COMMENCEMENT THIS MORNING

NEARLY FOUR HUNDRED TO BE GRADUATED.

Armory Beautifully Decorated For the Occasion.—Advanced and Honorary Degrees to be Conferred.

About 2050 tickets have been issued for the commencement exercises proper, which will begin at nine o'clock this morning. This issue of tickets has practically covered the entire seating capacity of the big room, but of course there will be standing room which will be utilized after the doors are thrown open to the general public. The decorations of the room are extremely beautiful. Old gold and white bunting has been draped across and about a hanging screen in the center so as to conceal the roof entirely. About the railing of the balcony there is more drapery executed in the same color scheme, and at various points there are medallions bearing the names of all the presidents of the University.

After the procession enters the room, there will be music while the audience stands; the band will play "The Star Spangled Banner". The invocation will be said by Rev. W. D. Williams, D.D. The principal address, by Secretary Taft, will follow the invocation immediately. At the close of the address there will be music, then the announcement of prizes and honors then the award of certificates to nurses. The conferring of first degrees comes next, followed by the administration of oaths to the law graduates. The last exercises are the conferring of advanced degrees and honorary degrees.

THE ALUMNI DINNER

The First Event to take Place in the New Science Building.

The alumni dinner, which is ordinarily held on Alumni Day was changed to the afternoon of commencement day proper this year on account of the anniversary exercises. It will be held in the newly finished reading room, in the Hall of Natural Science. President Geo. F. Henry, L '76, will preside as toastmaster. The program of toasts reads as though it would be very interesting.

THE ALUMNI BUSINESS MEETING.

Old Grads Assembled Yesterday Afternoon and Elected Officers
For the Association.

At two o'clock yesterday the alumni met in the assembly room of Liberal Arts, and transacted the business of the association. The principal matter was the election of officers. The list chosen is as follows: Dr. J. W. Conley, of Omaha, president; Wm. Osmond, of Great Bend, Kans., first vice-president; Miss Lucy Evans, of Corydon, second vice-president; W. O. Finkbine of Des Moines and Euclid Sanders of Iowa City, members of the bureaus of information; W. H. Bremer, athletic representative; Mrs. Kate B. Rogers, Professor Pum and Professor Call of Iowa City, committee on statistics; Judge Byington, W. D. Cannon and H. G. Walker, of Iowa City, on the Executive committee. Professor Magowan treasurer, and S. K. Stevenson, secretary.

Reports were made by various officers and committees. Dean Currier was made chairman of a committee on portraits.

THE BETA REUNION.

Local Chapter Honored by Visit from National President.—
Supper and Dancing.

The Beta Theta Pi fraternity made merry at the country club last evening. The occasion was their reunion, made especially distinctive by a visit from their national president, Mr. W. A. Hamilton, who is practicing attorney in Chicago. There was a supper, attended by about forty guests, including many alumni, and after the supper the evening was passed with music and dancing.

The 1907 law class has elected Mr. S. K. Stevenson permanent secretary. Mr. Stevenson asks that the men of the class send him their new addresses as soon as they locate, so that a roster of the class may be prepared.

SIXTY YEARS OF THE PAST

HISTORIC ADDRESS BY JUSTICE DEEMER.

Eight Thousand Sons and Daughters of Old Gold Unite in Celebrating the Glory of S.U.I.

Yesterday was a day of historic interest at the University of Iowa. The sixtieth anniversary of the founding of the University was celebrated with fitting ceremonies.

At half past three o'clock the University band gave a concert in the Armory which lasted for one hour. During this time the building was being filled to its utmost with friends and old students of the university.

Governor Cummins Presides

Upon the arrival of the anniversary procession consisting of the faculties, speakers, graduates and alumni of the institution, the audience joined in the song Old Gold. Then President MacLean introduced Governor A. B. Cummins as the presiding officer of the day.

Justice H. E. Deemer gave the anniversary address commemoration of the founding of the University on February 25, 1847. In his address Justice Deemer presented vividly the history of the University as it found its beginning in the acts of the legislature during the times of our fathers.

The story of the growth of the university was traced through the administration of the following presidents of the school.

Amos Dean, —1855-1859
Silas Totten, —1862
Olive M. Spencer, —1862-1867
Nathan P. Leonard, —1867-1868 and 1870-1871.
James Black, —1868-1871.
George Thatcher, —1871-1877
Christian W. Slagel, —1877-1878
Josiah L. Packard, —1878-1887
Charles A. Schaffer, —1187-1898
Amos N. Currier, —1898-189
George E. McClain, —189

As to the future of the University Judge Deemer was full of hope. He said "Progression is the order of the day."

A greeting from the faculties was presented by Professor Calvin who

CELEBRATION OF CURRIER FORTIETH

SPECIAL EXERCISES HELD LAST EVENING

Friends, Faculty and Alumni Celebrate Dean Currier's Forty of Service—Memorial Presented.

The "Currier Fortieth" Celebration occurred last evening at the University Armory. Men in all the ways of life, from all parts of the country, gathered at that time to celebrate the forty years of faithful service of Iowa's honored Dean.

