Recent Transcript Prepares Table of Statistics on College Attendance in the U. S.

The University of Iowa is in a third position in increases in number of students enrolling to the Boston Evening Transcript for November. Peru, Ill., which Frank H. Tracy published in a previous statement, has comments with reference to the attendance of the colleges of Peru and of Peru, Ill., in the United States. He says that enrollment is not the main point with which we are concerned. He says, "There is a low in the percentage and this percentage is not as strong as it was, and the percentage is lower in the percentage. But this is not the main point with which we are concerned. There are two small schools which show largest increase. They are Trinity College, with a total of 213 students and Georgia State College, with a total attendance of 127.

The three great universities with the highest per cent increase are the following:

- Harvard University, with a per cent increase of 46
- Massachusetts Institute of Technology, with a per cent increase of 43
- University of Chicago, with a per cent increase of 40

A notice of the death of William H. Ridgway of Winfield, Ia., has been reported last week.

The death of William H. Ridgway of Winfield, Ia., has been reported last week. He will be remembered by many who were here in 1904 as a member of the graduating class of the college of law that year and as one of the most prominent in that class. As a member of the Harvard Law Society, he represented them on one of their winning teams in debate with the Forum, and was at the same time secretary of that society. Since his graduation he has been a prominent lawyer in Henry county, practicing in Winfield.

The debate referred to was between the young men of the college of law of the University of Iowa in May, 1903, on the resolution, "That the people of rail roads should be prohibited." He, too, was a member of the same debate.

The team should play such a force and yet come out of the contest with not a single injury, even a crack in the nose. Professor Ford to Address Baconian

When I was with Chicago, the two hundred and fifty pounds I have ever witnessed before in my con­nection with big University events. Chairman Fowler announced the following sub-committees:

The University authorities have decided to hold, University Vesper Services this quarter. These services have been inaugurated to meet a popular demand, and in order to augment the moral and religious influence of the University. The Student Union of Iowa is not a sectarian school; it is, and essentially should be, religious and moral institution. It is planned to hold these Sunday afternoon services monthly intervals.

The first of these services, was held a week ago last Sunday, and the attendance was not what was expected, or what it should have been. Perhaps this was due to the fact that some were not aware of the exact nature of the service. These Vesper Services are essentially University services, and both faculty and students are cordially invited to attend. Last Sunday Chancellor Strong of the University of Kansas delivered a very powerful address. The music was also a feature of the service.

It is planned to have every service as interesting as the first. There will always be good music and men of ability and wide reputation will give the addresses. In fact the student who does not attend, misses something valuable. We hope that you will come and listen to the music which is to be heard tonight. The Auditorium is overinflated.

The value of these services is unquestionable. It brings people together in a way that no other meeting can. Besides, they enable us to hear exceptional talent along moral and religious lines and to receive some lasting inspiration.

That the officials of Iowa City and other municipalities through the state should be taught to use the safest of the prevention of infectious diseases, chief of which is tuberculosis, transmission through milk to human beings, is the opinion of Dr. Henry Albert, Director of the State Board of Public Health. In an article on Bacillosis and Milk in the October number of the Iowa Health Bulletin he discusses at some length the danger of such disease transmitted and the manner in which it may be checked. In conclusion, Dr. Albert asks that the Iowa City Board of Health set up the proposition to pasteurize milk in order to protect the milk supply of the public.
