BIG BASEBALL MEETING PLANNED

Will be Held Friday Night at 8:30
President Van Voorhis to Speak—Smith to Preside

Exhaustive preparations are being made for a successful man meeting this evening at 8:30. The band will be there to help in the songs.

Professor A. G. Smith of the athletic board will preside. Among other good speakers on the program, Judge M. J. Waltos of Iowa City, will address the meeting.

Some of the presidents of various American colleges who will be here at that date will also speak. Probably President C. R. Van Voorhis of Wisconsin University will be prevailed upon to say a few words in behalf of Wisconsin’s foot ball team and in behalf of the Big Six conference.

MANY HALLOWEEN PARTIES SCHEDULED

Profession of Social Events Come This Week

There will be a great number of Halloween parties this week. The Sophomore class will give a party Saturday on the tennis courts and the Dalvenites will give their party in the old office building Saturday evening. The Illinois Kappa Sigma will give a party Saturday on the river.

Dr. and Mrs. Talbott will entertain Thursday, the girls at the shaffer house on N. Barbour., and Dr. and Mrs. Otis will give a small party at their home on San Mill St., and on Friday in the evening at the Phi Thetas and Delta Tau Delta fraternity house.

Many other parties will be given and many are planned for this week.

FIRST REHEARSAL OF THE VESPER CHOIR

Will be Held This Evening in L. A. Assembly Hall

The first rehearsal of the University Vesper Choir will be held this evening at 7 o’clock in the L. A. Assembly Hall. This organization will number not more than 35 people, entrance to be by invitation.

Membership in the Vesper Choir will be the highest musical privilege conferred and it is hoped that this organization may not only take up the study of anthems and other works in the “smaller forms” but also extend its members more general training.

An Easier Corrected

Saturday evening the local doilies doused much space in a successful effort to raise funds and resulting injuries caused by the Cross Country Club on Friday afternoon. The cross country Club did not participate in a run Friday evening.

PLAY IS CHOSEN

BY DRAMATIC CLUB

"At Cloth Corners" Will be Presented Soon

The University Dramatic Club have decided to present "At Cloth Corners" for their fall play.

Numerous plays have been read and discussed, and this one has been selected and the cast has been improved after much careful deliberation.

Many people are familiar with the picturesque and attractive scenes which was brought out by Ade-

Adelaide Turner and which she has presented with great success for several years.

The cast of the play will be announced in a few days and rehearsals begin tomorrow morning.

The Dramatic Club have always put a high class of plays and this one is up to their usual standard in every way and will undoubtedly be received with great enthusi-
