursday evening at the Hall of Liberal Arts.

There were five speakers of the evening, each of whom was introduced in turns by Mr. Conway, president of the Oratorio Association.

The first contest was given by Mr. G. E. Frazer, and was entitled "Hamlet of Kings." Mr. Frazer spoke in a very direct and forceful way, and delivered his oration unusually well. "The College Spirit Dominant in American Government" was the theme of his oration.

Mr. Royal's oration "Heredity as a Factor in the Formative Period of our National Life" was delivered in a clear and forceful manner. Mr. Royal traced Alexander Hamilton's traits of character back to his ancestors, and showed that in all government heredity plays a peculiarly strong part.

Mr. Elmer Green in a strong, earnest oration, criticized Aaron Burr and showed the strong character and splendid unselfishness of the man. Mr. Green gave character and definition to the best orations of the evening.

"Our First Great Foreigner," was the oration of Mr. H. H. Smith and from first to last Mr. Smith showed great appreciation of his subject as well as deep thought. Mr. Smith is an unusually earnest and sincere speaker, and held his audience.

Mr. Orr, the last speaker, spoke an "Alexander the Great," and gave a very interesting oration. He mentioned views of present day political parties in regard to Hamilton and compared them with those of Hamilton's own time. While waiting for the decision of the judges, two scenes from "Twelfth Night" were given by members of Miss Jepson's Shakespeare class. The scenes were bright and entertaining, and were done very well. Miss Winter interpreted Viola charmingly, and Miss Allis made a very good Olivia.

Miss Kier was applauded by her clever interpretation of the overbearing Malvolio, and Miss Brodersen and Miss Hall took the parts of Maria and the clown. Those scenes made a good contrast to the rest of the program. The decision of the judges was as follows: First place, Mr. H. H. Smith. Second place, Mr. Frazer.

DR. EASTMAN ADDRESSES

Will be Head of German Department in Amherst Next Year.

Dr. Clarence W. Eastman has resigned his position as assistant professor of German, to take effect at the close of the present year. He will go from here to Amherst, where he will be practically at the head of the German department.

In the eight years of his stay at Iowa Dr. Eastman has come to occupy a large place in the life of the University. Aside from his highly efficient instructional work, his influence has been among the strongest factors in the upbuilding of athletics here. In his departures the school loses the loss of one of the strongest and most trustworthy faculty members.

Mr. Bradie of Waverly, Iowa, is visiting at the Tau Delta House.

Hawkeyes Had Their Satchel Eyes--Fret Failed to Prove the Ter¬r ©tor Reported.

The Hawkeyes added another victory to their hitherto clean record in the state championship, yesterday afternoon, by trimming the Cornell Lions 7-0. The victory, as expected, was a beauty, but few innings were played.

For six innings from the third to the ninth, Mr. Veronios and the Hawkeye battery were unbothered. In the tenth, two hits were allowed and no scores tallied.

Pitcher Fret, however, the much advertised, the much feared, failed to come up to expectations. Although he struck out seven Iowa toes to Fret's three, it was gotten to for ten hits, three of them two baggers in eight innings. He also gave three passes to the one lone gift of Dulcy.

At exactly 3:30 p.m., Coach Davis sent out the first of his Purple wonders to the plate and Pitcher Dulcy gave this batman, McNamee the only pass he handled out. Roseberry was out beating third strike and Davendoff hit to center beating third strike and Deve-noff hit to center field where Johnson was waiting to snare it. Conner hit safely over short fence, but Cole was out to Dulcy to M. Kelley.

In the first inning all of Cornell's scoring was done. Pember-tow was out W. Kelley to M. Kelley. Bird hit safely into right field. Beadle was safe at first on an error by Wilson. A hit by Frei and an error by Kelley let Bird and Beadle cross the plate. McNamee was safe at first and Roseberry was out at first base to M. Kelley.

In the second inning all of Cornell's scoring was done. Pember-ton was out W. Kelley to M. Kelley. Bird hit safely into right field. Beadle was safe at first on an error by Wilson. A hit by Frei and an error by Kelley let Bird and Beadle cross the plate. McNamee was safe at first and Roseberry was out at first base to M. Kelley.

Iowa was not to be outdone in her half of the second inning and went after for Fair and fell for four hits and two errors netting the Hawkeyes four scores. Kent the first up, fainted a pretty hit but was sent forced out by Miller at first. Kirk hit for two bases into left field scoring Miller. Mike Kelley swatted a long one into center field scoring Turk and came in on a two-base hit by Johnson. Poor failed Deiley and Corks stole third but was caught napping on third base. McNamee muffed the ball and Lord and Deiley scored. Wilson struck out.

For the next six innings, the Cor-nellies were both "hitless and acrobatic wonders," as one caller first base. The Hawkeyes.
A bird in the hand beats two pairs. Pa was kicking about some mining stock a friend persuaded him to buy. It turned out to be a lobster stock and now Pa says a gold mine is a lobster i.e. the lobster is the gold mine and the lobster holds the sack. I guess as long as gold mining with a pen and a little fancy paper is such a profitable industry, a lot of fellows who write a pretty fair hand won’t see any good reason of swinging a pick. They will pass the pick over to the fellow who inverts and starts a new prospectus. There is one thing about buying goods at this store—there is no possible chance for you to get any lobster stock here. Take it in serges. The mills are running night and day, trying to make enough blue and gray serges to supply the demand, but they can’t do it. As a result of this this summer are going up all the time and the serge suit we used to sell you for $15.00 a suit, it now is up to $20.00 a suit, if it’s a fast dye and all wool. What do we do? Sell you a cheap grade and tell you it’s as good as you ever bought, or do we tell you that cheerful fable about having laid in a supply last season for the upward movement set in? That wouldn’t be this season’s styles; would it? No, we have no lobster talk to hand to anyone. We tell you frankly anything we think you are entitled to know about the market or our methods of buying and selling. We are forced to sell these suits on a smaller margin of profit, preferring to do this rather than cheaper the quality standard, but we don’t talk about this because we guarantee everything that leaves this store.

Iowa loses to Cornell—Collins
Becomes State Intercollegiate Champion.

The Iowa State Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament was held at Mount Vernon yesterday and resulted in Coe’s winning the state championship in both singles and doubles.

The contest was started in the morning while the courts were very muddy, and the playing was necessarily very slow. In the preliminary doubles, Iowa’s team, Oliver and Sieg, lost to Hiller and Rue of Cornell, and Coe’s town, Luscombe and Ferguson, won from the Luther team.

Coe won in the finals very handily from Cornell, by three straight sets—6:0; 6:1; 6:3.

In the final singles Luscombe of Coe won, giving him the coveted place of state inter-collegiate champion, and his school a double victory.

FRAT BASEBALL.

Sigma Nu Put It Over the Phi Pies yesterdiy.

In a game replete with many errors on the part of the Phi Pies, Sigma Nu sounded out a victory, which helps them materially in their race toward the Pan Hellenic pennant.

The hits were about evenly divided. The Sigma Nu took advantage of every break on the part of their opponents, and gathered in twelve runs, while the Phi Pies were only able to garner in three.

Sigma Nu struck out eight men, while Smith was hit freely at opportune times. Sigma Nu must defeat the Tui Deltis and Sigma Chi, and then have a final tussle with the Phi Deltis in order to bring home the coveted trophy.
