Basketball League To Be Organized
Coach Schroeder Inaugurates New System

Different Colleges of University Will Have Teams in Organizations—Presidents Meet

A new movement to enlarge the field of competitive athletics is being inaugurated by Coach Schroeder of the Variety team, in an endeavor to make the Iowa a league between the several colleges of the University. If the new arrangement is carried out it will bring a large number of students into active participation. The object of such a league is threefold; it would give more men the advantages of the training for competitive athletics; it would create a friendly rivalry between colleges and would develop a larger and better organization for the Yarba.

In an attempt to inaugurate the new league there will be a meeting at 4:15 this afternoon at the Armory, which will be attended by Physical Director Schroeder and the class presidents of the University. The plan, as it will be presented by Mr. Schroeder, is that each college will be represented by a team to compete for the championship of the University in the various games, each of which will be abolished.

The followers in basketball in the University are much interested in the plans, and it is hoped that the class presidents will proceed at once to the formation of a permanent organization. The league, as planned, will comprise the Colleges of Liberal Arts, Applied Science, Law, Medicine, Dentistry and Pharmacy.

A glance into the Army armory at any afternoon will furnish convincing evidence that there is more than enough material to form teams of competition for the various colleges of the University and that the final teams would put up a spirited contest. Nothing can as yet be determined as to the schedule of games per season. Captain Backer, the Variety team, yesterday expressed himself in favor of the proposal and predicted that its successful fulfillment would mean a great future for basketball in the University, not only as a game but as a training material for successful teams but bearing the greatest support.

PATTEN'S TALKS ON ACCOUNTANCY

Leading the Accounting Section of the Inter-Society Debates is a new program. This year's debates are under a new system. Before the debates were divided by class debates but this year the different societies will have competing teams. A committee from the various societies will meet Saturday morning to make preparations. A large group of students will be present and the debate will be opened by retardation stating the things that make one team a good public official and to bring forth the points of view that is needed in business and public affairs is not good men but good service. Speaking of the report of the third team, they could not show the reports of the condition of our financial affairs and of our homes. Continuing, he pointed out the vast and striking difference of the way the big businesses concern and public affairs are run. If a man is doing his best work he would know how to manage and if he does not make regular reports he can not know. Without the publishing of such reports it is impossible to know whether or not they are doing the right thing. When people have no knowledge of what their public officials are doing with their money they will consult the reports for the same purpose.

The principal also need such knowledge to awaken dormant interest in public affairs. What the public in effect should demand is the learning of men in charge of public affairs to know their own finances and of our own household. be drugged the Illinois game took place. No account of the touchdowns was kept but the Varsity with Murphy at left half rapped through the six-feet years men with a ferocious and ginger which augurs well for the game. The famous Varsity was kept out of the lineup because of his sore ankle.

The Varsity backfield old great work and the line was a stone-wall against the assaults of the backs. During the scrimmage quarterback Duggs of the freshmen eleven was hit on the head and momentarily down so that he could not call signals. He was removed from the game and recovered soon after.

All the regulars are in good shape ready to put up the light of their lives if necessary to take the Varsity out of the strong Havana eleven.
