INTERSTATE DEBATERS OBTAINS ASSISTANCE

E. H. McCoy, Law '04, to Be Here Tomorrow

Committee of Faculty Meet with the Debaters and Offer Valuable Suggestions

E. H. McCoy, Law '04, will be here Friday to assist the interstate debaters. Mr. McCoy was a member of the debating team which argued the question of Protective and Revenue Tariff with Wisconsin in 1903. Iowa had the unpopular end, namely that of Revenue Tariff. At present, Mr. McCoy is located in Waterloo and enjoying a lucrative practice.

This is the first effort of the Forensic league in bringing back former debaters to assist the men who are at present endeavoring to keep up Old Gold's high standard in forensic work. It is their hope to make graduate coaches a permanent feature in the preparation of contestants and perpetuating the fine method of conducting debates which has been in vogue here under auspices largely of the Zetagathian and Irving societies assisted by the Department of Public Speaking.

A committee consisting of Professors H. E. Gordon, E. H. Wilcox, L. H. Haney, F. E. Horack and Messrs. M. L. Ferson and Coach Randall met with the debaters Tuesday afternoon and entered into a thorough discussion of the briefs of the two interstate teams. Many valuable suggestions were received by the teams as a result. Another conference will be held as soon as debaters have speeches outlined and prepared to engage in actual debate.

The debaters are now receiving special training in presentation and voice culture. In order to get them accustomed to speaking in large halls they are receiving their training in the Hall of Natural Science.

ANNUAL CALENDAR WILL BE PUBLISHED

Y. W. C. A. Busy With Its Souvenir for Christmas

A committee of the Y. W. C. A. is at work on the annual calendar. Interesting cuts of the university and several new features have already been decided upon. The calendar will serve as a unique souvenir of the school and will make a suitable Christmas reminder for friends. They will be completed before the holiday vacation.

UNPACKING ANIMAL BIOLOGY EQUIPMENT

Great Activity in the Hall of Natural Science

A large pile of broken boxes on the north campus bears witness to the activity now going on in the Hall of Natural Science. Both the old and new equipment of Animal Biology has been in packing cases for some time and the unpacking is just under fair headway. There is a great amount of this work to be done and it will be some time before it is completed.

Animal Biology

All who desire to inspect the new Laboratories of Animal Biology may come on Saturday evening, November 23, from 6:30 to 9:00 o'clock. Please do not come earlier than the date specified, as the equipment is now being installed.

The laboratories proper occupy the whole of the second floor of the north wing in the new Hall of Natural Science; the lecture and reading rooms fill the west half of the first story; while a room for aquatic animals is in the basement. All of these will be open Saturday, Nov. 23, from 6:30 to 9:00 p. m.

JUNIORS CHALLENGE SOPHOMORE CLASS

Unsigned Communication Sent Soph President

An unsigned challenge for a football game was received by the president of the sophomore class Monday. "The Sophomore class eleven has not been organized for several weeks but the team will play any aggregation from the Junior class," said a member of the class yesterday. "The only restrictions that the sophomores want are that the juniors do not play men who have had Varsity training. The Sophs will take on the Juniors for two fifteen minute halves next Friday at 2:30 p. m. on the conditions named above."

The challenge was as follows:
SOPHOMORES

We, the Junior class of the college of Liberal Arts, hereby challenge you to a football game to be played on Iowa Field on any date you name. We realize that you have been organized for several weeks but still, we cannot forget our victory over you back of the shops about a year ago and are now ready for another battle. Yours,
JUNIORS

PHILOSOPHICAL CLUB HOLDS MEETING

Special Program of Literary and Musical Numbers

The Philosophical Club and the Seminar in Education held a joint meeting last night at the home of Prof. F. E. Bolton. Dr. J. A. T. Williams read a paper on "The Teaching of Patriotism." Mrs. Anna Diller Starbuck and Mrs. Baker rendered some pleasing musical selections.

Sophs, Attention!

