There was practically no scrimmage, but all the men are expected out at Camp Randall tonight, when a lively scrimmage with the freshmen is promised. The event was marked by much good spirit and will undoubtedly be made an annual feature by the undergraduate committee at Pennsylvania.

The Hall of Honor of the Oregon Agricultural College were making Robert Oph, a fresh man, and three students on Monday, and were in the act of giving him a ducking in the campus fountain when he dived into a very deep and severely cut two of the vandals. At a meeting of the senior class of Yale University, held Monday night a decided stand against the “honor” system was made for the adoption of the following resolutions: “First, that we place ourselves above all identical. Honesty and gentlemanly conduct in class room and extracurricular. We believe a simple honor system, based on the ideas of the “honor of the class and the lack of any powers to decide the consequences which may arise. Second, we do not wish to undertake the responsibility of detecting, reporting or punishing dishonestly which may occur, because we believe that the student body, with no experience in such matters, is able to perform such a duty to the benefit of the university. Third, that we believe that such supervision as is necessary to prevent dishonesty can be more conveniently and thoroughly performed by the faculty than by the student body for a student committee, although such as it is supposed to be the time of the days in the declarations and examinations is entirely occupied in doing the work thereof.”

STATE SANITARIUM NEARLY COMPLETED

Tuberculosis Patients Will Soon Have a Home

The Work of the Hospital Will Be Closely Connected With The College of Medicine

The Iowa State Sanitarium for treating tuberculosis patients is now rapidly nearing completion and will be ready for occupation about December 15. This hospital is located four and a half miles above Iowa City on the interurban railway.

The situation of the sanitarium presents all the desirable features necessary for an institution of this kind. It has an elevation over one thousand feet above the sea level, excellent drainage with land sloping to the south and west, good water supply and is protected on the north and west by a grove of trees. Ideal conditions are offered for outdoor treatment. It’s closeness to the interurban offers excellent facilities for transportation, electric light and power.

The main or administration building is of brick and will contain a large entertainment hall besides offices, examination rooms and living apartments for physicians and nurses in charge. Patients will be housed in stack for tuberculosis patients. These stacks are set high off the ground with roofs sloping towards the north and west and south and east sides are constructed of glass.

On the latter two sides these buildings will permit of being opened so that the occupants will be protected yet practically out of doors.

Patients Only Free from Iowa

Patients from the state of Iowa only and just those in the first stages of tuberculosis will be accepted. They will abide strict regulations at the sanitarium and will be subject to strict rules of the institution. This will prevent any possibility of contamination to local residences.

The work of this institution will be very closely connected with the work of the medical college in the University. It was on account of utilizing the University laboratories and clinical departments that the state board of control was induced to locate same near Iowa City. Opportunity will be given to advanced medical students for studying the methods of such undertaking. The knowledge will be of a direct benefit to them in practicing medicine.

New superintendent appointed

Dr. E. H. Kirsch of Oil City, Pa., has been elected superintendent of this state sanitarium by the state board of control. He is expected to arrive in the state about Nov. 1 and will take charge of the work at once.

Though Dr. Kirsch is but 27 years old, he has had wide experience in connection with institutions of this character. He graduated at the Jefferson Medical college in 1892 carrying off the highest honors in his class. After practicing his profession at Oil City a few months he established and became superintendent of Grand View Sanitarium for the study and treatment of tuberculosis. In March, 1907, he went to Mexico where he has since devoted himself to the study of that disease.

Superintendence of this institution pays $450 and living.

Will be a success

In regard to the success of similar institutions Dr. Herring says: “This is the only possible treatment for tuberculosis and reports from different sanitariums are very gratifying. They are now located in all climates. Furthermore, the education which patients receive in taking care of themselves will be valuable knowledge to diffuse when a cure is effected and they leave the sanitarium.”