The speakers on the program emphasized the love and reverence which have always been felt towards Dean Currier and the lasting debt which Iowa owes to this man, whose life more than that of any other has been bound up with the development of the University. Dean Currier's service stretches over a period of years which has determined the success or failure of Iowa University and his work and influence must ever be inseparably connected with the history of the institution.

A memorial was presented to the Dean, at the close of the principal address, consisting of a bound series of class letters. These letters were personal notes written to Dean Currier by representative members of all classes which have graduated during his years of service.

The Dean responded to this presentation, thanking his friends for their interest in his behalf and showing manifestly his appreciation of the friendly wishes and sentiments expressed.

The following is the program:

YALE REUNION TONIGHT
Wearers of the Blue Will Banquet at the Burkley.—Sec. Taft on the Program.

A state reunion of Yale students and alumni is one of the many festivities which will take place this evening. It is to be in the form of a banquet at the Burkley, beginning at eight o'clock. About forty guests are expected. Yale men from various parts of the state are coming. The attraction in particular is the fact that Secretary Taft, who is a Yale man himself, will be present and respond to a toast.

WISE TALKS BY THE OFFICE BOY.

There's been an awful lot of men in the store lately picking out white gloves and white ties and trying on dress suits and Tuxedos. I think there must be something going on this week, or maybe it's only a wedding. Little early for June brides, but don't you know it doesn't cost any more to get the best in high class fixin's than to buy the doubtful kind if you trade at this store. We sell a good pair of white kid gloves for $1.50. You can buy a high-class French opera hat for $8 here. We sell Cluett Full Dress shirts for a wee bunch of bills. We carry all the correct shapes in dress collars, full dress white vests (a splendid assortment), all the correct capers in cuff links, shirt studs, white ties, black silk and lisle hose, white silk suspenders and all the accessories down to your feet. And there's no need of your feeling stuffy or uncomfortable in evening dress if you let us fit you. Lots of men have found collar comfort in quarter sizes. Perhaps you are one of them. It all depends upon your get-up. If it fits you'll feel fit, and if you let us dress you you'll be correct as to style. There's no doubt whatever about that.

Portrait of Professor MacBride presented by W. F. Mosier in behalf of the class of '86.

The Debate Question.

The negotiations among the schools composing the Quintangular League looking toward the choice of a question for next year's debates, resulted in a tie. The matter was then submitted to resident Hadley of Yale University, who replied promptly and settled the matter by the choice of the following questions: Resolved That the Federal Government should have exclusive control of all transportation companies doing interstate business. Debaters who expect to do preparatory work this summer will take notice.

There were at least seven class reunions yesterday. They began in the early morning, and some of them lasted most of the day. The youngest of the alumni, the class of '06, gave a breakfast at the Burkley, and thirty-three of the class were present. The roll was called, and each member responded with an account of what he or she had been doing, and would do next year. The class of '05 went up the river in the power launch, and enjoyed breakfast at Puritan Landing. On their return to the campus they assembled on the front steps of the Liberal Arts and sang class songs, an accomplishment in which they were always especially gifted. The class of '97 went up the river on a picnic excursion also. The class of '02 had their breakfast at the Burkley, with a toast master and all the trimmings of a more formal occasion. At the same time the '87 people gathered

THE REGENTS' MEETING.

No Action Taken as Yet on Debating Matter. Appointments and Promotions.

The Board of Regents were in session a good part of the day yesterday. The committee of the Forensic League waited upon the Regentste and represented the wishes of the students in regard to the debatingcoach. Up to our time of publication no action had been taken in the matter. Large number of appointments and promotions were made, but the list of these is too extended for our space. The entrance requirements in the college of medicine were advanced. Plans were made for the extension of the engineering building and resolutions of respect were passed in honor of Dean Currier.

Governor Albert Baird Cummins and his wife will lead the grand march at the Senior Hop this evening in the University Armory. Governor Cummins arrived yesterday afternoon and as Mrs. Cummins had already accepted the invitation of the Senior Hop committee to act as a patroness it was decided to ask the chief executive to head the grand march.

For Young Men

A blue serge, black thibet or black unfinished worsted suit for commencement day will fully satisfy the desires of the young man who is to receive his diploma on that occasion. Worn, for instance, with a plain white vest or even the vest to match the coat, it is in the very best taste. After commencement, it is appropriate day or evening, at home or abroad—in town or out of it—anywhere, in fact—

Our display of these garments is voluminous. Each suit is beautifully made on modified or extreme college styles—lapels rather long and low—collar fitting high—shoulders broad—skirt long and flared at the sides—vented or ventless, as you like. You will find the standard $18 values in our in our splendid line at $15.

Others, all based in price on our seven-store buying power, range from $10 up to $25.

Graduation Shirts, plain or pleated bosoms in white, 50c to $1.50.

Graduation Neckwear, effective black and white silks, 25c to 75c.

Graduation Hosiery, black and fancy effects, 15c to 50c. Sole agents for Knox Hats, $5 and "Beacon Special" Hats, $3.

Suit Cases, an extra heavy brass mounted, sole leather case, the value will surprise you, at $5.