The men of the Sophomore class are urgently requested to meet in the L. A. auditorium at 12 o'clock today. Don't fail to be present. PRESIDENT

GREAT AMES MASS MEETING TONIGHT

Iowa Spirit Will Rise High
at Rally

List of Speakers is Definitely Announced for Tonight—Practice
in Rain Last Evening

Included in the list of speakers to address the mass meeting tonight are Walter Davis, Professor L. M. Byers, Professor C. H. Weller, and two members of the Varsity team, Carberry and Seidel. Professor Teeters will preside. The University band will be present to lend assistance to the singing.

This mass meeting, which will begin promptly at 6:45, will be shortened as much as possible in order not to conflict with the Freshmen social which occurs tonight. As Iowa plays on a hostile field Saturday, encouragement of the strongest sort will undoubtedly be given the eleven before it leaves to play this deciding game of the state championship series.

A member of the faculty in commenting on the mass meeting, expressed himself as follows:

"Anyone could see how Iowa spirit has been improved this season by the magnificent rooting done at the Wisconsin and Illinois games, and now when we come to this last and hardest game we should make even greater efforts in this line. The team is playing at Ames. Our rooting section will be out-numbered. Every student who has an interest in the team should come out tonight and lend his support to encouraging the team as much as possible before they leave, and it rests with the rooters who accompany the eleven to do their part on the field."

So small a matter as a rainy afternoon in no wise dampened the ardor of the Varsity, and practice yesterday, although held on the track because of the muddy condition of the field, was as spirited as ever. Connor's injured hand has improved considerably, and will cause him little bother. The full line-up of the team is still undecided, the final decision being reserved until Saturday. If it is a wet field Murphy and Stewart will probably start the game at half and quarter, if the gridiron is in good running condition Knowlton and Bruggerman will play the first half.

The block of tickets on sale here have been largely sold and indications are that 500 Hawkeye rooters will accompany the team.

A report from Ames saying that two Iowa students had been found spying on the Aggie squad is erroneous. William Atchinson

NEW HOSPITAL WING IS ALMOST FINISHED

Heat Has Been Turned Into The New Rooms

With the exception of some marble work which is now being rushed, the new wing of the University hospital is now practically completed. Heat is on in the building and the rooms are rapidly drying. The furniture has been ordered and will soon be here. It is now expected that the building will be ready for use about the last of November.

This new wing of the hospital will be fireproof throughout and of the most modern type. It will add twenty-eight rooms to present hospital facilities.

The entire basement is to be devoted to the eye, ear and nose clinic under charge of Dr. Dean. This department is arranged in a very convenient manner, containing a reception room, treatment and operating room. Altogether it will be one of the most complete and best arranged suites of rooms for this purpose anywhere to be found. It will afford great relief from the present cramped quarters.

In the west wing of the hospital new tiled floors and wainscoating have been installed in the small operating room, sterilizing room, instrument room, and in the service rooms.

Y. M. C. A. Gets Palms
The Y. M. C. A. Association has recently placed two large palms in Close Hall. The trees give an excellent appearance to both the reading room and the general entrance.

Choral Rehearsal Tonight
The University Choral Society will hold its regular weekly rehearsal in the Auditorium, Hall of Natural Sciences, this evening immediately following the mass meeting.

PROF. C. B. WILSON TELLS OF TRIP
Addresses Whitney Society on His Travels

Prof. C. B. Wilson gave a very interesting description of his recent trip in Germany before the Whitney Society. He spoke of many places famous because of their literary associations, such as the homes of Goethe, Schiller and Luther. Mr. Wilson also described very vividly his tour through Western Germany.

After the address of the evening a number of amendments to the society constitution were read for the first time. If these amendments are adopted they will materially change the character of the society and will tend to broaden its scope.

The members of the society are completing plans for a commemoration of the tenth anniversary of the founding of the Whitney Society, on December 11. The society was founded December 11, 1897. Among the numbers of the program will be the decennial address by Prof. Hugh A. Smith of the University of Wisconsin. Prof. Smith will speak on "Some discoveries in the epic history of the first crusade."

Alumni at Greene

At Greene, Iowa, is located an able and progressive group of University students and alumni. Benjamin Boardman, L. A. '01, a former well known long distance runner, is superintendent of schools and is enjoying the confidence of the people. Clarence W. Soesbe, L. A. '01, is cashier of the Merchants National bank. He and Mrs. Soesbe, nee Clara Stuart, L. A. '00, have a beautiful home, to which some ten months ago they welcomed a fine boy. In the bank Mr. Soesbe is assisted by D. H. Ellis, ex. '03.

