McQuilen and Oliver win from Harwood and Gordon in the Double Finals

The most successful fall tennis tournament held here in several years was brought to a close yesterday by the victory of Oliver and McQuilen in the doubles. The Harwood and Gordon tournament was characterized by close fought matches and when the smoke that comes from the success of the tournament is due to the generous prizes offered by the local merchants. In the match yesterday McQuilen and Oliver showed their class by easily defeating their opponents after a short time they would draw them out of position and win the point. The winning combination throughout the fall has played the greatest tennis. His forehand and backhand were accurate and strong.

The prizes are as follows: The prize cups donated by Sam T. Morrison and Keith & McChesney were awarded to Oliver and Hasper. The sweaters were given by Mrs. Morgan and Miss & Mrs. McQuilen. The watch from the University bookstore to Harwood and Gordon, and the tennis shoes from Stewart & Son to McQuilen as runner-up in the singles championship.

Medice Get Drinking Fountain--New Appointments and Other Routine Business

The Board of Regents and the Executive and Building Consultants were in session here yesterday and Monday. The business of the regents was largely of a routine nature, though of considerable moment. There were eight members of the Board present, including Governor Cummins.

Neither the Hall of Natural Science nor the Hospital wing will be completed by the end of the year. The matter of the President's house was considered and the building committee recommended the erection of the house, keeping the entire cost within the limits named, of $10,000. This will necessitate some slight changes in the plans as they are at present.

The Executive Committee granted a petition of a large number of medical students for a drinking fountain in the north corridor of the amphitheatre of the University Hospital. The hospital corridors were also discussed.

Practice Last Evening Was Stiff Work Out

The Regional and Executive Board of the basketball team is planning to give a play through the fall, while the other members of the board will try to get so far in their studies as to be able to attend the game in reserve of seats for the sum of 50 cents to be paid in advance. The game is scheduled for November 15th.
