Made to Measure—Satisfaction Guaranteed With Every Suit

Your new Fall clothes are ready for you now in our store and we are going to hold a special opening reception to introduce you to them. You're invited; and when you come you'll meet a lot of the finest clothes you ever saw. We feel that our good friends and our good clothes ought to know each other better.

These are Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes; and you can put it down as a fact that better clothes, more stylish, more perfectly tailored, never came from the hand of a tailor.

The new suits are in a number of very smart models, and the patterns are varied enough to suit every taste—greys, browns, tans, in stripes, plaids and checks.

Other departments are full also of fine seasonable goods; hats on the latest blocks; shirts and neckwear like a regular flower-garden of color and rich design.

Our Tailoring Department contains the Largest Assortment of American and Imported Woolens Ever Displayed in the Vicinity.

IOWA CITY, IOWA
Pharmacy Class of '07 Now in Business

Where They Are Working and the Firms by Which They Are Employed

Scattered over Iowa, Colorado and New York, the members of the 1907 class of Pharmacy are now fairly employed pursuing their chosen line of work. In the following list most of the firms employing last year's graduates are given.

Mrs. Hamit Wood's Brick is the proprietor of a notorial brick, Iowa, and Frank B. Gannaway is also in the northern part of the state, having a clerkship at Northfield, Iowa.

The manager of the Siegmond Pharmacy at Denver, Colo., is Frank R. Gibson. At Fort Dodge, Ollie G. Gourley has another shop where he has the Beck Drug company.

In Colorado Earl F. Grammer, a cleaning business, and George H. Williams Thompson is in Denver. Clarence W. Ware is located at Denver, Colo., and Arthur B. Gray, another member of the class has been elected an assistant in the Pharmacy laboratory for the coming year.

In Illinois, J. L. Kllum, Tipton, Ia., and Rev. E. Rogers is filling the position of clerks. A. B. Graham is located in Rock Island, Ia., and E. O. Nuss has opened a restaurant in Colfax, Ia., until fall.

The North Dakota representative is Herbert W. Kahl, a clerk in the Kahlenberger Drug Store, Bismarck. He is with the Jack Pharmacy at Kenmare, N. Dak. H. E. Heidt, another member of the class has been elected an assistant in the Pharmacy laboratory for the coming year.

J. A. Lenihan is clerking for J. L. Kllam, Tipton, Iowa, and Or. L. Rogers is filling the position of clerks. A. B. Graham is located in Rock Island, Ia., and E. O. Nuss has opened a restaurant in Colfax, Ia., until fall.

Will Probably Be Inflated To Day and Placed in Gym

Owing to the fact that the abolishment of the bands have been so busy starting the football squads to work and in making physical examinations of the new men that the push ball was not taken from the Liberal Arts fire proof vaults Monday and placed in the gymnasium on exhibition but it is probable that today the big ball will be handed back to the yard view of the floor of the Armory.

Philips to Meet

At the important meeting of the Phi Kappa Psi social society to be held to night at 7 o'clock the installation of the officers will take place.

Don't wait for our solicitors to visit you. Call the members and ask for your share of the benefit.