The dental department is represented by Dr. G. H. Reynolds, '99, and Dr. J. M. Wilson, '07. The former is assisted by Mrs. Reynolds and the firm has an extensive practice, but that there is an abundant opportunity for Dr. Wilson is shown by the handsome patronage extended him.

In medicine Dr. Patterson, Ex. '98, and Dr. W. R. Arthur represent the University. Dr. Patterson has the largest practice in the city and has been fortunate in handling difficult cases, while the many friends of Dr. Arthur will be glad to know that he is well started on his professional career.

A. E. Hill, Ph. G. '02, is living there, not engaged in his profession at present because of ill health. Greene is also the home of Louis Hanke, L. A. '06, now a law student in the University of Colorado, in which he expects to practice.

WET FIELD WILL FAVOR AMES TEAM

Iowa Plays Much More Open Game Than Aggies

Ames Does Not Use Forward Pass so Much as Hawkeyes—Heavy Going a Hardship

[BY MAURICE A. KENT]

Just how will a wet, heavy field affect the outcome of the Iowa-Ames game Saturday? The consensus of opinion is that it would favor the Aggies for the simple reason that in the games already played this season the Iowa team has played a much more open game than the Clyde Williams team. But there are several things to be considered before it can be definitely decided that a wet field would be solely to Ames' advantage.

The Illinois game showed distinctly that Iowa has developed the forward pass and the short kick to a wonderful extent. But Iowa also can play the old fashioned plunging game to a finish and, as shown in the last part of the Illinois game, she has the helping spirit developed equally as well. Hazard, Kirk, Gross and White are all heavy and fast and if it is necessary can play old fashioned line plunging game that would almost necessarily be resorted to on a slow, wet field. But the fact still remains that Iowa shines particularly in two respects, the forward pass and helping and with the forward pass and Kirk's drop kicking handicapped by a wet ball the old gold offense would be correspondingly weakened.

Also, although Ames hasn't used the forward pass as much as Iowa that is no sign that Clyde Williams hasn't been preparing it especially for the Iowa game and hence a wet field might also be a serious handicap to the Ames repertoire of plays. Still another thing, Ames has the weight of her team a little more evenly distributed than Iowa and this would seem to her advantage if the old style football were to be played entirely. But summing it all up and taking into consideration the handicaps and advantages a wet field would bring to both teams it still must be said that Ames would have the advantage in case of anything but a dry field.

of Iowa City, a graduate of the College of Law, was recently in Ames on business concerning a lecture course, and incidentally witnessed Williams' men practice, but he had no connection with authorities here.

A report in circulation that Kirk's father was dangerously ill and the star half-back might be kept from playing in the Ames game has been traced down. The foundation for the story lies in the fact that Kirk was called from the dressing rooms to answer a long distance telephone call, but the message was only a request to reserve tickets for the game from the block sent here for sale.

The Friday morning edition of the DAILY IOWAN will contain the time of leaving of the Varsity, and it is hoped that a large delegation will congregate at the depot to give the team a rousing send-off.

COLLEGE OF MEDICINE GIVEN HIGH HONOR

Educational Authorities of N. Y. Recognizes Iowa

University of Iowa Graduates Receive Privileges—Admitted to Licensing Examination

Word has recently been received from the First Assistant Commissioner of Education of the State of New York that the College of Medicine of the University of Iowa has been registered in the first class of the first group of medical colleges in the United States. This means that the graduates of our College of Medicine will be admitted directly to the licensing examination in New York.

The Education Department of New York makes a very careful classification of the colleges of the country, both literary and scientific on the one hand and professional and technical on the other hand, with reference to their strength in equipment, courses, and faculties in order to determine whether certain privileges in the State of New York are to be accorded to the graduates of such colleges.

The State of New York protects its own medical students by creating a high standard, which at the same time raises the efficiency of its own colleges. Thus it will be seen that the College of Medicine of the University of Iowa is in line with the best schools of the country.

The registering of our school in the first class of the first group, means the extension of the best privileges to U. of I. graduates. It will be remembered that the College of Pharmacy has also received equal recognition.
