COMMENCEMENT THIS MORNING

EARLY FOUR HUNDRED TO BE GRADUATED.

Army ROTC Beautifully Decorated For the Occasion. Advanced and Honorary Degrees to be Conferred.

About 2500 tickets have been issued for the commencement exercises proper, which will begin at noon 0'clock this morning. The issue of tickets has practically covered the entire seating capacity of the big hall, but there will be standing room which will be utilized after the doors are thrown open to the general public. The decorations of the room are extremely beautiful. Old gold and white hanging has been draped across and about a hanging screen in the center as to conceal the roof entirely. About the railing of the balcony there is more drapery executed in the same color scheme, and at various points there are medallions bearing the names of all the presidents of the University.

After the procession enters the room, there will be music while the audience stands; the band will play "The Star Spangled Banner." The invocation will be said by Rev. W. D. Williams, D.D. The principal address, by Secretary Tait, will follow the invocation immediately. At the close of the address there will be music, then the announcement of prizes and honors will be made. The conferring of degrees comes next, followed by the administration of oaths to the law graduates. The last exercises are the conferring of advanced degrees and honorary degrees.

THE ALUMNI DINNER

The First Event to take Place in the New Science Building.

The alumni dinner, which is ordinarily held on Alumni Day, was changed to the afternoon of commencement day proper this year on account of the anniversary exercises. It will be held in the newly finished reading room, in the Hall of Natural Science. President Geo. F. Henry, L 76, will preside as toastmaster. The program of toasts reads as though it would be very interesting. Retrospects—Dean Currier. Expectations—Hugh S. Large. Respects—Emerson Hough, L 60. Prospects—President MacLean Intercepts—Gov. Carpenter. Circumspets—Secretary Tait.

SIXTY YEARS OF THE PAST

HISTORIC ADDRESS BY JUSTICE DEEMER.

Eight Thousand Sons and Daughters of Old Gold State in Celebrating His Grace of S.U.U.

Yesterday was a day of historic interest at the University of Iowa. The sixtieth anniversary of the founding of the University was celebrated with fitting ceremonies. At half past three 0'clock the University band gave a concert in the Armory which lasted for one hour. During this time the building was being filed to its utmost with friends and old students of the university.

SECRETARY TAIT.

Upon the arrival of the anniversary procession consisting of the faculties, speakers, graduates and alumni of the institution, the audience joined in the song Old Gold. Then President MacLean introduced Governor A. B. Cummins as the presiding officer of the day. Justice H. E. Deemer gave the anniversary address commemorating the founding of the University on February 25, 1847. In his address Justice Deemer presented vividly the history of the University as it found its beginning in the acts of the legislature during the times of our fathers. The story of the growth of the university was touched through the administration of the following presidents of the school.

A. Dean.1875-1859
Shas Totten—1862
Olive M. Spencer—1862-1867
Nathan P. Leonardi—1867-1868

Joseph L. Packard—1878-1887
Charles A. Schaffer—1877-1898
Amos N. Currier—1898-1899
George E. McClain—1899

As to the future of the University Justice Deemer was full of hope. He said "Progress is the order of the day." A greeting from the faculties was presented by Professor Calvin who

CELEBRATION OF CURRIER FORTIETH

SPECIAL EXERCISES HELD LAST EVENING

Frolics, Festivities and Alumni Colle Grossmanship of Dean Currier's Forty Years of Service—Memorial Preparations.

The "Currier Fortieth" Celebrations took place last evening at the University Armory. Men in all the ways of life, from all parts of the country, gathered at that time to celebrate the forty years of faithful service of Iowa's honored Dean.

The speakers on the program emphasized the love and reverence which have always been felt towards Dean Currier and the lasting debt which Iowa owes to this man, whose life more than that of any other has been found up with the development of the University. Dean Currier's service stretches over a period of years which has determined the success or failure of Iowa University and his work and influence must ever be inseparably connected with the history of the institution.

A memorial was presented to the Dean, at the close of the principal address, consisting of a bound series of the Iowa Daily Times letters. These letters were personal notes written to Dean Currier by representative members of all classes which have graduated during his years of service.

The Dean responded to this presentation, thanking his friends for their interest in his behalf and showing manifestly his appreciation of the wishes and sentiments expressed.
